GREAT CROWDS FORECAST BIG VOTE ON MAYOR

Hoyne Meetings on South Side Are Jammed.

BY CHARLES N. WHEELER.

Predictions by election officials that the total vote next Tuesday may go as high as 700,000 seemed to be well founded by the enormous crowds that are flocking to the political rallies all over the city in the last days of the campaign.

The opening of the contest was listless, but a trip around the city last night showed perhaps the greatest interest ever taken in a municipal campaign.

Maclay Hoyne, going through the Hyde Park wards, could have had overflow meetings at most of his stop.

Children Cheer Hoyne.

At Garfield boulevard and Halsted street, in the Deneen home ward, and at Seventy-ninth and Halsted streets in the Thirty-second ward Hoyne enthusiasm was an eye opener to the neighborhoods. Crowds of children on the street hurrahed for him as he reached these two points. The halls were packed to suffocation.

At the Thirty-second ward meeting Hoyne was in friendly territory because of his conviction of the alleged wreckers of the Auburn State bank. He took this opportunity, as his audience was made up largely of depositors in the bank, to go over the record of his office in the rounding up and prosecuting of wreckers of private banks in all sections of the city.

Assails Former Auditor.

He told the audience that the reason there had been so many private bank scandals in the outlying districts of Chicago was, in his opinion, because of the laxity of public officials, who get into office by the old party machine route. He assailed former State Auditor Brady, whom he allied with the Sweitzer-Sullivan "gas machine."

"The Bransfield and McFarland bank is another example of a bank that never should have been permitted to run and defraud depositors," he said. "The state auditor could have known, and should have known, its condition at the outset, and that it was rotten.

"The forest preserve of Cook county, controlled by the Sullivan machine, was a depositor in this bank. After the Bransfield and McFarland bank closed I prosecuted and convicted the guilty persons, who are out of jail while their cases are pending on appeal.

Gas Machine Politics.

"It was the gas machine politics that allowed this swindle to be carried on. The deposits of public funds in the bank allowed these 'wildcat' bankers to obtain a false credit in the minds of the people, and convince them that the bank was solvent."

Mr. Hoyne told the history of the Graham bank failure and showed the deposits of public funds held there by Mr. Sweitzer, as county clerk. He also ripped into Mr. Sweitzer's connection with the Hanover Life and Casualty company and the American Truck and Trailer company, and wound up by declaring that the time had come for the people to take the local government out of the hands of the machine politicians.

All Candidates Confident.

On the Thursday before the election four years ago there wasn't an inside leader in the Sweitzer camp who didn't see the handwriting on the wall—who didn't feel that Thompson was going over, regardless of what they gave out for public consumption. They were in the graveyard, but kept up the whistling right up to the guillotine.

Even a casual visitor at the headquarters could see through the thin veneer of bleached smiles the Sweitzer counter boys kept on display up to the very hour of the slaughter.

There wasn't a real manager in the Thompson entourage who didn't feel on the same Thursday that Sweitzer was snowed under.

All Are Confident.

In this respect the present campaign on the Thursday before is unique.

Hoyne sincerely believes he has won. Thompson sincerely believes he has won, but by a decreased plurality.

Sweitzer and his generals actually believe it is the Thompson vote of four years ago reversed this time in favor of Sweitzer.

Two of the three candidates are go-

WASHINGTON NEWS —IN BRIEF—

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[Washington Bureau of The Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.

GERMANY is preparing to resist dictated terms of peace and is maneuvering to obtain a negotiated peace at the expense of Poland, Czecho-Slovakia, and other new European states, in the opinion of John F. Smulski of Chicago, Polish commissioner in the United States, who gave his views today of the spread of bolshevism in eastern Europe.

Charles Pergler, Czecho-Slovak commissioner, took a similar view of German intrigue, which he held responsible for the canard that President Masaryk of Czecho-Slovakia has resigned.

The mid-European union cabled President Wilson to ask the allies to arm and equip the armies of the newly created small nations and of Roumania to combat the advance of bolshevism.

THE war department, preparing to bring American soldier dead home from France after peace is declared, is circularizing relatives of the dead to ascertain their wishes regarding ultimate disposition of their bodies. It is anticipated that many of the 70,000 Americans who made the great sacrifice may be left to rest under the sod of the battlefield of the great war, but wishes of relatives who want their dead brought home are to be gratified as soon as possible. Gen. Pershing cabled the war department today that approximately 5,500 missing Americans are still unaccounted for.

MEMBERS of the senate foreign relations committee are wondering what has become of the constitution of the league of nations drafted by the American peace delegation. They want to compare it with the British draft, the one adopted. President Wilson told them on Feb. 26 that he had no objection to their seeing the American draft. Some skeptics think there never was a complete American draft.

GOVERNMENT officials call attention to the fact that the clocks must be set ahead one hour next Sunday morning, it being the last Sunday in March, the day prescribed by law for beginning the seven month period of daylight saving each year.

DIFFICULTY in finding a middle western man to fill the Delano vacancy on the federal reserve board is being encountered by Secretary of the Treasury Glass, who is preparing to make a recommendation for an appointment to President Wilson. The restriction in the law prohibiting a member from assuming connections with a federal reserve bank within two years causes bankers to hesitate to accept the eighteen months' appointment to fill the vacancy.

THE department of labor announced that eighteen cities in the country are planning or conducting "own your own home" campaigns, among them Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul. The campaigns are being encouraged and aided by the government because of a general shortage of dwellings throughout the country.

EDWARD N. HURLEY of Chicago, chairman of the shipping board, has been awarded the distinguished service cross by Gen. Pershing, because "with tireless energy he surmounted extreme difficulties and increased trans Atlantic tonnage" and "rendered a service to the world" in the war emergency.

MASKED BANDITS ROB ARKANSAS TRAIN; GET $6,000

Marion, Ark., March 27.—A St. Louis and San Francisco train en route from St. Louis to Memphis was held up between this city and Bridge Junction last night by three masked men, who escaped with about $6,000 in cash, it is reported here.

De Valera Received by Lord Mayor of Dublin

DUBLIN, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—Edward de Valera, the Sinn Fein "president of Ireland," visited the Mansion house this afternoon and was received by the lord mayor and some members of his entourage.

Prof. de Valera in an interview said that owing to the attitude of the censors it would be useless to make a statement.

Baker Going to Europe for Few Weeks April 6

Washington, D. C., March 27.—Secretary Baker now plans to sail for Europe about April 6. The time of his stay abroad has not been determined, it was said today, but the secretary expects to be gone only a few weeks.

'REILLY'S BUCKS' TO PARADE HERE

Arrangements for Great Homecoming Fete Now Under Way.

Chicago will be given an opportunity to show her full appreciation of Col. Henry J. Reilly's One Hundred and Forty-ninth field artillery regiment.

Adj. Gen. P. C. Harris announced yesterday that the regiment will be routed through Chicago, accorded the usual "victory furlough" here and be demobilized in Camp Grant following its arrival from overseas.

"I am directed by the acting secretary of war to advise you that the One Hundred and Forty-ninth field artillery will be routed through Chicago as you have requested," the adjutant general wired W. N. Pelouze, chairman of the Chicago welcoming committee. "The regiment will probably be demobilized in Camp Grant, although demobilization plans have not been entirely completed."

Can Now Plan Big Fête.

"Thousands of home folks have been worrying over the possibility that the gallant Chicago artillery unit would not touch Chicago when the Rainbow division returns," said Col. Pelouze. "Now we can proceed with plans for probably the biggest demonstration the city has seen.

"Auxiliaries of the regiment already have formed elaborate plans for the entertainment of their boys and the city committee is coöperating in every way to make homecoming day memorable. Plans will follow other welcome home schedules unless unexpected changes come when the executive committee meets to complete arrangements. A big committee and bands will meet the troop train and escort the regiment either to the Coliseum or an armory for a big reception, dance, and entertainment. Luncheon in hotels or clubs and a big parade of the troops will complete the city demonstration."

Mothers to Coöperate.

The Mothers' Aid of D battery held an all day meeting at the Strand hotel yesterday and pledged their coöperation with the city in the regimental homecoming. Each battery will be entertained by its own relatives and friends if the homecoming furlough is long enough to allow this service.

Plans for an additional homecoming day to welcome Chicago's own railroad regiment, the Thirteenth engineers, weer taken up yesterday by the welcoming committee. Presidents of the various roads operating into Chicago, each of which supplied platoons for the regiment, are coöperating.

HUNDREDS DIE IN JEWISH POGROMS IN THE UKRAINE

LONDON, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Zionist organization reports having received from an eyewitness news of a series of pogroms in the Ukraine, organized by Haidamaks, with a "death regiment" at their head.

The pogroms are reported to have taken place at Berdicheff, Zhitomir, Tscherto-Hyl, Ovrutsch, Belajazerkoff, Leticheff, Elisabetgrad, Vasilkov, and other places.

Hundreds of Jews and Jewesses were killed or wounded, according to the reports. Jewish men were drowned or shot and Jewish women were subjected to shameful treatment. The death regiment is declared not have spared a single Jewish township between Kiev and Backmatsch.

Evanston Railway Seeks to Improve Scenery

Application was made yesterday to the trustees of the sanitary district of Chicago by officials of the Evanston Railway company for permission to improve the scenery of the land belonging to the district, opposite the Evanston station. The land is between the canal and Bryant avenue, south of the Evanston golf grounds. The request was referred to the committee on real estate.

ANTI-BOLSHEVIK ARMIES UNITE

Russian Reds Suffer Several Reverses in Battle.

BULLETIN.

COPENHAGEN, March 27.—It is officially announced that the Lettish forces have taken the town of Shlotsk, thirty miles southwest of Riga, from the bolsheviki.

An official communication issued by the Lettish Press bureau also says:

"The bolsheviki on Saturday tried to reoccupy the railroad from Mitau to Tukkum, but were put to flight after two hours' fighting. In view of the menace to Riga the bolsheviki are defending themselves obstinately.

"Lettish troops have captured the important points of Raggedzem and Kemmern, near Riga. The river Aa has been forced here.

ARCHANGEL, Tuesday, March 25. —[By the Associated Press.]—The Russian staff today announced the fulfillment of the expectation of the long awaited junction between the Siberian forces and the northern government troops fighting against the bolsheviki. The junction occurred on March 23 at Ust Kozva, in the Pechora district.

The vanguards of the Pechora troops, under direction of the Archangel staff, met a party of Siberians on that date. In the Pinaga sector the allies have encircled and taken the village of Torosha, after having killed 100 bolsheviki and capturing three machine guns. The allied loss was only one man.

Headquarters reports the shelling of the Vaga sector. In the other sectors, including Bolshoia Ozera, the situation is unchanged.

Lenine Admits Work of Ruin.

LONDON, March 27.—[British Wireless Service.]—From well informed sources the Westminster Gazette learns that Nikolai Lenine, the Russian bolshevik premier, charged with the destructiveness of bolshevism and the ruin which it has brought to the workers in Russia, declared that he quite realized this fact, but that he cared nothing for Russia as Russia.

The sole consideration, he said, was internationalism. That the workers all over the world would be ruined as a result of their taking up bolshevism he was aware. The only benefit of which Lenine could hold out any prospect was to be reaped at a time "some generations ahead" by those who would then be living.

TWO ITALIAN ARMIES MARCH INTO HUNGARY

New Soviets Hold Revolt Cost No Dead or Hurt.

BULLETIN.

LONDON, March 27.—Italian troops have entered Raab, Hungary, about fifty miles southeast of Pressburg, according to a Vienna dispatch to the Central News. Already 7,000 Italian troops are in Pressburg.

BY GEORGE RENWICK.

Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable. [Copyright: 1919.]

BERLIN, March 26.—[Delayed.]—Independent information is coming from Vienna and Budapest, and from it can be gathered the story of the Hungarian revolution. In Budapest itself public order was never for a moment disturbed, nor did the public services cease to work. The new government assumed office without meeting the slightest opposition from any quarter.

Newspapers are appearing again and there is no censorship, though the press has been enjoined that it must publish the official statements prominently. The press greets the change with enthusiasm.

Soviets in Control.

From the provinces news comes that the workers' councils have assumed power everywhere without opposition. Budapest banks are under strict control, and the only money allowed to be paid out is that for wages. Beyond that people may draw from their accounts only small sums sufficient for living expenses.

The Hungarian press voices no opposition to this fresh revolution. The Pester Lloyd says: "The angry sound of the Hungarian alarm bells betokens an earthquake which will shake Europe from the Urals to the Thames."

And in Vienna, too, the newspapers are decidedly sympathetic. The Neue Freie Presse emphasis that the non-Socialist forces also are behind the government. The Socialist Arbeiter Zeitung admires "the courage of our Hungarian brothers, for the cause for which they risk everything today is also ours. The proletariat dictatorship in Hungary shows that our cause is marching forward."

NOT ONE LIFE LOST.

LONDON, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—A Hungarian wireless communication dealing with the situation in Hungary was received here today. It is addressed "To All."

The message says that complete peace and order reign in Budapest and throughout the country, and that the revolution was carried on entirely without bloodshed. Neither in Budapest nor the provinces was a single person wounded, let alone being killed.

The food supply of the capital and the country is declared to be adequate. Provision shops and markets are open and the population can obtain adequate supplies of food. Security for life and property has been guaranteed by government decree and the proclamation of martial law.

Rights for Children.

It is added that enactments have been made giving illegitimate children equal rights with those of legitimate birth and making marriage a simple civil ceremony. Also decrees have been issued regulating the circulation of money at banks, allowing holders of current accounts up to $400 to retain control of their money. Directors of banks are to retain their posts and fees, but only to a miximum of $600 monthly. The banking business is proceeding in an orderly manner.

The communication adds that government decrees give complete guarantees of security to life and property of all foreign subjects in Hungary. It declares untrue the report that Count Michael Karolyi had been succeeded as provisional president.

Take Over Industries.

COPENHAGEN, March 27.—[By Associated Press.—A Budapest dispatch received here outlines a decree issued by the new revolutionary government which places all industrial enterprises employing more than twenty workers under the control of the workers themselves. The decree also provides that these establishments are to be under the management of commissaries appointed by the ministry of social production.

Hughes Gives Ultimatum on Race Barrier

PARIS, March 27.—[By Associated Press.]—William G. Hughes, the premier of Australia, made the flat statement to the Associated Press today that he was unalterably in opposition to the proposed Japanese racial equality amendment to the covenant of the league of nations or to any form of it, however mild in recognizing that principle.

"Australia," Mr. Hughes said, "cannot accept this proposal, which strikes at the very roots of the policy that we have maintained so long, which is vital to our existence and which we have guarded as zealously as has America her Monroe doctrine."

Cannot Give Way.

"I am most anxious to avoid anything likely to hurt the susceptibilities of the people of other nations, but on this point, since we cannot give way, it is best that I should speak plainly. We cannot agree to the insertion of any words in the covenant or in the treaty of peace that would impair, or even question, our sovereign rights in regard to any and every aspect of this question.

"One of the cardinal principles of the league is that there shall be no interference in the internal affairs of any nation. No nation will surrender its sovereignty in matters essential to its welfare to enter the league.

Sees New Principle.

"I cannot but regard the proposed amendment as an effort to establish a principle under which ultimately some nations would find their internal policy changed by the league at the instigation of one of its members. The amendment is one which, no matter how innocuous it may seem in form, is certainly aimed at giving the league control of questions relating to immigration, naturalization, and matters which cannot be surrendered by any state without such impairment of its sovereignty as to make it, in effect, a subject state.

"If the league is able to compel a state to amend its immigration, naturalization, and franchise laws, there remains to the state only the shadow of sovereignty. The substance has gone.

Can't Agree to Dictation.

"No free nation could agree to dictation in such matters from the league of nations. Intimate problems belong to and must remain under the control of individual nations.

"Of course we are told by those who advocate this amendment that nothing more is desired than the mere recognition of the principle. They say that no action is contemplated. I am afraid that this assurance will not reconcile the people of Australia to the proposal. It certainly does not satisfy me.

"Either the proposal means something or nothing. If nothing then why insert it? If something, then surely this something will not be achieved by mere words, stopping for all time short of action. If these words which it is desired to insert in the covenant mean nothing, then the covenant itself means nothing.

"Without committing myself to the draft of the league of nations, which, of course, has not yet been discussed by the conference and which I hope and believe will be amended in certain directions, I have no hesitation in declaring myself in favor of the attempt to substitute the rule of law and right for that of force."

GERMANS IN YANK ZONE DEVELOPING A DEFIANT SPIRIT

BY EDWIN L. JAMES.

Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable. [Copyright: 1919.]

COLBENZ, March 27.—The attitude of stolid submission which prevailed among the Germans in this territory in the earlier period of the American occupation is disappearing, and there are signs of a developing spirit of self-assertion by a part of the population.

Far from causing dismay among the Third army, this change comes as a sort of relief to the deadly monotony of the "watch on the Rhine."

No one can write down in a few words the cause of the change. One might infer that the German is allowing his mind to reach the conclusion that things are not as he would like to have them, and that he cannot longer keep on his mask of outward calm. The accumulated steam is beginning to blow off.

It is simply a case of the Americans getting on their nerves. The natural consequence of manifestations of this psychological condition on the part of the Germans is that sooner or later they are going to get on the Americans' nerves.

IGNORES JAP PROPOSAL FOR RACE EQUALITY

Completed Draft Waits Action by Full Commission.

THE DAY IN PARIS

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Redraft of covenant completed and sent to drafting committee.

Monroe doctrine is left unprotected, no amendment having been made, and outlook on this is almost hopeless.

No mention made in redraft of Japan's demand for racial equality.

Women given full and equal rights.

Provision made for immediately starting machinery of league.

Member states permitted to withdraw after two years' notice.

TREATY OF PEACE.

Big Four agree on amount of reparation Germany is to pay, probably less than $30,000,000,000.

Boundaries bring deadlock, with French demand for Saar valley presumably one of issues. The Adriatic, the German Austria annexation to Germany, and the Rhine border also contentions.

Foch and Bliss called in by supercouncil to consider bolshevik problem.

PARIS, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—Containing neither any reference to the Monroe Doctrine nor to the Japanese proposal for recognition of the racial equality of nations, the draft of the covenant of the league of nations today is in the hands of the special drafting committee.

The draft was completed Wednesday night at a sitting of the full commission and the covenant is expected to be ready in completed form early next week. The two amendments, around which has centered the greatest interest and much divergence of opinion, however, may be offered either in the council of ten or to the plenary peace conference, to which the covenant must go for final action.

Recognition of Suffrage.

Among other amendments adopted Wednesday night was one directly recognizing the principle of woman's suffrage in that it provides that the offices of the league are open to women as well as to men.

The much discussed question as to the policy of the withdrawal from membership in the league of a nation was settled by an amendment permitting withdrawal on two years' notice, but not until such nation has filled its international obligations.

Article X. of the covenant, to which the Monroe doctrine amendment would apply, stands in its original form. President Wilson having reserved for the present the amendment which had been prepared as expressing the views of the American delegation. It is now explained that it was not the exact text but only the general form of the amendment which was given to the press and that hence criticism must be withheld for the present.

Sound Out Delegations.

Careful soundings are being taken to ascertain the reception that is likely to be given this amendment by other delegations. If unfriendly sentiment develops or the pressing of other and obnoxious amendments is threatened as a consequence of insistence upon the Monroe doctrine, it is said the amendment may be altogether withheld.

It has been learned that thus far the result of these inquiries has not been wholly encouraging to the advocates of the amendment, but that they will be continued until the attitude of all the delegations is ascertained.

Japanese Not Idle.

Since the first mention of the desire of the Japanese to secure an amendment recognizing equality before the law for all nationals of the league of nation states in other countries, the Japanese delegates have not pressed their amendment before the commission itself. They have, however, been canvassing the delegations with various forms of such an amendment, endeavoring to find out the feeling toward it.

As a matter of fact, the Japanese amendment did not come before the commission last night, but it is understood its authors have not abandoned the idea of obtaining an expression of feeling on it from the council of ten.

and perhaps from the plenary peace conference itself.

Start to Organize.

An important amendment adopted last night provides for the creation of a committee on organization of the league which is to be empowered to proceed with arrangements for the assembly, securing the necessary buildings and perfecting the secretariat forces, all in advance of the ratification of the treaty. But the acts of this committee will be subject to the approval of the ratifying body.

The purpose is to speed up the beginning of the workings of the league to meet the critical issues that now daily are arising throughout the world.

Another amendment gathers into one section all of the separate conventions which are to be incorporated in the covenant, such as those relating to labor, commerce and finance, so that these are not made a part of the treaty but that the countries signatory agreed to do the things set forth therein. This would leave the league only to execute the terms of such conventions as may be agreed upon by the separate states.

On White Slavery.

Provision is to be made for similar treatment of other conventions on other subjects, such as white slavery and the opium traffic, which are likely hereafter to be inserted in the covenant.

The language of the mandatory article has been changed so as to make it clear that no nation shall be obliged to act as a mandatory.

Generally the language of the whole covenant has been clarified, particularly article 1, to meet the charge of Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, New York, of ungrammatical language and the words "high contracting parties" appears now only in that one article.

WRANGLE OVER TREATY

PARIS, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—The supercouncil of the president and premiers, now known as the council of four, divided its labors today between the "white house" and M. Clemenceau's private office, adjoining the war office.

The Franco-German frontier was the chief topic of discussion, this following upon an agreement reached last night on reparation for war damages. It is understood that this agreement includes the vital point of the total amount of indemnity, which will not be announced at present, as it is likely to cause discussion and arouse hostility in enemy quarters.

Berlin Names Envoys.

It is noted as a coincidence that a German financial commission is being chosen to come to Versailles, where the settlement of this branch may include all interests.

The frontier question turns on the disposition of the Saar valley coal regions and the west bank of the Rhine. The territorial experts have said their last word, and frankly declare that it is a question now of political expediency, on which the supercouncil alone can pass.

Marshal Foch and Gen. Tasker H. Bliss were called into the council during the afternoon, indicating that military questions, including the serious situation in Hungary and Russia, were receiving attention.

CUT DOWN DAMAGES.

BY HENRY WALES.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[By Special Cable.]

PARIS, March 27.—The amount of money Germany can pay physically depends upon how much business she is allowed to do. While the reparations total has been cut to $30,000,000,000, it is believed it will be further reduced.

The entire wealth of pre-war Germany, before her colonies were lost, her trade secrets taken, and Alsace-Lorraine returned to France, was $80,000,000,000.

The total of French wealth is $40,000,000,000, and entire northern France $12,000,000,000. Belgium's total wealth is $8,000,000,000.

Ten Billion Limit.

The Germans claim that $10,000,000,000 is the most they will pay, stating that all northern France is not destroyed and only a small part of Belgium.

American materials experts declare the crisis next winter will be in raw materials and not food. They assert the world's coal mines must be started in operation immediately; otherwise it will be impossible to transport coal. The German mines are not working owing to labor troubles, the Silesian mines are crippled, and no Russian mines are working. The Lens mines have been destroyed. The British coal output is seriously reduced through miners' troubles and Italy is facing a more critical situation than after Caporetto, due to a lack of coal and the consequent paralysis of transport. Belgium is the only country in the world today having more coal than she needs.

SERBS STRIKE AT ITALY

PARIS, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—Peace conference circles were disturbed today over the paradoxical situation in the eastern Adriatic. Almost simultaneously with the Italian action in lifting the blockade in that region, the Serbian press published a decree prohibiting importation from and exportation to Italy, thus nullifying the Italian action. Details of the situation have not yet reached Paris.

"Has Jugo-Slavia declared war on Italy?" was the question asked last night by a member of the Italian delegation to the peace conference, when he learned that the council of ministers at Belgrade had prohibited any commerce with enemy countries, and Italy.

JOY AT SUFFRAGE CONVENTION OVER VICTORY IN PARIS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 27.—News that woman suffrage had been recognized in the covenant of the league of nations reached the annuel convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association here just after the close of the afternoon session, but it quickly passed from delegate to delegate and there was general rejoicing.

Some individual opinions on the news from Paris follow:

Mrs. Raymond Robins—The news is very significant to our body, since only today we decided to have women placed on all international commissions.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt (president National American Suffrage association)—It is a splendid recognition of what women have done in the war. Men could do no less. Common working for the common welfare in Europe reminds us again of the fast way our own country is lagging behind.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president N. A. W. S. A.—It is a practical thing. It will admit women to all positions in the league and to the peace conference. It was bound to come.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president Illinois Equal Suffrage association—It is a splendid thing for women. I hope that a woman will occupy a high office in the league.

Mrs. George W. Reineck, Chicago, executive secretary of Republican women's national executive committee—It is a great step toward true democracy.

Mrs. Fletcher Dobyns, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the Victory loan—Women have received the appreciation which they earned by their services in the war. I hope that at least one American woman will sit at the peace conference.

TAFT IDEAS ON COVENANT SENT ONLY WEEK AGO

Washington, D. C., March 27.—The text of the proposed amendment to the league of nations covenant suggested by former President Taft, which was considered by President Wilson and the allied premiers in Paris yesterday, was sent from the White House less than a week ago after Mr. Taft had been assured by Secretary Tumulty that any suggestion from him would be welcomed by the president. This became known today at the White House.

Several suggestions were made by Mr. Taft, the principal one dealing with the Monroe doctrine. This was stated officially, but White House officials declined to give out the text of the communication.

DEBS APPEALS FOR REHEARING

Washington, D. C., March 27.—The Supreme court was asked today to rehear the case of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist leader, whose conviction under the espionage act growing out of statements made by him in a speech in Canton, O., was affirmed by the court on March 10. In petitions filed with the court Debs declared that the affirming opinion "clearly amounts to the trial of a person for an undisclosed 'state of mind,'" and that the court failed to decide all the questions raised in connection with the case.

Berlin Reads Secret Orders to Ebert Troops

BERLIN, Wednesday, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.]—Alleged secret orders of Gen. von Luttwitz to his regimental commanders informing them that the Spartacans are planning a new revolution for the purpose of introducing the soviet system not only among the troops but among the civil population, are printed by the radical newspaper Republik.

A rumor broadcast in Berlin that a renewal of the Spartacan uprisings is due about Whitsunday (June 8) coincides with information in the alleged orders.

The government has protested to army officers against the demonstration they gave for Gen. Ludendorff last Sunday on the ground that it has given opponents an opportunity to assert that everything is the same in Germany as under the former emperor.

Moslem Soldiers Massacre Armenians at Aleppo

ATHENS, March 25.—[Delayed.]—Advices from reliable sources at Constantinople state that a massacre of Armenians by Moslem gendarmes occurred recently at Aleppo.

It is reported that forty-eight Armenians were killed, 111 seriously wounded, and 150 slightly injured.

France and Greece Given Additional Credit by U. S.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—France was given a credit of $100,000,000 by the treasury today and Greece was given $3,853,000 additional. This made total credits to France $2,617,477,000; to Greece, $43,412,000, and a total for all allies of $9,036,369,000.

FERDINAND DIED BLOCKING KAISER, PAPERS REVEAL

War Torch Slaying Not by Serbia, According to Czernin Files.

New York, March 27.—George Creel, former chairman of the committee on public information, made public here tonight a summary of the secret correspondence of Count Czernin, late foreign minister of Austria-Hungary, which was turned over to Edgar Sisson at Prague by the custodian official of the Bohemian government on Jan. 24 last.

One of the most sensational of the disclosures was that there was a German-Magyar conspiracy against the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir apparent to the throne of Austria, who was assassinated at Sarajevo on June 28, 1914, because he was considered a rival of the then Emperor William.

Worked Against Germany.

In a report to Mr. Sissons on the scope of the letters, Capt. Immanuel Voska, U. S. A., head of the Prague bureau of the committee on public information, said:

"From the documents and letters it will be shown that Francis Ferdinand was working on building up a strong Austria, which would eventually emancipate itself from the influence of Berlin. This was blocking Berlin's plan for expansion toward the east, and the Berlin government came to an understanding with the Budapest government to offset the plans of Francis Ferdinand.

"From one of the letters it is evident that the German emperor's son, Eitel Frederick, was selected to study the Magyar language and to make friends of the Magyar nobility.

No Serf Plot on Ferdinand.

"Although no positive proof was found from the documents on hand as to the conspiracy to kill Archduke Francis Ferdinand, it is sufficiently evident that there was no conspiracy in Serbia for that purpose. The archduke was rather a friend of Serbia in hated of the Magyars, as he knew of the conspiracy between the Berlin and the Budapest governments.

"It is shown from the letters that when Aehrenthal (Austro-Hungarian foeign minister) annexed Bosnia in 1909 and Serbia protested through Russia, and was supported by England, Count Czernin had an audience with Francis Ferdinand. The latter was against war with Serbia, as the powers would say halt after Serbia was overridden and nothing would be in such a war. But Count Hoetzendorf, the chief of staff, was strongly for war. The Austro-Hungarian general staff was strongly under the influence of the German general staff.

Where Shoe Pinched Kaiser.

"It is also shown:

"That a strong centralized Austria under Francis Ferdinand was too strong a barrier against German expansion towards the next far east. Francis Ferdinand started to centralize his power first with the creation of a 'ministry of the imperial court,' of which the intention was to offset Magyar power.

"That in Hungary Count Tisza and a certain Mr. Kristoffy were the secret supporters of Francis Ferdinand through Count Czernin. Other Hungarian aristocrats, according to documents, were pro-German and called 'rebels' by Francis Ferdinand.

"That Francis Ferdinand was dangerous to the German emperor and his aspirations. Emperor William feared and hated the Slavs, but liked the Magyars. He said Francis Ferdinand was too rabid toward the Magyars.

Proved by the War.

"That a way via German-Austria and Hungary to the far east was natural, as the Magyars had aspirations for Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Magyars with a German prince as their king (Eitel Frederick) would have been the best allies of William II. And the pro-German and pro-war Austrian general staff, with Count Hoetzendorf at its head, is another connecting link with the aspirations of the Germans in the far east.

"The war has proved all this. The old Austrian emperor and Emperor Charles were too stupid to see the real cause of the war and the aims of the Germans and the Magyars."

Mr. Creel added this comment: "It is only fair to point out that the Magyar portion of the conspiracy was engineered by German controlled nobles, all of whom were repudiated and exiled when Karolyi came to power."

BOLSHEVIK RULE GAINING

1—All of Galicia is reported to be in revolt. The trouble started in the oil fields of Dobhobyos and quickly spread until the whole of the former Austro-Hungarian provinces swung over to the Reds.

2—A republic has been declared in Bessarabia, London reports, and military operations have begun against the Roumanian army, which has been forced to fall back. Bolsheviki, supported by Ukranians, are believed to be back of this new development as a part of their plan to break through Roumania to establish contact between Moscow and Budapest.

3—Allied forces in Odessa are reported to be holding the Russian bolsheviki forces at bay in a zone of forty miles around the city. The reports of the serious condition of the allied forces in this region are said to have been exaggerated by the Red propagandists.

4—The occupation of Pressburg, on the Hungarian frontier, thirty-five miles southeast of Vienna, by Italian troops, is reported to have been at the request of Czecho-Slovakia. This quick action is to be backed up by reinforcements, according to Paris dispatches, with Gen. Mangin of the French army in command.

5—Jugo-Slavs are reported to have issued a decree at Belgrade prohibiting imports from Italy and the transportation of Italian goods to any country across Jugo-Slav territory.

were informed today that the proletariat has placed the management of all the affairs of the capital in the hands of a provisional committee.

The government has issued an order making work compulsory, taking the stand that only those working manually or mentally have a right to live in a proletariat state. The order says that the state will be obliged to support all persons incapable of working or those for whom employment cannot be provided.

Try to Reach U. S.

PARIS, March. 27.—[By The Associated Press.]—Copies of wireless messages sent by George Tchitcherin, the Russian bolshevik foreign minister, to various leaders in Hungary show his indignation that the world refuses to accept the Hungarian revolution as genuine and discredits its bolshevik character. A wireless sent by Tchitcherin to Bela Kun, the Hungarian foreign minister at Budapest, which was intercepted by the French foreign office, says:

"Have you good news from other countries? If not, do not fail to get wireless messages sent from Paris to the United States by the American correspondents, who are sending excellent criticisms of the French policy and the peace conference proceedings."

Italy Helps Czechs.

A Berlin dispatch to the Temps says that the Italian troops have occupied Pressburg apparently on the request of the Czecho-Slovaks, or at least after a previous understanding with them.

Gen. Mangin, one of the leading officers of the French army, will be recalled from his command at Mayence, the newspapers announce, to undertake a mission in the Balkans, which means, presumably, that he will direct an allied fight against the bolsheviki.

PEACE NOT DELAYED BY TALK ON COVENANT, WILSON DECLARES

PARIS, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—President Wilson today issued the following statement:

"In view of the very surprising impression which seems to exist in some quarters that it is the discussions of the commission on the league of nations that are delaying the final formulation of peace, I am very glad to take the opportunity of reporting that the conclusions of this commission were the first to be laid before the plenary conference.

"They were reported on Feb. 14 and the world has had a full month in which to discuss every feature of the draft covenant then submitted.

"During the last few days the commission has been engaged in an effort to take advantage of the criticisms which the publication of the covenant has fortunately drawn out. A committee of the commission has also had the advantage of a conference with representatives of the neutral states, who are evidencing a very deep interest and a practically unanimous desire to align themselves with the league.

"The revised covenant is now practically finished. It is in the hands of a committee for the final process of drafting and will almost immediately be presented a second time to the public.

"The conferences of the commission have invariably been held at times when they could not interfere with the consultation of those who have undertaken to formulate the general conclusions of the conference with regard to the many other complicated problems of peace. So that the members of the commission congratulate themselves on the fact that no part of their conferences has ever interposed any form of delay."

ASK PUNISHMENT OF SERBIANS FOR SERIES OF CRIMES

PARIS, March 27.—[By The Associated Press.—The government of Montenegro has handed to the peace conference a memorandum accusing Serbian officials with the following crimes in Montenegro:

Massacreing, torturing, and starving the inhabitants; internment of civilians; forced enrollment of the inhabitants in the Serbian army; confiscation and destruction of private property; destruction of historic monuments; depreciation of Montenegrin currency and misuse of the white flag.

The memorandum accuses Serbia also of invading the territory of its allies and usurping authority. The Montenegrin government demands the punishment of "the crimes official Serbia has committed against the allies."

BELIEVE ALLIES ERRED IN NOT TAKING BERLIN

Many Hold Quick Peace Would Have Capped Victory Drive.

BY CHARLES A. SELDEN.
Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.
[Copyright: 1919.]

PARIS, March 26.—[Delayed.]—On the fringe of the conference, at least, there seems less agreement now on how to make peace than there was 135 days ago, when the fighting ceased on the old fronts and before it had begun on the numerous fronts in eastern Europe.

That the fighting stopped on the old fronts of the main war too soon is the opinion that many adherents had even in that day of jubilant excitement when the armistice was signed on Nov. 11. There are as many—perhaps more—today who think that the world would have been better off if the fighting had continued when the enemy was collapsing, if Germany had been invaded and a quick peace had been dictated in Berlin before bolshevism had become a factor and before the Germans had plucked up courage to say what sort of peace they would or would not sign.

Wanted to Go On.

As everybody knows, it was the French desire to go on fighting last November. They still think that they were right, and attribute the present very dangerous and critical situation for the world, first, to the fact that the enemy was not crushed when it was possible, and, second, to the delay in taking full advantage of the victory that was won.

But now, according to the delegates from other nations, the French themselves are doing more than anybody else to increase the delay by holding out for such terms in the boundary and reparation settlements as the other powers will not sanction.

France, in demanding that the territory on the west bank of the Rhine be made a buffer state, frankly admits it is because she is afraid of another military attack from Germany in years to come.

Viewpoint of Italians.

But the Italians say:

"We have got to take a chance on Germany. France consented to take such a chance when she consented to end hostilities instead of going on to Berlin with the victorious armies. Now France must join the rest of us in willingness to take a further chance on Germany in the future instead of delaying peace by insisting on impossible conditions for the purpose of annihilating Germany."

That Italian theory, as passed to the French, is as good an illustration as any of what one gets by taking lunch with one nation and dining with another, and the necessity of eating breakfast alone. These two chief Latin nations are at odds on practically every issue. Italy being remote from the Rhine and having been many years an ally of Germany, has little sympathy for the fears of the French across the river from their century long enemy.

Oppose Flume Demands.

On the other hand, France is opposed to giving Fiume to Italy and backs the Jugo-Slovaks in practically their whole Adriatic claim.

France is moving heaven and earth to prevent the annexation of German Austria to Germany. Italy is doing everything possible to bring about that annexation.

These four questions, the Rhine, the German eastern boundaries, German Austria, and the Adriatic, are the biggest single problems of the conference, but none of them is near settlement. For future results, they involve more than all the other territorial matters put together.

But as yet there is no suggestion of unanimity in the "Big Four," which has just supplanted the "Big Ten," concerning any of these puzzles. But Wilson's "fourteen points" is given as the authority for every divergent claim or opinion and everybody asserts that he cannot yield on a matter of principle.

IMMIGRANTS MUST REGISTER IF NEW U. S. BILL IS PASSED

BOSTON, March 27.—A. Warner Parker, law officer of the United States bureau of immigration at Washington, announced today that the bureau of immigration had drafted a tentative immigration law, which would have a number of radical provisions regarding the admission and stay of aliens in the United States.

Speaking before the Boston Chamber of Commerce in place of A. Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration, who had been expected, but was detained at Washington, Mr. Parker said that three main features were included in the proposed new immigration law. These were:

Registration of all aliens now in the United States or who are to apply for admission hereafter;

Making the admission of immigrants provisional or probationary during their stay in this country; and

Changing the burden of proof of requirements for admission, so that it will be incumbent on aliens to prove their fitness for admission rather than upon the government to prove their unfitness, as at present.

"Our proposed law," said Mr. Parker, "is the result of months and months of study on the part of officers of the bureau of immigration and, while it is not yet in completed form, it will be ready for presentation at the next session of congress. It will approach the immigration question from an entirely new angle."

WORLD LEAGUE PLEA BASED ON BROTHERLY LOVE

The only possible basis for a league of nations is good feeling; it cannot be based upon commercialism, Prof. Andrew G. McLaughlin told members of the Hamilton club yesterday noon.

"Often we discuss the league of nations as if it were a conspiracy on the part of the whole world against the United States," said Prof. McLaughlin, "but we will find that this nation will have more friends than any other if we only do our duty.

"There is continuous criticism of two nations, Great Britain and Japan. They seem to be the subject of two ever-living prejudices. This is terribly discouraging and humiliating when we are trying to build up good fellowship and to bring about united action. As regards Japan, we cannot lay a finger on anything she has done that is harmful. If there is one thing that the British want more than any other it is good understanding and fellowship with the United States.

"The league cannot endure for a moment if we enter it with the belief that we are the only people whose word is good and continually mistrust the others."

Germany Unable to Lift Cyclops Veil of Mystery

BERLIN, March 26.—[By the Associated Press.]—[Delayed.]—The German admiralty says it is unable to give any assistance in solving the mystery of the disappearance early in March of last year of the United States naval collier Cyclops while bound from Brazil for the United States with a crew of fifteen officers and 221 men, fifty-seven passengers, and a cargo of manganese.

Admiralty officials say they received no report of the sinking of the Cyclops. They add that no German submarines were operating at the time in West Indian waters.

GERMANS KEEP 800 POLES FROM RETURN TO HOME

Send Women and Children Barred in Danzig Back to Holland.

PARIS, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—The German authorities, according to news reaching the Polish National committee, have refused to allow 800 Polish refugees, mostly women and children, to land at Danzig on their way to Poland.

The ground taken is said to have been that there are too many refugees already in Danzig. The steamer was compelled to return to Rotterdam, from where the refugees were sent to a Dutch concentration camp.

The committee says the Polish diet and the foreign affairs committee of Poland have presented a proposition for a military alliance of Poland with the entente.

A great military campaign against Poland is to be opened by the Russian soviet government this spring, it was declared by M. Joffe, the former bolshevik ambassador at Berlin, at a recent meeting in Vilna, according to word received by the Polish national committee in Paris.

Poland Asks Allied Aid.

WARSAW, March 22.—[Delayed.]—"We have men and officers, but no uniforms, rifles, munitions, or artillery," Gen. Pilsudski, provisional head of the Polish state, said in an interview here today with the American press representative of the American mission to Poland when asked about the military needs of Poland.

"Poland," the general continued, "is attacked on three sides and cannot protect herself without war material, which she is not yet equipped for manufacturing.

"I should say we might need to equip 500,000 men. Much material in France that the allies have no more need for might well be spared for us. America has guns, ammunition, airplanes, and automobile trucks, which she will not transport back to America."

Sure of Polish Victory.

Questioned as to whether with the Polish army equipped the various attacks on Poland could be repelled so as to produce permanent peace Gen. Pilsudski replied:

"I believe so. Our army would be superior in morale. The German army now is demoralized. The Ukrainians are superior to us now in equipment, but they are incapable of offensive fighting.

"The bolsheviki, our third enemy, have always conquered by destroying the morale of the troops opposed to them. When we are properly equipped we will have little difficulty in defeating the bolsheviki."

F. B. Harrison to Wed American Girl in Manila

Washington, D. C., March 27.—[Special.]—Francis Burton Harrison, governor general of the Philippines, during his recent visit to Washington told his family and a few personal friends, so it was learned today, that he expects to marry again. Just before starting home from the orient he became engaged to a young American girl living in Manila. Gov. Harrison's fiancée is only 17 years old. Her mother is said to be opposed to an immediate marriage.

RUSSIANS DIFFER ON BOLSHEVIKS, NOT ON RUSSIA

Views Show Tyranny Has Ended Forever; Good Days Are Ahead.

In this, his third article on conditions as he finds them in Russia, Frazier Hunt, "The Tribune" correspondent, sets forth the views of the various classes of Russians.

BY FRAZIER HUNT.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[THIRD DISPATCH.]

[Copyright: 1919: By the Tribune Company.]

PETROGRAD, by Courier to Paris, March 27.—For the purpose of gathering the views of Russians of every class and type as they relate to conditions of today and of the future, I have visited many strange individuals. Among them was a distinguished scholar, internationally known, and a personal friend of President Wilson.

"The Reds have failed. They are going to pieces; they are crumbling," he said. "Ninety per cent of the people are against them. They are holding their power only through terror of the Red guard, and they are holding the Red guard only through food and big pay. They are simply a clique of a few hundred exiles who have come back and are looting and ruining this great country. They can't run the nation. Instead of building up some fine new social structure, they are only tearing down."

View of Radical.

I went to a moderate radical who has great sympathy for Russia's common people, who were so abused under the old régime and who still are suffering.

"The bolsheviki were too fast," he said. "Russia wasn't ready for the extreme social experiment. The working classes they have crowned were not sufficiently advanced. Ability, organizing brains, and genius was monopolized too much here by the upper classes they tore down. Eventually Russia will win. There will be great compromises. Communist ideas will be changed and somebody, somehow, from all this hunger, terror, mistakes, hatreds, will develop the right social economic system that will bring justice and fairness for all."

Russia Finds No Cure.

So it goes. I could quote these varied opinions indefinitely. For let it be remembered Russia herself found no cure for her troubles. Her soviet leaders, her hungry workmen, her heartbroken former bourgeoisie, her blind, angry peasants, her brains and talents, all are stumbling, groping, wishing, fighting, and working for a solution. One fact stands out clear and undisputed—the revolution is an accomplished fact.

Communism or state socialism may be a real lasting answer or only a phase—but their great primary revolution has been won. Never again will the masses of Russian people be slaves for long. Never again will a rotten court and stupid, parasitic aristocracy betray Russia's millions. Never again will the moujik workman be compelled to walk on the shady side of the street as wealth and leisure can walk on the sunny side without having to see what poverty is. Wherever the future may swing this tremendous country, whatever may happen, this one fact stands clear: The revolution is an accomplished fact.

Those who have been tumbled down from the high places, robbed, and abused, say it; those who used to work long hours in factories and shops, but who now ride in motor cars to government offices, prove it. The spirit of revolt is deep rooted. This present phase of revolution may be pulled down or changed within itself, but whatever happens, Russia's millions will eventually win. They will fight on until they do win.

Three Ways for Allies.

And what is to be done? America and the allies have three courses, now, that it seems certain there will be no real active military intervention.

One is to carry on the present policy of furnishing a few soldiers, money, and moral support to the White army and the Poles.

The second is a complete withdrawal and a policy of isolation.

The third is to resume the old relationships and reëstablish commerce and business.

Brave, but very foolish, would be the man who dared to pick out a policy, but there is one thing that must be boldly pointed out—the Russian revolution, meaning the revolt of the oppressed and abused millions, is accomplished.

They know how to make a revolution in this country. The soldiers know how to shoot their officers and go home. Any government here in Russia that is not a right and just government cannot last long. People know how to kick it over. The government may have an army of power and terror, but, if it's wrong, they will tear it down.

If this soviet government is one of workmen representatives only and they continue to fail to understand the peasant and ride roughshod over him this moujik will either starve them into compromise or some day he will in turn haul them down. If this soviet government fails to give workmen work, bread, and the comforts of life which it promised, and greater freedom of expression, there will be new blobs in the streets of Petrograd with pogroms at the end.

[The fourth of Mr. Hunt's articles will appear tomorrow.]

Make Plans to Bring Home U. S. Soldier Dead in France

Washington, D. C., March 27.—[Special.]—America's soldier dead in France are to be brought home by the government as soon as conditions will permit, subject to the wishes of their families.

Former Attorney General Gregory is at work in France preparing a report on legal phases of the matter which must be taken up with the French government. Of course it is not contemplated that any bodies will be returned to American soil until peace is declared, but pending that the war department is getting ready and is now engaged in ascertaining the wishes of relatives of the dead regarding the final disposition. Anticipating that there will be many Americans who will desire that their soldier dead should rest forever under the battle fields, the adjutant general has prepared a memorandum on the subject for general information.

Must Be Delayed.

The adjutant general's memorandum on the subject says: "The work of the transfer of the bodies to this country must be deferred until the conditions, including that of transportation, warrant the undertaking. It is not deemed practicable to grant requests for relatives, friends, or undertakers, to go to France to superintend the preparation and shipment of, or to accompany bodies back to the United States. You will appreciate that there were over 69,000 casualties abroad.

"Organizations have been formed overseas known as grave registration units, whose duty it is to look after burials, to care for the cemeteries, and to preserve identification records."

Finding the Missing Dead.

Concerning the work of the graves registration units in France, the Stars and Stripes, official newspaper of the A. E. F., printed in Paris, says:

"The A. E. F. is gathering its dead together, that in death they may be as in life—in serried ranks. From frozen dugouts, from old ruins, from those hastily improvised and now sunken openings in the ground that were shell holes and battle graves, from wheat fields and river bank and meadow knoll, from all of the thousands of places of isolation and great loneliness, the dead are being tenderly lifted and borne to take their places in the ordered ranks of the army."

5,500 U. S. "Missing."

Regarding rechecking the casualty lists Gen. Pershing cabled the war department today:

"No accurate estimate of unreported deaths can be given. There are, however, approximately 5,500 missing to be accounted for, all of whom have been reported to Washington as missing. This compares with the British official total of 161,800 missing and the French of 290,000.

"Reinterment of bodies removed from isolated graves to centralized cemeteries is furnishing additional identification of deaths hitherto reported as missing. This is especially true of reburials of bodies originally buried by allied units to which American troops were attached, identification being either incomplete or imperfectly registered at interment."

Last Daily Lists April 6.

On April 1 the war department will discontinue the method of issuing daily casualty lists. The war department will furnish full lists for mailing, but they will not be issued on any specified date. The last list issued under the present system will be published in the newspapers of April 6. Thereafter it is probable that only the killed in action will be distributed by telegraph.

REPORT TELLS OF COREAN TORTURE AND MASSACRES

Philadelphia, Pa., March 27.—News of massacres in Corea was received from Shanghai today in a cable message to Dr. Syngman Rhee, representative of the Corean National association.

The message, which is signed by the representatives of Corea at Shanghai, reads:

"Thirty-three officers of the Independence Union of Corea, also leaders of Christian churches, heaven worshippers, Buddhists, Confucians, students, merchants, rising everywhere. The whole of Corea is under martial law.

"The Japanese army is firing on the people. Eleven thousand arrested. Many tortured and massacred. One thousand men, women, and children speared. Schools, churches, and shops destroyed by Japanese laborers.

"The strike movement is growing. Missionaries offering resistance. Uprisings in Siberia and Manchuria. Demand absolute independence from Japan."

KAISER TO QUIT HOLLAND, SAYS SWISS REPORT

GENEVA, March 26.—Former Emperor William of Germany, alarmed by the receipt of threatening letters, intends to leave Holland and seek refuge in Switzerland, according to the newspaper La Suisse. Swiss newspapers are printing many advertisements inserted by members of the German and Austrian nobility who are seeking houses in this country at moderate prices.

LAKE FOREST TO REBUILD TOWN RAZED BY FOE

Funds Sought to Enable French in Stricken City Harvest Crop.

Gomiecourt, France, twice razed by the Germans, is to be raised from the ashes by Lake Forest, Ill.

In a letter to the residents of Lake Forest, Mayor Keene H. Addington presents a plea from Lieut. Dujardin, mayor of the French village of 250, for immediate aid in the construction of a few buildings to permit resumption of agriculture. Mayor Addington has sent $1,000 and personally guaranteed another $1,000.

Lieut. Dujardin appealed to Mayor Addington in December, 1917. Mayor Addington asked Stanley Field of Lake Forest, who was then in Paris, to investigate. He did, cabling back advice that nothing should be done as the village had been in German hands once and was liable to recapture. Following events proved his information correct.

The delay in the Paris conference, threatens to prevent any relief measures coming in time to permit spring planting, according to Lieut. Dujardin. Consequently, he explains that their only hope of gathering 1919 crops lies in Lake Forest residents' willingness to provide funds for a few buildings for implements and peasants.

Mr. Addington asks residents of Lake Forest to send checks for the restoration of Gomiecourt to Frank W. Read, cashier, First National bank, Lake Forest.

Britain Plans to Send No Large Army to Russia

LONDON, March 27.—The military service bill passed through the report stage without amendment in the house of commons today. The proposal to limit the operation of the bill to Dec. 31, 1919, instead of April 30, 1920, was rejected by a vote of 282 to 70, and another amendment excluding liability to service in Russia from the scope of the bill was voted down, 281 to 48. In declining to accept this amendment, Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for war, said the government had no intention of raising a large conscript army to be sent to Russia.

SCHEIDEMANN IN SPEECH ATTACKS ALLIED TERMS

Chancellor Tells Assembly Germany Cries Out in Despair.

WEIMAR, via Copenhagen, March 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—Speaking today in the national assembly, Philipp Scheidemann, the chancellor, said semi-official and non-official reports were increasing daily that "fresh aggravations in the peace conditions are expected to be announced; that unprecedented sums in compensation are to be imposed; that wide stretches of purely German territory are to be taken, and that crushing restrictions are to be imposed in financial and military matters."

"Assuredly a large part of these alleged conditions are invented," the chancellor continued, "so by repetition they will accustom us to these unheard of demands and the final conditions may seem almost bearable to us. They are invented in order to create an atmosphere which will suffocate protest even against a peace of violence. Our peoples, which were ill-treated by the armistice more cruelly than by the war, recognize this method. A cry, not of a chauvinist nature but of the deepest despair, which appeals to the highest there is—to the conference of humanity—is going up throughout Germany."

Loyalty to Empire.

Herr Scheidemann said the protests against the alleged conditions were due to patriotic fears. The government knew this loyalty to the empire was the most valuable possession intrusted to its control and would not permit it to be intrenched upon at home or abroad. The chancellor appealed to the people to stand together, adding:

"The so-called radicals of the Left have no right to protest against acts of oppression, for we are responsible under the treaties of Brest-Litovsk and Bucharest."

Blames Great Britain.

Declaring that Great Britain had rejected a proposal to establish an international tribunal to investigate responsibility for the war, Herr Scheidemann said:

"Even if Germany were responsible for all the crimes she is accused of, has she thereby lost the right to protest against fetters? Fetters which throttle her? Spa? Spa was worse than Brest-Litovsk, because Spa shows that it learned nothing from Brest-Litovsk."

Foch Denies a Story.

BERLIN, via Copenhagen, March 27.—Replying to questions put by Mathias Erzberger, president of the German amistice commission, at Spa, Marshal Foch sent a telegram yesterday to Erzberger saying, "Mr. Lloyd George and M. Pichon never made the statements attributed to them."

A dispatch from Basle last Friday said the president of the German armistice commission had presented a note to the intercallied delegates asking if Germany should consider as true statements in the French and British press that the peace treaty would be ready for the Germans as soon as President Wilson approved, but that the Germans would be allowed neither to discuss nor modify the document. No mention was made in the dispatch, which originally emanated from Berlin, of the names of Mr. Lloyd George or M. Pichon, although they may have been contained in a section of the dispatch which probably was held up by the censors abroad.

U. S. FOOD FINDS TENDER SPOT IN GERMAN HEART

Arrival Is Just in Time; Rations Were About Exhausted.

BERLIN, Wednesday, March 26.—[Delayed.—[By the Associated Press.]—The arrival at German ports of the first American food ships was just in the nick of time to meet the crisis in the food situation. The potato ration in greater Berlin was reduced this week to three pounds and no fresh meat is available for issue to residents of cities. These residents are receiving canned meat from the remnants of the army's stores.

The Berlin vegetable market, which the correspondent visited yesterday, presented a sorry sight. There was little for sale with the exception of turnips, a few onions, and other minor vegetables.

Conditions in the illegitimate food trade offer one of the best indications of the approaching exhaustion of food stocks. Some of the restaurant proprietors are scouring the country daily, but their earlier sources of supply are almost exhausted. In addition private individuals with ample incomes report the same trouble in obtaining food from long cultivated surreptitious sources.

Surprised at U. S. Speed.

The first feeling of the average German when he learned of the arrival of the food ships, as the correspondent found through conversations with a large number of workmen and members of the middle class, was one almost of astonishment at the appearance of the ships in so few days after the signature of the provisioning agreement. The Germans, through hope long deferred, had come to think of American food rather as a theory than an actuality. Favorable comment was heard on all sides of the business ability of the Americans in getting such rapid action on the food program.

U. S. Mans Big German Ships.

COWES, England, March 27.—The German steamships Kaiserin Augusta Victoria and Graf Waldersee arrived today, making five large German ships here under supervision of American naval officers.

Turning Over the Boats.

COPENHAGEN, March 27.—The delivery of German merchant ships to the allies continues, dispatches from Berlin say. Various vessels of the Hansa line sailed Tuesday from Bremen, and the North German Lloyd steamers, Zeppelin of 15,200 tons, Waldeck of 6,517 tons, and Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm of 17,000 tons, sailed Wednesday and were to be followed by the Meiningen.

The North German Lloyd steamers Prinz Ludwig of 9,600 tons, Frankfort of 7,400 tons, Altenburg of 7,000, and the new steamer Meissen were to sail Thursday.

Are in Good Condition.

PARIS, March 26.—Delayed.—The supreme economic council reports that the thirty-eight German ships that have left German ports to be turned over to the allied and associated powers are generally in a seaworthy condition.

'SEND US HOME!' CRY RUSSIANS, TOO, IN GERMANY

Yanks' Call for "Toot Sweet" Action Echoed in Prison Camps.

BY RICHARD HENRY LITTLE.

[Copyright: 1919: By the Tribune Company.]

BERLIN, March 27.—Kasimer Gorgoffski wants to go home. He followed me around the prison camp at Zossen yesterday and told me so several hundred times. I explained to Kasimer that nobody thought much of Russia nowadays. With the bolsheviki turning things upside down Russia was a healthy place to stay out of.

Kasimer merely repeated over and over that he wanted to go home.

Five thousand other Russian prisoners are unanimous on the homegoing subject. I am told that every man of 400,000 Russians are still prisoners of war in Germany and feel the same way about it.

Fear of Bolsheviki.

The Germans are not expediting the release of the Russians for fear of the bolsheviki. The German government seems to take the position that there are enough bolsheviks in the world now without turning 400,000 more loose—for every Russian is regarded as a potential bolshevik.

I would like to say in case Mrs. Gorgoffski reads this story, that Kasimer is looking remarkably fit, despite his four years' imprisonment, and so do his 5,000 comrades. Kasimer not only looked healthy but sleek and fat, and the whole prison outfit looked like a convention of the fat men's club.

Kasimer said his jail was perfectly all right. He had good clothing and food, but needed more blankets on his bed at night and wanted to go home.

Everything Kasimer said was echoed by the other 5,000 who formed an imposing parade and followed the visitors around the camp. Every time we stopped to inspect a bunk house, a kitchen or playground up would jump Kasimer to demand how soon he would be going home.

Germans Supply Food.

The German government supplies the food for the prisoners, and the American Red Cross gives additional supplies of food with clothing and hospital attendance. Soup and bread are the principal articles of diet. A plate of the soup proved to be very good with plenty of meat and vegetables. Kasimer admitted he lived better in jail than he did in Russia, but he wanted to go home just the same.

The prisoners were living much better than their guards. While Kasimer and his crowd were fat the guards looked white and peaked.

There is a big Mohammedan mosque in camp with a tower from which a devout gentleman with strong lungs proclaims six times a day that "Allah is good. Allah is great. Come to prayers!" for most of the prisoners at Zossen are Mohammedans.

Not That Kind.

I asked Kasimer why he wanted to leave the pretty jail when he had such a nice mosque. Although the interpreter worked hard he could not understand just what Kasimer was trying to say, except that he was not the Mohammedan kind of a Russian. Kasimer remarked through the interpreter that the beautiful Mohammedan mosque gave him pain and he wanted to go home. I thought perhaps Kasimer was a Methodist or a good Episcopalian, but Kasimer said he had never heard of them—and he wanted to go home.

The German officers of the camp said the mosque was built at considerable expense by order of the kaiser, who probably wanted to please his Turkish ally and do a little proselyting among the Mohammedan prisoners. The mosque has elaborate shower and foot baths attached to the back wing so the faithful can doll up for church.

Prisoners Keep Neat.

The baths are liberally patronized by the prisoners, for they were as neat and clean as could be. They were a rather dejected looking lot, which is natural, because for four years they haven't done anything but stand around the prison camp, eat and sleep.

I asked a good many if they were bolsheviki, but they answered that they were members of the Greek church or were Mohammedans.

The German guards said there were lots of bolsheviki among the prisoners who wanted to go back to Russia because they had heard the stories of looting and of everybody having a good time and doing as they pleased under the bolsheviki and they wanted to get in on the game.

Here's Kasimer Again.

I told Kasimer he might be killed if he went back to Russia, but he only repeated he wanted to go home. For the three hundredth time I asked him why and Kasimer came across with a very good answer.

"Because home is home," he said.

The committee of prisoners that attend to matters of discipline and make the rules and regulations otherwise have the functions of the house committees of clubs in America, and consequently are about as popular. They formally waited on me at the gate of the camp when we came away and asked when they would be permitted to go home.

I saw a musselman, or whatever you call him, appear in the minaret of the mosque, clap his hands, make his short, snappy speech about Allah, and issue a call to prayers.

It took four German soldiers to restrain Kasimer from climbing into the Red Cross automobile and returning with us to Berlin.

Kasimer was tired of waiting. Like the American "doughboy," he wanted to go home "toot sweet."

GIRL TEACHER SHOT BY YOUTH WHOSE SUIT FAILS

Ann Arbor, Mich., March 27.—[Special.]—Irma Casler, 19 years old, an orphan, and a teacher in the Rentschler school, Lodi, Washtenaw county, is in University hospital here, a bullet wound in her right breast; two bullets have penetrated her brain, one bullet shattered her shoulder, and one passed through her throat. Her death is probable.

Robert Warner, 19 years old, son of Hiram Warner of Jackson, is in the county jail, arrested near Manchester within three hours after the crime was committed.

He admits that he shot Miss Casler, whom he had known for ten years.

The crime was committed in the schoolhouse this morning at 8:30.

Mrs. Jacob Luckhardt, with whom Miss Casler made her home, says that Miss Casler has an admirer in France, an Arthur Baldwin, of whom Warner was jealous. She does not believe that Miss Casler and Baldwin were engaged.

Miss Casler came to the Rentschler school last fall to teach. She had known Warner since she was 10 years old, when her parents were both killed, and she went to Jackson to live with an aunt.

The two were about the same age and became inseparable playmates. Last May Warner enlisted and went to Camp Custer for training.

NEW U. S. JUDGE SWORN

George T. Page of Peoria was formally sworn in yesterday as a judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. He succeeds the late Christian C. Kohlsaat.

Judge Francis E. Baker, senior justice of the court, welcomed Judge Page. The oath was administered by ETdward M. Holloway, clerk of the court. Judges Baker, Alschuler, and Evans then held an informal welcome.

Federal Judges K. M. Landis and George A. Carpenter were on hand to welcome the new member of the appeal court.

Judge Page is president of the American Bar association and a former president of the Illinois Bar association. He was born in Spring Bay, Ill., in 1859, and is vice president of the Merchants and Illinois National bank of Peoria. He is a director in several corporations.

One of the first tasks of the new justice was to sit with his associates on considering a motion for admission to bond, pending appeal, of William D. Haywood and thirty-five other convicted I. W. W. leaders, now serving sentences at Fort Leavenworth for violations of the espionage act. Hearing on this was continued until Wednesday morning.

BEGS PARDON; STEALS $42.

FORM BODY TO AID REFORM OF COURT MARTIAL

New York, March 27.—To support reform of courtmartial precedure, "a system of practiced injustice" which "has servived outside the United States only in Germany and Russia," a preliminary organization was effected at a meeting here today of former officers of the judge advocate general's department.

In announcing this step, Maj. George C. Beach of this city, chairman of a committee appointed to complete the organization, declared that, while regretting injection of personalities into the issue, members of the committee "feel that Secretary Baker and Gen. Crowder have placed themselves in an unfortunate and unnecessary position before the country by opposing the reforms advocated by Gen. Ansell, former assistant head of the department.

Maj. Beach added that the demotion of Gen. Ansell was "unjustifiable" and "inspired by a Prussian disregard of fairness and public opinion."

The organization committee, headed by Maj. Beach, comprises among others, Maj. Frederick A. Brown, Maj. Robert Redfield, and Maj. Roy D. Keehn of Chicago.

HURLEY WARNS AGAINST EVILS IN NEW MARINE

Shipping Board Chairman Outlines Plan for Future Operations.

New York, March 27.—Chairman Edward N. Hurley of the United States shipping board, in an address before the National Marine league here today, voiced a warning against watered stock in the operation of America's new ships and said that the future shipping of our country should not be used to develop private fortunes.

Mr. Hurley's address contained an outline of his proposed plan for the ownership and operation of the vessels built for the government by the shipping board.

Opposes U. S. Ownership.

"I am personally opposed to government ownership, except as a last resort. During the war it was necessary for the government to build a merchant fleet. Private capital never could have accomplished this colossal task, involving the creation of many new shipyards and the training of a large army of workmen," Mr. Hurley said.

"The problem is as complex as that of the railroad problem. Its solution is vital to the welfare and prosperity of the nation. Private ownership unquestionably offers an inducement to American energy and skill, but one of the phases of unrestricted private control which caused me considerable concern was the possibility that under such control, ships would be overcapitalized as were many of the railroads.

Plan of Operation.

"I now submit this proposed plan of operation: That the ships should be sold to and operated by American citizens under no restrictions other than the terms of the bill of sale and the fixation of maximum freight rates.

"The ships should be sold at a price which fairly reflects the current world market for similar tonnage.

"It is understood that no transfer of a vessel to foreign registry should be permitted without express permission of the government.

"It is foreseen that a number of trade routes important to the immediate or future welfare of American commerce must be established and developed. Some of these routes may not yield steamship operating profits until their existence shall have attracted an increased volume or better balance of trade. Revenue derived from the carriage of mail and possible fees for the training of seamen and cadet officers may partly compensate losses incurred on these routes."

Admiral Wants Coöperation.

Vice Admiral Albert Gleaves, commanding the cruiser and transport fleet, another speaker, said he was impressed by the possibility of establishing "a common plane upon which the navy and the merchant marine can work."

"A bright future is before us," he said, "and it is up to us to make it good. Out of this war our merchant marine, like the phoenix, has, after a hundred years, risen from its ashes."

GERMANY SEIZES CHAOS IN EAST TO CHEAT ALLIES

Uprisings Aid Maneuver for Peace That Robs Poland.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—[Special.]—Events of the last few days in eastern Europe, which have upset the council of the allies in Paris, indicate that Germany intends to resist dictated terms and seeks to maneuver the allies into a negotiated peace, according to John F. Smulski of Chicago, representative of the Polish government in the United States.

"The Hungarian uprising must be considered as a part of the German peace offensive if the allied people are to hold their own," Mr. Smulski said today.

"It is a matter of small importance how large a hand the German military authorities, who are the real authorities, have had in setting up this new complication. We must not forget that it will be used to the fullest extent by the German officials.

Nothing to Lose—All to Gain.

"Having become acquainted with the peace terms in process, they have made up their minds to resist, on the theory that they have nothing to lose and everything to gain. A negotiated peace has always been the dream of the German leaders and they hope to secure it from a panic stricken world."

Mr. Smulski said the Germans have cunningly shifted the discussion from Alsace-Lorraine to Poland, which to the allies is unfamiliar ground.

"Let me point out," he continued, "that during the last week, for example, the striking declaration from the Germans on which they have based their threats to refuse to sign the peace treaty have all had a Polish center.

Look to the East.

"Field Marshal Hindenburg announced only a few days ago that Poland would belong to either the Germans or the bolsheviks. President Ebert, in a speech on Sunday last, made the flat declaration that Germany would refuse to sign the treaty which called for the surrender of Danzig and West Prussia to the Poles. The German women also have participated in meetings, carefully arranged, no doubt, which adopted resolutions protesting against any surrender of lands to the Poles.

"It is to the east the Germans are looking for a modification of the peace treaty which will allow them to hold Polish lands.

"Already, it must be admitted, they have had some success, for only a few days ago Lloyd George was credited with having taken a stand against the return of Danzig to the Poles and as against the Polish corridor along the Vistula. Fortunately, President Wilson, with magnificent courage, relying on the reports of the experts, stood his ground and apparently refused to be stampeded by the German onslaught.

Strong Poland Necessary.

"We have always known that the entire peace congress would turn on the Polish lands, on Danzig, and since that time we have tried our best to advise the American people as to where the attack would be centered.

"Yet, in maintaining that Poland must have Danzig, must have Posnania, the Poles are not pleading for themselves alone. Without Danzig, without Posen and sufficient territory not only is Poland lost, but Germany will have won, and the peace of the world will only be of duration sufficient to allow the Germans to recoup their strength.

"The boast of 'Paris in 1925' is, of course, little other than a poor German boast, but if Germany overawes the allies at Paris by these peace maneuvers, the declaration may easily become true. A strong Poland which can hold its own is more important to the world than ever, more important even than when King John Sobieski lifted the siege of Vienna and drove the Turks from middle Europe."

That Esthonia, Letvia, Lithuania, Poland, Jugo-Slavia, Czecho-Slovakia, and Roumania can be relied upon to stem the tide of bolshevism if they are adequately armed and supplied by the allies is the assertion contained in an appeal cabled to the American peace delegation in Paris today by H. A. Miller, director of the mid-European union.

ALLIED BRIDES OF YANKS ARRIVE TO AWAIT HUSBANDS

British Nurse Asserts United States Is Like Home.

"Proper Yankee boys and proper Yankee guns can win any war or any woman in this little world!"

There's allied philosophy in a nutshell as it is expounded by youthful Marjorie Hottenstine, late of St. Cross hospital, Winchester, England, but now as loyal an American as any native daughter. With her sister, Mrs. Eva Kempo, and another allied war bride, Mrs. Suzanne Crabbe of Paris, she arrived in Chicago yesterday en route to the Yank homes that result from the international romances overseas. The three brides landed in New York last week with a contingent of fifty sister mates of the American expeditionary force, who have scattered to all parts of the country to the homes of their soldier husbands.

No Foreign Land.

"The United States a foreign land!" cried Mrs. Hottenstine in answer to a question about her first impressions. "Nothing of the sort! It's more like home than home itself. I love it!"

"O-o la! Lovely!" murmured the new Mrs. Crabbe, who has picked up a small and highly accented vocabulary since her marriage with Sergt. George C. Crabbe of Joliet, and that ended the argument.

"Your Yankee men lose no time," continued Mrs. Hottenstine. "I had been company for an English sailor for three whole years. He was what you would call conservative. Well, it was all overturned when Sergt. Dewey came to the Winchester hospital with a broken leg and a homesick heart. I cared for him only one week when he asked me to marry him. It was much too soon, so I put it off for three weeks longer.

Sisters Wed in Same Week.

"By that time his buddy, as he called him, Corporal Frank Kempo, had met my sister. We lived on Hill farm near Winchester. He was in as much of a hurry as my Yankee man, and we were both married the same week. My husband went back to the infantry in France and is now in a New York hospital. Corporal Kempo went back to France and is still there. I am going to our home in Pardeeville, Wis. My sister is going to her husband's home in Neenah, Wis.

"There were fifty brides of us came over together, and we were as glad to see the Statue of Liberty as the best American."

Aurora received announcement of its third international marriage yesterday when Lieut. Walter Conlin wrote to his parents advising them to prepare for the welcome of a French daughter-in-law.

BRITISH REPORT ON CAPT. CHAMBERLAIN FINDS NO HEROISM

LONDON, March 27.—Over vigorous protests by the defense, the court martial which is investigating the alleged exploits of Capt. Edmund G. Chamberlain of the American forces, admitted into the evidence today the report of an investigation conducted by Maj. Gen. John M. Salmond, field commander of the Royal air force.

The Salmond report says that the British commander was unable to learn anything of Chamberlain or his supposed feats and that he had no information regarding the British aviation base, where Chamberlain was said to have visited unofficially.

The Salmond report was identified by the first of the British witnesses called by the prosecution, G. C. Nielson, formerly a major in the Royal air force and a liaison officer between the American and British air forces.

Nielson testified that he made a special trip with his chief, Maj. Gen. Sir Godfrey M. Paine, from London to the headquarters of Gen. Salmond in France for the purpose of instituting inquiries with a view to conferring upon Chamberlain the distinguished service order or other decoration.

CHICAGO NURSES AND AMBULANCE MEN REACH U. S.

"Nice Little War, but I'm Glad It's Over," One Woman Asserts.

BY C. V. JULIAN.

New York, March 27.—[Special.]—Four Chicago women were among the fifty-nine Red Cross nurses who arrived here today from France on the transport Great Northern. They are the Misses Ella Foley, 437 Deming place; Marie Louise Davenport, 5313 Woodlawn avenue; Mildred Weissmeier, 722 Ellis avenue, and Bertha Lang of Glen Ellyn.

They were casuals from different hospital units and represented four base hospitals just behind the fighting lines. They were unanimous in their joy in getting back home. "It was a nice little war," Miss Foley said, "but I'm glad it's over. Chicago is going to look mighty good to me."

Illinois Men on Pueblo.

The Pueblo carried home an Illinois section of the American ambulance corps, including several Chicago and Lake Forest men who enlisted as ambulance drivers with the French army and were transferred to the American expeditionary forces when we entered the war.

Among the casual passengers on the Great Northern was Mrs. Walter Daniels of La Grange, who served with the Y. M. C. A. at the Palais de Glace canteen in Paris with Mrs. Henrietta Forgan and Miss Margaret Conover of Chicago, entertaining the sick and wounded soldiers.

Among the wounded was George F. Haad of the One Hundred and Twenty-second field artillery, whose home is at 2646 Avers avenue. Haad was shot in the leg just seven minutes before the armistice went into effect on Nov. 11.

TO TRY OCEAN FLIGHT MAY 15, IF NOT BEFORE

New York, March 27.—[Special.]—May 15 was set today as the outside date for the attempt that is to be made to cross the Atlantic by seaplane. Every indication at the field is that arrangements will be completed before that date.

It appears probable that the planes which enter for the flight will carry thirteen men each. The crews will comprise four pilots to each boat, for radio men and five mechanics.

A line of torpedo destroyers across the Atlantic at intervals of 150 to 200 miles will give the contestants their positions and directions and guarantee aid in case of trouble.

"ANGEL CHILD" BRIGHTENS ROW OVER CUSTODY

Wrecks Court Decorum at Hearing of Rival Claims of Parents.

Three year old James Moreau Brown III. had a busy day yesterday.

Early in the morning "Jimmie" wiggled from his "kidnapers" and jumped into his mother's arms. At noon he marched into court and so successfully routed decorum that even Judge Joseph B. David was pleased. Later he descended on the Social Service bureau and after tearing the office to pieces went home with Mrs. Josephine H. Lawrence, who was appointed by the court to care for him until Saturday.

"Jimmie" is the son of Dr. James Moreau Brown II. and Mrs. Edna V. Brown of New York City. A writ of habeas corpus filed in the Superior court declares Dr. Brown "kidnaped" his son from Mrs. Brown's home in New York last week and brought him to Chicago.

Mrs. Brown found Jimmie on the information of an anonymous telephone message. Then a deputy sheriff found Dr. Brown and the whole party came before Judge David.

The first thing Jimmie wanted was the bailiff's gavel. He got it—and the hearing continued.

"I want you to understand you are in custody," said Judge David to Dr. Brown. Jimmie raced up to the judge's bench and pounded the desk with the gavel. Then the attorneys started to argue.

"Mr. Brown has a right to his baby."

Jimmie was running through the juror's box.

"He is Mrs. Brown's baby—she wants him——"

A court reporter screamed as Jimmie just missed her head with the gavel. Then Jimmie pushed out the lights and threw his mother's watch around. He pulled his father's necktie and slammed his gavel at the bailiff. He climbed on the judge's bench and screamed for the judge's glasses, the inkwells, the heat indicator, the sheriff's star, and everything else he saw.

M. V. L. WANTS COUNCIL'S 'GRAY WOLVES' OUSTED

Party Lines Ignored in Urging Selection of the Best Candidates.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

The annual report of the Municipal Voters' league, made public yesterday, appeals to the voters to improve the city council. It says:

"The course of events in the recent history of the city government emphasizes anew the importance of the city council and the duty that rests upon voters of giving to the election of aldermen careful thought and unfailing attention. During the last four years, more than ever before, the council has been the chief safeguard of the public interest, and the league is glad to say that on the whole it has met the conditions creditably and courageously."

The league desires that party lines and labels be forgotten in the selection of the candidates "best fitted by character and ability and ideals of public duty."

Its recommendations are summarized with the following excerpts from the report:

FIRST Ward—Vote for John H. Kennedy, Labor party; for twelve years waiter at Congress and La Salle hotels. Good reputation; employed at city labor headquarters.

Ald. Michael Kenna, Dem., gray wolf, utterly unfit.

SECOND Ward—Vote for A. I. Davidson, Dem., clerk in Probate court clerk's office; lived in ward all of his life. Well spoken of.

Ald. Louis B. Anderson, lawyer, colored, shares with Cullerton the office of floor leader in the council for the city administration.

THIRD Ward—Vote for Ald. George F. Iliff, renting manager of State Bank of Chicago; has been active in committee work, notably independent in the council; man of integrity and ability. By his excellent record and experience is entitled to reelection.

John H. Passmore, Rep., lawyer, served creditably as an assistant corporation counsel under Folsom and Ettelson.

Oliver T. Reilly, Ind., has been salesman for National Biscuit company until he entered army. League says that voters should consider that Reilly's brother, who is employed by the surface lines, led the ward campaign for the ordinances last fall.

FOURTH Ward—Vote for Timothy A. Hogan, Dem., collector for telephone company. Indorsed by Ald. Richert as unusually promising; commended by his employers; good reputation.

Charles M. Conlon, Rep., minute clerk in Circuit court. Generally well spoken of.

Joseph Mendriski, Labor, fire insurance solicitor; defeated in Democratic primary last year by Ald. Richert. Good reputation.

FIFTH Ward—Vote for Henry Langosch, Rep., deputy sheriff. Three years in county service and in such has made creditable record; industrious and reliable man of good sense.

Ald. Joseph B. McDonough, finishing first term in council with bad record.

B. H. Hansen, Labor, chef, president of Cooks and Pastry Cooks' association.

SIXTH Ward, long term—Vote for Ald. Alexander A. McCormick, reliable on committees and especially alert on council floor; has been one of the most effective aldermen in the struggle to sustain the council's independence against executive dictation and outside interference.

Bernard Berlyn, Soc., 76 years old; in ward one year.

SIXTH Ward, short term—Vote for Charles Scribner Eaton, lawyer; man of good ability, excellent reputation, and pronounced public spirit.

Harry N. Strouss, Dem., clerk in County clerk's office.

SEVENTH Ward—Vote for Ald. William R. Fetzer, finishing first term as alderman with good record; has acted and voted consistently with best element in the council; has rendered good service on the finance committee and in connection with transportation matters.

Michael V. Minehan, Dem., lawyer; intelligent, man of good standing.

EIGHTH Ward—Vote for Ald. Ross A. Woodhull, insurance agent; has shown much interest in harbor development; forceful and logical on council floor; good reputation in the council for honesty.

Frank C. Hill, Rep., lawyer; was assistant city prosecutor, but was let out for refusing to support the mayor for United States senator; good reputation.

Theodore J. Vind, Labor, manager of municipal market in South Chicago, president of South Chicago labor assembly; good personal and business reputation.

NINTH Ward—Vote for Guy Madderom, Rep., member of paint firm of Madderom & Co. Honest and reliable man, capable of rendering acceptable service as alderman.

John J. Leonard, Dem., employed in county building reputed to have been interested in questionable business on South Park avenue for many years, wholly unfit.

Ald. Charles V. Johnson, Soc., was electrician in Pullman shops for fifteen years, when questioned on council floor on his attitude on the St. Louis platform declarations of Socialist party against sustaining the government in the war, he evaded answering.

Herman C. Diehl, Labor, metal polisher; president of Chicago trades union label league, former Socialist.

TENTH Ward—Vote for Ald. Frank Klaus, real estate agent. Finishing fourth term with record showing constant improvement; industrious in committee work.

Charles G. Foucek, Rep., druggist; served one year acceptably as alderman seventeen years ago, good business reputation.

ELEVENTH Ward—Vote for William J. Riordan, Labor, decorator, former president of Dyehouse Workers' union.

Ald. Edward F. Cullerton, Dem., shares with Ald. L. B. Anderson the leadership of the city hall forces on the council floor.

TWELFTH Ward—Vote for Anton J. Cermak, Dem., real estate agent. Was alderman four years, ending in 1912, with good record.

Frank Trefil, Rep., investigator in city law department for three years; has neither the ability nor experience of Cermak.

Joseph Triner, Ind., saloonkeeper.

THIRTEENTH Ward—Vote for Samuel O. Shaffer, Rep., stevedore contractor foot of South Water street. Intelligent man, good reputation.

Thomas J. Ahern, Dem., undertaker, finishing third term with poor record.

FOURTEENTH Ward—Vote for Ald. George M. Maypole of Maypole Motor Sales company, made persistent and successful fight to prevent Grand avenue saloonekeeper from enjoying immunity from Sunday closing law. Gives promise of career of activity and usefulness.

Edward J. Lyons, Rep., assistant city prosecutor. Unfit.

Charles Dold, Labor, president of Piano Workers' union for twenty years, took a leading part in the successful battle to oust "Skinny" Madden and his tough gang from control of the federation of labor. Secretary of the state advisory board of the United States employment office. One of the best union labor leaders qualified for office.

FIFTEENTH Ward—Vote for Louis B. Desser, Rep., in van and storage business; dentist of good professional standing; good reputation.

Ald. Edward J. Kaindl, Dem., finishing first council term with mixed record, better in second than in first year. Has ability and is capable of rendering better service.

Chester A. Sample, Labor, business agent of Molders' union. Good reputation for honesty and industry.

Edward E. Klein, Soc., printer; has been member Socialist party for ten years, evades any clean cut statement on his attitude towards war.

SIXTEENTH Ward—Vote for Theodore S. Smith, Labor, street car conductor, formerly property master at Academy of Music. Good reputation.

Ald. Stanley H. Kunz, Dem. His record during his present term, for which he deserves some credit, is quite in contrast with his previous objectionable career in the council, which league criticizes. League's attitude will surprise many politicians.

Theodore J. H. Gorski, Rep., law clerk, 26 years old.

SEVENTEENTH Ward — Henry Anielewski preferred, Labor, advertising solicitor for Polish newspaper. Former Socialist, intelligent and interested in public questions.

Ald. Stanley Adamkiewski, Dem., real estate agent. Voted steadily with the city hall politicians, but now publicly declares that he is through with them and will serve his constituents with regard to political considerations if reelected.

Paul Sowinski, Rep., clerk in Probate clerk's office. Says he will close his saloon May 1.

EIGHTEENTH Ward—Vote for Ald. John J. Touhy, Dem.; has been conscientious and painstaking in his council work and is esteemed by his colleagues. Much the best Democratic alderman this ward has produced for a generation.

Morton S. Thomas, Rep., in advertising novelty business. Has neither the ability nor qualifications of Ald. Touhy.

F. B. Meister, Labor, law student.

NINETEENTH Ward—Ald. Powers has no opposition, except the compliant Chris Mamer, Republican, and the Socialist, who does not count. Powers, leader of the gray wolf pack, is thus reelected. He runs from 1284 Macallister place and lives at 4500 Michigan avenue.

TWENTIETH Ward—Vote for Phillip Roy, Labor, milk wagon driver; record clear, enjoys good reputation.

Ald. Henry L. Fick, Dem., has kept saloon for twenty years, continually voting with the worst element.

William Melody, Rep., saloonkeeper. Not qualified.

TWENTY-FIRST Ward—Vote for Robert H. McCormick, estate manager. Finishing first term as alderman with good record. In council has uniformly supported good measures, particularly those relating to common sense financing, valuable member of finance committee; his work throughout has been notable for earnestness, sincerity, and public spirit.

Dorsey R. Crowe, Dem., real estate. Crowe's political associations bad; not qualified.

TWENTY-SECOND Ward—Vote for Rudolph L. Schapp, Dem., assistant chief clerk of board of review. Well vouched for as honest and capable.

Matthew Hibbler, Rep., jeweler, does the clock repairing in city hall; good reputation, but not so well qualified as Schapp.

Andrew Laflin, Soc. While war was at its height declared he could not be with America in war. He is therefore unfit for public office.

Frank Palskill, Labor, postoffice clerk; good reputation.

TWENTY-THIRD Ward—Vote for Ald. Thomas O. Wallace, real estate broker, finishing second term as alderman with good record, strong member of council committees, valuable alderman.

John A. Durkin, Labor, agent for steamfitters' union, good reputation.

TWENTY-FOURTH Ward — James Dorney, Rep., preferred; city salesman for Wilson & Co., packers. Energetic man who knows ward conditions thoroughly.

Ald. Frank Roeder, Dem., printing firm. Mixed voting record.

A. W. Harrack, Soc., box lunch distributor. Refused to disavow anti-war planks of Socialist party; unfit for public office.

TWENTY-FIFTH Ward—Vote for Ald. Henry D. Capitain, leather manufacturer, finishing fourth term with good record. In his eight years in council he has demonstrated his integrity in public service and has been a leader in the entire four year battle to maintain the city council's independence against executive interference; courageous and valuable alderman.

Logan D. Wallace Jr., Dem., sales manager of cereal company. Intelligent and honest, but not so well qualified as Capitain.

Edward N. Nockels, Labor, secretary of Chicago Federation of Labor since 1903.

TWENTY-SIXTH Ward—Vote for Ald. William F. Lipps, Rep., insurance broker. One of the most useful members of the transportation and finance committees, leader in maintaining the powers and integrity of the city council, well informed and trustworthy alderman.

Thomas R. Caspers, Dem., clerk in county clerk's office; good reputation; formerly vaudeville comedian and monologist.

Timothy F. Neary, Labor, secretary of the chauffeurs' union.

TWENTY-SEVENTH Ward — Vote for either Mrs. Ida L. M. Fursman, Labor, or Arthur S. Beaudette, Dem. Mrs. Fursman is a school teacher, president of the Teachers' federation, and left the Socialist party when this country entered the war. Of high character, intelligent and honest, capable of cooperation with others of different views and well equipped for public service.

Mr. Beaudette, city salesman of C. O. Sethness company; has been a small park commissioner; energetic and capable.

Edward R. Armitage, Rep., linotype operator; has good reputation; active in local public affairs and well informed.

George Koop, Soc., printer, typical soapbox Socialist orator; intemperate of speech, erratic of judgment, not fit to be trusted with this responsible office.

"In this ward," the recommendation adds, "are three candidates who are capable of serving the ward acceptably. Beaudette has a special claim upon many voters because last year, when loyalty to the nation was an issue and the reelection of Ald. Watson was essential, Beaudette and his party associates disregarded party lines and supported Watson, Rep. At that time the Republicans agreed to support Beaudette this year and the regular organization is, to its credit, observing this agreement."

TWENTY-EIGHTH Ward—Vote for Clayton F. Smith, Dem., city treasurer. In the public offices he has held he has displayed marked executive ability and has grown steadily in his capacity to render public service; honest, capable, and energetic.

Arthur T. Gutgesell, Rep., clerk in assessors' office. Record clear, reputation good; not as well qualified as Smith.

TWENTY-NINTH Ward—Vote for James F. Kovarik, Dem., salesman of Pilsen Lumber company. He has taken an interest in local improvement association; good business and personal reputation. If elected, capable of making a reliable alderman.

John Golombiewski, Rep., bakery owner. Served two terms in city council with colorless record, showing lack of efficiency.

Martin P. Murphy, Labor, president of Stockyards labor council.

THIRTIETH Ward—Vote for John Burns, Rep., contractor. Served six years in council. Service was good in the main, and on the floor actively supported nonpartisan organization of the council.

Thomas J. O'Grady, Dem., clerk of sanitary district. Active and independent in politics; has ability and is well spoken of.

Patrick J. Griffin, Labor, of Livestock Handlers' union. Energetic and has reputation for fair dealing.

THIRTY-FIRST Ward—Vote for Ald. James A. Long, lawyer, Dem. Finishing first term with fair record. Man of good intentions and ability, sometimes hampered by partisan considerations.

Scott M. Hogan, Rep., assistant corporation counsel, apt to be influenced by undesirable elements supporting him.

Martin Nelson, Labor, carpenter. Good reputation.

THIRTY-SECOND Ward—Vote for Ald. Albert J. Fisher, Rep. Finishing thirteenth year in council with good record, energetic in asserting city's title to public lands occupied by railroads, a leader in resisting attacks upon the powers and independence of the council. A man of great public spirit, whose long experience enhances his value to the council.

Chilton P. Wilson, Dem., lawyer, and man of good standing and ability.

THIRTY-THIRD Ward — Vote for Mrs. Laura Pierce Young, Dem., active in clubs. Woman of ability and character, interested in public affairs, has always acted with the most independent group in the ward.

John P. Garner, Rep., city commissioner of public service. As such he is designated by ordinance to handle kicks by citizens against public service corporations. In this office he has been of little value to the public.

THIRTY-FOURTH Ward—Vote for Ald. Joseph O. Kostner, Dem.; broad gauged man of honesty and common sense; has already attained a degree of leadership in the council and reflects great credit upon his ward.

Jacob J. Fink, Rep., lumber dealer. An old hand at the political game.

THIRTY-FIFTH Ward—Vote for Ald. John S. Clark, real estate agent. Reliable and well thought of by his colleagues. Gives promise of future usefulness.

Charles Jahnke, Rep., real estate agent; substantial citizen of good reputation.

MORE OVERSEAS TROOPS DECRY THOMPSON RACE

Oppose His Election in Letters to "The Army Tribune."

BY FLOYD GIBBONS.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

[Copyright: 1919: By the Tribune Company.]

PARIS, March 27. — Letters from the American expeditionary forces decrying the possibility of the reëlection of Thompson as mayor of Chicago continue to flood the offices of the Paris edition of THE TRIBUNE. The majority of the letters declare for Hoyne, with an occasional boost for Sweitzer.

Following is a typical letter, written in the military form:

"A. P. O. 721, A. E. F., France:

"From: John M. Snead, captain, engineers, commanding officer of camp.

"To: Paris edition, CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

"Subject: Not for Thompson.

"1. Thompson's reëlection would be a disgrace to Chicago and a slap in the face of every member of the American expeditionary forces. Elect Hoyne and save such a calamity. Thompson should not longer be tolerated.

"JOHN M. SNEAD."

No One for Thompson.

Here is another:

"March 22.

"To: Paris edition, CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

"1. In reference to your invitation to A. E. F. to express themselves on the Chicago mayoralty situation—Thompson, Sweitzer, Hoyne.

"2. Here one Chicagoan would not vote for Bill Thompson if Kaiser Bill were running against him. Thompson has done more to harm our country with his (boasted) patriotism than Kaiser Bill with his open animosity.

"3. I voted for Bob Sweitzer four years ago, but if I had a chance this time I certainly would vote for Hoyne. This is the opinion of all other Chicagoans with my detachments at this station. SAMUEL L. BRENNER."

Stationed at Montargis.

Boost for Sweitzer.

From the statistical division at Chaumont comes the following boost for Sweitzer:

"From three Chicagoans:

"CHAUMONT, France, March 22:

"Editor, Paris edition TRIBUNE:

"We want old Bob Sweitzer to welcome us back to dear old Chicago. Respectfully, E. W. TRENNERT,

"5413 Honoré street,

"MARCUS A. DOOLY,

"Chicago.

"DAVE MURPHY,

"5488 Harper avenue, Chicago."

No writer has declared in favor of Thompson for mayor.

SAW 'COOTIES SO BIG THEY WORE SERVICE STRIPES'

HARRY RHODE

Harry Rhode, a Board of Trade clerk who entered the army as a volunteer and served eighteen months in France reached Chicago yesterday. He was with the Seventh field artillery and served in the First headquarters division.

"Say, but I was glad to get back," he said. "In our company, out of 200 men, only seven privates, including myself, and a top sergeant survived. We were engaged on the Lorraine front and in the battles at Cantigny, the Soissons, and St. Mihiel and in the offensive in the Argonne."

He was gassed and wounded at Toul Feb. 20, 1918. His work was looking after the wires. At one time he was receiving phone messages for thirty-six hours.

"Getting out in the open to string wires is no fun, I can tell you, when the bullets are whizzing and singing 'Nearer My God to Thee,'" Rhode said.

Cooties were mentioned by one of the boys.

"Well," said Rhode, "some of them were so large and tough that they wore service stripes."

LEAGUE FOES FOES OF WILSON, PREACHER SAYS

Objections to the league of nations were classified under four heads in an address last evening by Prof. Theodore G. Soares of the University of Chicago at the annual banquet of the Chicago Methodist Social union at the Morrison hotel.

"The objections," he said, "are raised by those who have a personal animosity towards President Wilson, those who have an antipathy to Great Britain, the sympathizers with Ireland's desire for independence, and those who deliberately deceive.

"Even Charles E. Hughes made a mistake when he said the league attempts to draw a map of the world which cannot be changed. The league does not guarantee there shall be no changes in political alignment, but that there shall none be brought about by aggression."

In resolutions presented by Dr. John Thompson THE TRIBUNE was criticized for an editorial printed yesterday on the liquor question. They denounced THE TRIBUNE'S stand on prohibition as "almost anarchial or a modified kind of bolshevism." They called upon "Christians of all the churches to protest against this effort to stir up unlawful opposition after the amendment has been passed."

W. F. Wienecke was elected president of the social union for next year.

RESULTS OF "TRIBUNE" STRAW VOTE

Another visit into the Twelfth, Thirteenth, Seventeenth, and Twenty-third wards was made yesterday by "Tribune" mayoralty straw vote collectors. United Cigar Stores at State and Monroe and at State and Van Buren streets also contributed a miscellaneous batch of ballots. The figures for yesterday's collection of ballots are:

Ward.	Character of vote.	Total number of ballots.	Thompson.	Sweitzer.	Fitzpatrick.	Hoyne.
12	Residence and business sections	236	38	164	10	17
13	Do	183	31	132	3	9
17	Do	112	26	42	23	19
23	Do	289	150	83	6	37
	Taken in United Cigar Stores at State and Monroe and at State and Van Buren streets	122	36	40	13	31
	Totals yesterday	942	281	466	55	113
	Previous vote	15,457	4,923	5,792	1,379	3,321
	Total vote	16,399	5,204	6,258	1,434	3,434
	Per cent of total vote		31.7	38.2	8.7	21

Note—The figures do not exactly balance when added crosswise. This is because a few votes which went to Collins were added into the totals.

BIG ROLLS BET ON THOMPSON AND SWEITZER

Thompson and Sweitzer partisans were betting their heads of yesterday throughout the loop district. It was the first day that the big wads were hauled out.

Manager Trudell at Righeimer's said he had never seen so many people around with money to bet on either Thompson or Sweitzer. They were laying it even on both. A development of the betting was the stipulation that the wager was either that Thompson would defeat Sweitzer or that Sweitzer would defeat Thompson and not that Thompson or Sweitzer would be elected mayor.

This was to protect bettors against a jam in the event of Hoyne's election. There was little Hoyne money in sight. O'Leary was still carrying Hoyne at 4 to 1, with Sweitzer and Thompson even money propositions.

A Sweitzer partisan put up $5,000 even that Sweitzer would get more votes than Thompson. This was one of the larger wagers of the day.

The big roll, as the "Thompson pool" is known at Righeimer's, is to be brought in today when the Thompson men promise to cover all even money offers.

SEEK $100,000 TO FURTHER CHICAGO BAND ACTIVITIES

A campaign to increase the membership of the Chicago Band association to 10,000 will be launched April 7 and continued until April 11, it was decided yesterday at a meeting at the Hotel La Salle of forty business men, supporters of the band. An effort will be made to raise $100,000 to provide for continuous and extension of the band's work.

The band, which, during the nine years of its existence, has been supported by a comparatively small membership in the association, plans to provide music this summer for people of sections of Chicago where a band has never been heard. It proposes to play every day.

Plans for the reorganization and enlargement of the band association are under the direction of H. H. Merrick, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, assisted by Herman L. Metz and Joseph H. Dion.

POLITICAL NOTES

What is the meaning of the large crowds attending the political rallies and hardly any pictures of mayoralty candidates being shown in the windows of residences? The political experts are all at sea.

Maj. Barrat O'Hara, former lieutenant governor of Illinois, will preside at a Sweitzer noonday meeting at the Colonial theater Monday.

The Socialists will bring their speaking campaign to a close Sunday with a demonstration in Orchestra hall. Kate Richards O'Hare of St. Louis and Seymour Stedman will be the principal speakers.

Thomas D. Knight made a statement yesterday praising the work of Mr. Sweitzer in the war activities work in Chicago last year.

The Maclay Hoyne Boosters' club of the Twelfth and Thirty-fourth wards will rally tonight at the Douglas Park Auditorium, Ogden and Kedzie avenues.

SWEITZER TAKES LEAD OF 1,000 ON TRIBUNE VOTE

Democrats Stick to Party, Republicans Desert the Mayor.

The stock of Robert M. Sweitzer jumped so strongly yesterday in THE TRIBUNE'S mayoralty straw vote that the Democratic candidate for mayor assumed a lead of more than 1,000 votes over Mayor William Hale Thompson.

Sweitzer's lead is due to the fact that, in the straw vote, the big Democratic wards appear in no uncertain tone to be registering the Democrat as their choice, while in the Republican wards and those in which Mayor Thompson formerly displayed great power the voters seem to be rallying around the mayor in only a half hearted way. Much of Mayor Thompson's strength, in fact, appears to be slipping away from him to the support of Maclay Hoyne. Maclay Hoyne's strength, it seems by all indications is impossible to estimate.

Yet when the swathe he has cut in some of the big independent Republican wards like the Sixth, Seventh, and Twenty-fifth—some of the largest wards in the city—is considered, and when the big block of "switches" from the Thompson vote of four years ago is considered, it is hard to make a forecast of just what sort of a vote the prosecutor may poll.

Railroad Director Will Speak at Press Club

Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and a party of six will arrive in Chicago this morning. Mr. Hines will speak this evening at a dinner of the Press Club of Chicago.

1—South shore—south park plan.
2—Modernize Chicago water department.
3—Extend the Chicago plan—completion of the Twelfth street project and Michigan avenue link—development of Ogden avenue extension, etc.
4—Complete railroad terminals under way and develop other new terminals.
5—Build boulevards along the drainage canals and connect them with the park system.
6—Lessen the Smoke Horror.

VOTE FOR HOYNE.

Hoyne's candidacy for mayor was the only means of giving to intelligent voters, who could not tolerate the foxy demagogy of Thompson and who did not like the reactionary appearance of Sweitzer's campaign, a place to go with their votes.

Thompson and Sweitzer were unfortunate candidates for Chicago to have in such a year—Thompson an agent and promoter of disturbance, Sweitzer a child stolen by the gypsies of gas and electricity.

Just when the city needed a fair deal Lundin, for Thompson, defeated the best hopes of the Republican party in Chicago, nominated a man whose middle name is Mischief and not Hale, and let the city in for the possibility of four more years of downright demagogy, dubious Americanism, and personal politics.

Lundin, the blonde fox, and Thompson were successful in the Republican primaries.

Dear old Roger Sullivan, who has no more interest in the gas situation than an honest gas meter, but whose public reputation is that of a mistake in a gas bill, had picked Sweitzer for the Democratic candidate.

If Sweitzer were running for reelection as county clerk we'd probably indorse him. But would any one maintain that a city buckling down to four hard years should pick him for mayor? Such a selection could come only out of impoverishment of politics.

At that we might, as against Thompson, prefer to take a chance with Sweitzer. If nothing else than the comparative ability of the two men were involved Sweitzer would be our man without a second of hesitation. But that is not the real issue in this election.

Sweitzer cannot get out of his own particular barrel of apples. He cannot avoid appearing as the candidate selected by men affiliated with public utilities and influential in the Democratic party.

Thus he must convey the idea to progressive citizens, to liberals, to radicals, to the men who are backing Fitzpatrick for mayor in the new labor movement that his election means that they have been sold down the river.

It will tend to convince progressives, liberals, and radicals that they haven't much of a chance against organized politics. It is a bad thing, at a time when liberalism is trying to hold radicalism within bounds—to prevent the improvement of social order with an ax, with dynamite and machine guns—it is a bad thing to suggest that all an American election, controlled by political organizations, can produce as the executive of a great city is somebody's "man."

Hoyne is nobody's man but his own. His Americanism is clear. He has nothing to explain. There is no taint in his record as an American citizen. He does not have to open the window to blow out suggestions of gas or sauerkraut. The place is fit to receive American company.

The best interests of this city will be served by the election of Maclay Hoyne—whether the city sees fit so to serve itself or not. When he became a candidate he gave the rebellious citizenship of Chicago, which did not want to rebel to the extent of Fitzpatrick or Collins, an out, a means of expression, a place to go with their ballot.

If you don't want Thompson, if you are a Republican; if you don't want Sweitzer, if you are a Democrat; if you are afraid of the one as of a trifler with dangerous combustibles, if you mistrust the other as the apparent symbol—regardless of personal integrity—of reaction—there is Hoyne.

He has nothing of Thompson and nothing of Sweitzer. He does not have to explain his political experiences or connections. If you want to escape a dilemma—and do not want to escape it by a vote for Fitz, which is a vote for fits—why not escape it by giving a vote for Hoyne, which will be a vote for Hoyne, a vote for an American mayor of an American city?

Enough people in Chicago feel this way. The only question is: Will they have enough confidence in results to vote this way? You, if you feel this way, at least can vote this way.

THE VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN.

The latest information from Washington is that the rate of interest and the date of maturity of the new government loan will not be definitely announced until about the time the loan is ready for public subscription. Even the total amount of this loan has not been officially designated, though it is generally supposed the public will be asked to subscribe some $6,000,000,000. The only official information about the loan thus far given out by the treasury department is that the campaign will begin April 21 and continue for three weeks.

There is no question with regard to the necessity for making the new loan a success. As a result of the war the financial requirements of the government are enormous, and even if we assume that there has been a considerable degree of waste and extravagance we shall nevertheless have to shoulder the financial burdens that have already been incurred. We cannot afford to be negligent where our national integrity is concerned, and in view of our unpreparedness it is doubtless fortunate that our war bill is not larger.

The average citizen, however, may find it somewhat difficult to subscribe to the new loan. He has already purchased government bonds of the previous issues, and not infrequently to the limit of his financial ability. He has just recently filed his income tax return.

It will probably be necessary, therefore, to offer more attractive terms than in the case of the previous war loans. But unless the prospective investor can learn in advance what these terms are going to be he cannot make arrangements to take his full share of the loan. The government is now asking the people of this country to prepare for the new loan, but it is at the same time withholding the information upon which they could base their investment calculations.

THE POETRY OF SMOKE.

Poetry ought to be as good as its subject; in some cases it could not be worse. Thus fortified we do not hesitate to versify about Chicago's smoke. We are only sorry that Dante passed so soon, because we could have offered an ideal inferno, thus saving him the trouble of stressing his imagination.

But more: we not only could offer Dante inspiration but also rhymes. Not every poet, not even one who views Chicago through the specs of pure rhythm, is fortunate enough always to be furnished both inspiration and rhyme by the muse. Thus:

Coke,
Smoke,
Choke.

Of course, this is assuming the poet prefers metrical and stately procession of his ideas and not merely the haphazard torrent of words as in vers libre, as, to wit:

STATE AND MADISON.

Suffering humanity on a cross
Of two streets;
Stifled and wheezing asthmatically;
Pressing on—
Nowhere—everywhere
In the clattering cañons;
Calling to the spirit of Chicago:
"What means this 'I Will?' What will'st thou?"
Answers back the dowdy minx:
"I Will Smoke!"

Now, unrhymed Dante, pass west from the cliffs of the traders and, still eschewing the metered song, twang your lyre as follows—viz:

MADISON STREET.

The caves of the movie-men
Beckon the throngs to gape
On pictured hell within—
The throngs enter
And emerge again, exclaiming:
"A faintly tasting inferno that
For us who daily cough and spit
Hell's fumes
In Chicago's Stygian clime."

Is it as bad as that? It must be so for we doubt if the loop poet could enter heaven without credentials, his appearances being against him. So we indite this reminder:

HAVE YOUR TICKETS READY.

A sooty shade ambling heavenward
Bespeaks St. Peter thus: "When
Are the doors open? I seek repose."
The holy man dips his pen
And writes: "An escaped convict
From the depths of hell ——"
"Hold!" cries the shade. "Let me tell You why the soot and grime."
"Pardon," smiles the saint,
"You're from Chicago—my mistake."

So you see the poetry is no worse than the subject; enduring the one, endure the other.

WHAT TO DO WITH OUR RAILROADS.

There have been at least seven formal proposals for the disposition of the railroads. Of these only one—that of the railway brotherhoods—involves complete government ownership. The brotherhoods want to have the railroads operated by the employés, who would pay the government a specified rental. It may be assumed that most Socialists are in sympathy with this program.

The remaining proposals contemplate private ownership under some form of government control. Director General Hines suggests that the government should prescribe a "moderate" guaranty on capital, that federal officials should have a large representation on railroad boards of directors, and that, finally, the railway properties of this country should be consolidated under the management of a few large corporations, "each of which will so combine the prosperous and unprosperous roads as to present a fair average result."

Mr. Hines' suggestions seem to afford one of the most reasonable solutions of the railroad problem that has yet been proposed. It is obvious that the old system of private management will have to be greatly modified; even the railway executives and security owners are opposed to any return to the conditions which existed before we entered the war. By taking over the operation of the railroads the government has introduced a number of new factors into our national transportation problem, and these factors are of such a nature as to prevent a successful restoration of the old system.

Our primary desire is to devise a method whereby the railroads will best serve the national interest. Some roads, though necessary from this point of view, will inevitably be unprosperous. Mr. Hines' proposal that the more prosperous railroads should carry the burden of supporting those which, for one reason or another, are unable to pay regular dividends is one which appears to be sound if we take service as our chief criterion of railway transportation. But if we put this obligation on the stronger railroad corporations we must also provide some sort of guaranty of a reasonable rate of return on the private investment. In that case we shall of course be entitled to insist upon government representation on the boards of directors as well as a greater degree of federal regulation than was exercised before the war.

HOW PEOPLE SELECT BOOKS.

[From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

How people select books from a library long worried Harlan H. Ballard, librarian of the Berkshire athenæum, Pittsfield, Mass., until he had several thousand slips printed for circulation among patrons of various libraries in Massachusetts, requesting that they designate on the prepared blanks why they had selected the particular volumes they were taking out. He noted five reasons and left a blank line for any other. After he had tabulated the returns he discovered that the reasons he suggested influenced only 17 per cent, as follows: Recommendation of friend, 5; author's reputation, 3.5; interest in subject, 3; notices in reviews and advertisements, 5; influence of library, .5. Under "other reasons" 74 per cent answered, in slightly differing language, that they took the books that were easiest to get. Stifling his mortification and astonishment, he gave orders to rotate the library on the display table, using the first twenty of each subject in Dewey's classification for three days and then trying the second twenty. At the end of the year the records showed that twenty times as many books of that character had been read as in any previous year.

[From the Belvidere Republican.]

Thanks, B. L. T. The Republican tried to get it across that the hardened heroes of the war in Europe could stand anything and that a vocal barrage let down in the soldiers' club by the porter in a Belvidere barber shop rolled off them like oiled raindrops off an army poncho, but the point slid off some hides like a wooden arrow head from the nose of a fighting tank. When you come across, however, with it marked and labeled and blown in the bottle and copyrighted and with a big sign on it that "this is a joke," they get it, easy.

OUR valued contemporary is, however, in error in supposing that we sought to diagram his joke; that is against the immutable policy of this column. His paragraph was perfectly worded, not a syllable too few or too many.

[From the Ashland, Ky., Independent.]

He said he had examined the boy and found a place on him blue and somewhat bruised. But the only fault he could find was that the teacher did not spread out the application and administer it on both sides, instead of just one, and that she did not keep on until she had conquered the boy. So ended the trial of pretty little Miss Lisle who was brought up for being unmerciful and punishing a child beyond reason, and her very face showed kindness and gentleness and a spirit of love which no one could mistake, and if the boy is put under her instruction, and if she is allowed to use her gentle and persuasive manner no doubt she will bring him up to be a citizen of which Boyd county will be proud.

SUN CURE FOR T. B.

IN the treatment of tuberculosis by sunlight the patient sits with his back to the sun. The reflecting apparatus is a concave metallic mirror. This throws the light against the back part of the roof of the mouth, where it falls on a metallic throat mirror. This throws the light directly on to the ulcers in the larynx.

A satisfactory arrangement is to fasten a mirror holder on the back of a chair. On this mirror holder are two mirrors. One, a concave metallic mirror, is used to throw sunlight into the mouth. The other, a glass mirror, permits the patient to see that the sunlight goes to the right place. The patient places a glass of warm water, a towel, and a metallic throat mirror on a nearby table or chair. He straddles a chair with his back to the sun and facing the mirrors. He opens his mouth widely, draws out his tongue with a towel held in his left hand, moistens the throat mirror, and places it in position against the soft palate, holding it with his right hand. He holds his head in such position that the light is thrown on the throat mirror, reflected to his larynx, and the image of the ulcerated larynx is seen on the glass in front of him.

The patient is shown how to carry this out and after that he takes his own treatments.

In fact, Drs. Mills and Forster, who report the successful use of the method, say that most of the details were worked out by one of their tuberculosis patients who is not a medical man. This patient devised metallic mirrors composed of an alloy of aluminum and magnesium. These mirrors reflect light well, and instead of converting ultra violet and violet rays into heat rays have some power of changing heat rays to violet rays.

The use of sun rays as a cure for tuberculosis is well established. The name for it is heliotherapy. The limitation of the method is the inability of sun's rays to penetrate. The treatment of tuberculosis of the throat, the larynx, and vocal cords has been very unsatisfactory. The use of heliotherapy in laryngeal tuberculosis has been somewhat general for fifteen years, but the light seemed to heat the throat too much. The use of metal mirrors overcomes this objection.

The light is applied for only thirty seconds a day at first. Later exposures of ten to twenty minutes twice a day are made. The pain in the throat is lessened, the irritation decreases, and the ulcers heal. It is not possible to use the treatment to advantage except under a physician's direction.

YEAST AND COMPLEXION.

E. E. writes: "1. Would there be any harm in taking one-half cake of yeast dissolved in a little hot water every morning and night for six weeks?

"2. Would there be any danger later on if not now?

"3. Is it good for your blood and complexion?"

REPLY.

1, 2. No.
3. Possibly.

HYSTERIA.

P. H. writes: "[1] I am a man of 69 years of age, have a very slight rupture of eight or nine years' standing, which has never caused any inconvenience. Should I begin wearing a truss?

"2. My wife, 40 years of age, for many years has had hysterical turns, with severe headaches. She says she has a smothered feeling, cries out, and imagines she is going to die. She worries too much. Takes these spells almost weekly. Otherwise is in fair health. The doctor says her heart is not the cause; may be from her liver. I wish to get her a good tonic. What would you recommend?"

REPLY.

1. I think so.
2. The only treatment worth while is mental and social. Medicine does no good.

ANKLE SWELLING.

D. E. H. writes: "Will you please answer the following: For some time my ankles have shown considerable dropsical swelling—the left more than the right. The left shows swelling up to knee. Have bunion, callouses, and corns on left foot. Would these be causes for the swelling? I feel all right every other way. Am 73 years old, working every day; no cause for complaint of any kind outside of a double rupture of several years' standing. The swelling is much less in the morning. My physician examined urine, but says he finds nothing to indicate any trouble."

REPLY.

If Bright's disease is not responsible heart disease is to be considered, also disease of the liver and phlebitis. A low grade infection occurring through the bunion is a possibility.

NO EFFECT.

J. J. V. writes: "I am a man about 40 years old. What effect will fluid extract of unicorn root taken twice a day have on the system? I am very anxious to know."

REPLY.

None. It is a bitter with practically no medicinal action. It is sometimes given for rheumatism, but does no good.

A Reader writes: "1. Will you please tell me whether tragacanth in any toilet preparation is injurious to the hair? 2. Also please tell me if alcohol is."

REPLY.

1. No.
2. Alcohol takes a good deal of oil from the hair. However, by using a little grease after washing this objection can be overcome.

DRY SECTIONS.

J. H. writes: "Where the damp climate of the island of Montreal is not good for juveniles who are subject to colds in spring and autumn, and a change to a drier location or climate advisable, will you kindly recommend places in Canada and the U. S. A. with climate of a dry nature suited to such cases where a few years' sojourn would recuperate the lungs, etc.?"

REPLY.

The driest sections of Canada are found in the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Arizona, New Mexico, and Utah are drier than any section of Canada.

THE SAILOR'S BOND.

Chicago, March 26.—[Friend of the Soldier.]—On Feb. 21, 1919, I was discharged from the navy and at the time of discharge I had paid $50 on a $100 Liberty bond for the fourth loan. I either want to keep up the payments or recover the $50. To what department must I write and would I be permitted to keep up the payments? T. N. P.

If you wish to finish paying for the bond you must make the balance in one payment. Or you may recover the $50. In either case take the matter up with the navy Liberty loan division, United States navy department, Washington, D. C.

Miss T. B. Allen.—The Eight Hundred and Third pioneer infantry is part of the Second army and Ninth army corps. Headquarters is in Toul, France.

Miss Lucille Warner.—The Seventy-fourth engineers have arrived and were sent to Camp Humphreys, Va.

Mrs. H. H. Fessender.—Part of the Forty-eighth coast artillery came in on the Zeelandia and another detachment arrived on the Krooniand, March 25. They were sent to Camp Grant.

RELEASE DOES NOT AFFECT COMPENSATION.

Clinton, Ill., March 21.—[To the Friend of the People.]—My son, aged 17, was injured in an accident at the Illinois Central shops last September, where he was employed as a machinist. His right arm was badly mangled and he was in the hospital here for two months and has been cared for by the company doctor since. He has been told he will be discharged and put to work on April 1. He has a permanent disability of the arm.

I signed a minor release at the time he was employed. What is his status under the workmen's compensation law, and who administers such law in this district? D. B.

If the injured employé was engaged in intrastate commerce when the accident occurred he is entitled to compensation under the provisions of the workmen's compensation act; that is, 50 per cent of his average weekly wage during the period of temporary total incapacity, commencing with the eighth day thereof, and compensation for the loss of the use of arm if such loss occurred.

The fact that his mother signed a release on account of the boy being a minor when he was employed would not affect his right to receive compensation.

COURT STILL HAS JURISDICTION.

Madison, Wis., March 23.—[To the Friend of the People.]—Is it necessary for a man, after filing application for his second papers, after residing in the state for one year, to continue to reside there until the ninety days have elapsed before full citizenship is granted? M. R.

If the court had jurisdiction of the petitioner at the time he filed his petition for naturalization, the court does not lose jurisdiction by reason of the fact that the petitioner may move from the jurisdiction of the court. In other words, if a petitioner for naturalization filed a valid petition, he may move from the jurisdiction of the court at any time and return to the court for a hearing. FRED J. SCHLOTFELDT,
Chief Naturalization Examiner.

OWNER NOT LIABLE.

Chicago, March 23.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Can a tenant of a flat hold the owner of the building for the value of personal effects which were drying in the basement of the building in a place provided for tenants for drying clothes?

We met with a loss recently due to the fact that the basement was not locked over night and the owner states he is not liable for the loss. G. D.

On the facts stated, we should say that the loss cannot be charged to negligence on the part of the owner, and that he is not liable.

ALIMONY APPLICATION WOULD NOT BE BARRED.

Chicago, March 24.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—A and B were married in Kentucky. B divorced A in the same state four years ago, not asking alimony. B now wants A to support her and claims she can force him to, B lives in Kentucky, A in Illinois. Can B force A to contribute to her support? I. W.

If, as appears to be the case, the alimony question was not involved in the Kentucky proceedings, those proceedings would not be a bar to an application for alimony.

MAKER OF NOTES LIABLE.

Chicago, March 24.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I have residence property in Indiana mortgaged to about if not beyond the value of the property. If the man holding cannot get the original loan, including the interest at 5 per cent and taxes he has paid, can he bring any action for more than that? P. G.

Yes. The maker of the notes is personally liable for the deficiency.

NOTE GOOD FOR FOUR YEARS.

Chicago, March 24.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—A promissory note in Texas and due to be paid in 1910 is good for how long?

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

As but limited space can be given letters in this department, writers must confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Unless they give us their full names and addresses their letters will not be considered. No manuscript will be returned unless the writer sends postage for that purpose.

A STORY ABOUT FRED HALL.

Chicago, March 26.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I noticed this morning the death of Frederick H. Hall, one of your former editorial writers. The following may interest you and some of your readers:

About the middle of June, 1903, we were trying to obtain an ordinance from the city council which we believed would prohibit saloons, beer gardens, and road houses in that local option strip of territory between Cottage Grove and Prairie avenues and Fiftieth and Fifty-first streets, adjacent to the north end of Washington park. I asked Mr. Hall to write an editorial favoring such an ordinance. Mr. Hall said to me, "If you thought as little of editorials as I do you would not ask for one." I said to him, "Next to a preacher there is no one who gets under the jacket of a man like the editorial writer. It is like the Bible, 'line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little and there a little.'" He sent me to Mr. Patterson, the manager of THE TRIBUNE. I talked with Mr. Patterson about five minutes, told him what we wanted (he was well acquainted with the situation), and he called in Mr. Hall and said, "You can write an editorial on this question and I don't care how strong you make it." Mr. Hall wrote a fine editorial, which was published a few days before the council passed the ordinance. We believe that editorial was of great service in helping to obtain that ordinance.

I was always impressed with Mr. Hall's quiet, unassuming way. I loved the man, and eternity alone will tell the story of the good that Frederick H. Hall did in his newspaper work.

ARTHUR BURRAGE FARWELL,
President Chicago Law and Order League.

"MASTERS OR SERFS."

Chicago, March 27.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—I have just had called to my attention the thrilling statement of Mr. Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, to the effect that labor will either be "masters" or "serfs," intending to suggest, I assume, that they will be "masters." In view of the fact that average organized labor is now receiving higher pay than the average minister, the average doctor, the average lawyer, the average teacher, as well as all those of the so-called "clerk" class, while highly skilled labor is drawing a wage running from $3,000 to $6,000 per annum, the noble utterance of Mr. Fitzpatrick is simply immense! Such a past master of farce should not waste his time on the Chicago Federation of Labor, but should join forces with Secretary Baker, touring the country in vaudeville.

VAN SINDEREN HOWARD.

FOOD AT THE SANITARIUM.

Chicago, March 27.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Anent a recent article which appeared in your columns saying the food at the municipal tuberculosis sanitarium was poor and insufficient, may I as one who has eaten at the table there for months say a word? If the person who made the condemning remarks had investigated personally instead of accepting rumors, her opinions might have been different. My experience has been that the table is provided with wholesome food, well cooked and clean. Not a home table, to be sure, in the sense of what that term means to one of the middle class, but infinitely better than the home table of the average person who is a patient there. It is quite natural that any one who is sick enough to be in such a place is not normal, consequently he is of a fault-finding turn of mind, no matter how palatable food may be or how kind people may be to him. I know whereof I speak and I speak only as a matter of justice. T. S. M.

THE PRAETORIAN GUARD.

Chicago, March 27.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—When Napoleon was first consul one of his friends, Gobier, waked him at midnight to inform him of a terrible conspiracy against his, the first consul's, life that had been discovered. Napoleon listened patiently and finally asked: "Have they corrupted my guard?" "No," said Gobier. "Go to bed and sleep," said Napoleon and turned his back. We who have studied history know that every government thinks itself immortal. Not one has seen the abyss at its feet, but surely the union, with its guard of American youth and its old guard of dyed in the wool patriots, may view with calmness and watchfulness this swaddling bolshevism, this theory of ignorance and force, with its attributes of the shark when it turns to destroy. Deal with it remorselessly.

J. B. HALL.

WHILE MR. WILSON IS IN EUROPE.

Chicago, March 27.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—A feeble but persistent voice again calls upon Vice President Marshall to take the oath of president of the United States in order to call a special session of congress. In these strenuous times of reconstruction and economic unrest the representatives of the people should be assembled. Is my voice in the "Voice of the People" like a voice in the wilderness? Am I alone?

SIDNEY LUCAS.

"THE TRIBUNE" AND THE M. V. L.

Chicago, March 28.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—So certain am I that both you and the Municipal Voters' league are hoodoos that if I were running for office in Chicago, I would earnestly desire both THE TRIBUNE and the M. V. L. to oppose me. If I were a gambler, I would want nothing better than to copper all your election bets.

The purpose of this letter is to devise means of beating Thompson, and I think that the best bet is to silence THE TRIBUNE and the M. V. L.

I am a Democrat, but not of the "yaller dorg" variety. I voted for Thompson four years ago, for which I am still doing penance and hope to be forgiven. I was four years ago misled to believe that he was the best in the race. I am opposing him now, because I am convinced that he is the worst.

M. M. JAFFE.

"LET RUSSIA DO IT."

Maquoketa, Ia., March 25.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—If it is up to us to take desperate chances and to be ultra-radical, I should rather see the bolshevik system tried out in Russia than the league of nations in my beloved country, the United States of America, and for this statement I have very good reasons.

SWEITZER SAFE ON TRACTION AND GAS, SAYS DUNNE

Talks for Candidate and Reads Indorsement by Lewis.

Former Gov. Edward F. Dunne made his first appearance in the campaign yesterday as a supporter of Robert M. Sweitzer for mayor.

Speaking at the Garrick and Colonial theaters at noontime, the former governor secured great applause. He first read the text of a telegram he had received from Senator James Hamilton Lewis, who is ill in Washington, indorsing Mr. Sweitzer.

Then, appearing at the same time with Sweitzer on the same platform, Mr. Dunne stated his position and why he was going to vote for Sweitzer next Tuesday. He told his audiences that he was convinced that Mr. Sweitzer would safeguard their interests, particularly as to gas and traction, if they elected him mayor Tuesday.

States His Reasons.

Mr. Dunne's prepared speech follows:

"In the present campaign there are two living issues which concern the public, irrespective of party—two issues in which public interests would predominate over party loyalty. If our candidate for the mayoralty was wrong on either of these issues I would not hesitate to vote against him, Democrat as I am, in the public interest.

"These two issues are the proper settlement of the gas and traction controversies. Some few weeks ago, when efforts were being made to align all elements of the party behind one candidate, and when I was consulted in relation thereto, I stated to the friends who consulted me that, before any attempt should be made to select a candidate, we should all agree upon a proper disposition of the gas and traction issues. I advised them against agreeing upon any candidate blindly.

"I advised with much emphasis that the party should bind itself to certain declarations on these two issues before any candidate was taken up for discussion. I was then asked to prepare a brief statement of what should be the position of the Democratic party on these issues in the coming election, and I did so, and to this extent, did I participate in the attempt to harmonize the different elements of the party. I was later informed that all elements of the party assented to the statement of principles upon these issues which I drafted.

Sweitzer Fairly Chosen.

"Thereafter, Robert M. Sweitzer was regularly nominated by the Democratic party by an overwhelming majority at the polls, after he had declared himself positively and unequivocally in favor of these principles. Since his nomination I have not, up to the present time, made any public statement as to whom I would vote for next Tuesday, until today.

"I have watched the course of Mr. Sweitzer during the campaign with a good deal of care and interest, and I have found, with much satisfaction, that he has again and again openly and publicly declared in his addresses to the public that he was in favor of the principles agreed upon by all elements of his party on the traction and gas issues.

Sweitzer or Thompson.

"I have reached the conclusion that Mr. Sweitzer is in earnest in these professions and that he will, if elected mayor, adopt a policy along the lines of these principles.

"I have further reached the conclusion, from a careful examination of the progress of this campaign, that either Mayor Thompson or Robert M. Sweitzer will be elected mayor of Chicago on next Tuesday.

"I have but one choice, and that choice is Robert M. Sweitzer."

The grand jury yesterday continued its investigation into alleged election frauds incident to the last primary. Among the witnesses summoned were August Leuders and Frank X. Rydzewski, election commissioners; Jacob Lindheimer, assistant county treasurer, who lives in the Third ward, and the judges and clerks of election in the Thirty-sixth precinct of the First ward.

All of the witnesses, about fifteen in number, were questioned as to their knowledge of irregularities and frauds alleged to have occurred during the last primary. The investigation will be resumed later in the week.

SEEK VOTES FOR MAYOR ON 'FREE IRELAND' PLEA

"League" Makes Bid for Support on Racial Grounds.

Although the mayor of Chicago has about as much connection with the national government's position on self-determination for Ireland as hair has with a Mexican dog, votes for Mayor Thompson are being sought on the ground that he is "sound" on the Irish freedom question.

Voters of Irish parentage yesterday received in their mail in envelopes bearing the mark of the Irish Self-Determination league what purported to be a copy of the front page of the March 22 issue of the Republican, the city hall's weekly newspaper.

Quotes Mayor's Speech.

The enclosure contained a speech made by Mayor Thompson in which he stated that the Democratic party could not escape the accusation of perfidy and hypocrisy, if after making so many fair promises it now leaves Ireland to her fate.

"The election of a Democratic mayor of Chicago will be an indorsement of the Democratic foreign policy in respect to Ireland," one of the "inserts" in the copy read.

Urges Vote for Thompson.

Another said:

"The only effective way in which to express your disapproval of the treatment which self-determination for Ireland is receiving at the hands of the Democratic party is to vote for Mayor Thompson April 1. Not only is Mayor Thompson sound on this great question, but his election also will serve notice to the whole world that American citizens of Irish descent will not meekly tolerate any trifling with the vital and important problem."

Disowned by Irish.

Several Chicago leaders in the Irish freedom movement were asked regarding the sending out of the appeals, but they declined to permit the use of their names in saying that the move seemed to be a purely political one.

At the Thompson headquarters in the Union hotel last night it was declared that the Thompson leaders had nothing to do with sending out the literature.

SOLDIERS GIVEN CHANCE TO VOTE IN ELECTION HERE

Soldiers and sailors who have returned to their homes within thirty days before election and those at the Great Lakes Naval Training station and in army camps near enough to Chicago to permit them to make the trip here election day will be allowed to vote at the mayoral election on Tuesday without having registered.

This is made possible by the Hughes bill amending the election laws which was signed yesterday by Gov. Lowden.

The bill permits men who have been in the government's armed forces within thirty days prior to an election to vote in their former precincts without being registered.

They must make affidavit they still are in service or have been released within thirty days. A qualified voter of the same precinct must support the affidavit.

If a man has been out of service more than thirty days he cannot vote unless he is registered.

MURDER CHARGES DISMISSED.

Two charges of murder against Mrs. Lisha Langmann were dismissed in Judge Windes' court yesterday. A remaining charge of murder against her foster son, John Henry Langmann, was also dismissed. He was acquitted of one charge of murder some time ago. The two were charged with having murdered John Langmann and his first wife.

MEETING CROWDS PORTEND GREAT VOTE TUESDAY

Hoyne Could Hold Overflow Gatherings on South Side.

ng to be fooled, but up to closing time ast night the fear of defeat had not ntered one of the three headquarters.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, speaking or the "way down deep" opinion ehind the Thompson stage, said they ere certain, that there was no doubt, lthough the situation this year probbly would not give Thompson such lead as he had before.

"That's our honest-to-God feeling," e said.

George E. Brennan, who keeps the nside charts in the Sweitzer headquarters, said:

"I don't see how anything can happen between now and Tuesday to hange the situation materially. The nly thing that causes me to wonder at ll is that it looks too good. I shall e very much surprised if Mr. Sweitzer oes not lead the field Tuesday with t least 100,000 plurality." Brennan meant it. If he's fooled he doesn't et know it.

Hoyne Gives Views.

Mr. Hoyne was talking the "inside tuff" with the reporter.

"You want my honest-to-God opinon. Well, the election has been won lready, as sure as you stand there. I on't care what anybody says or guesses about, and I may be deceived, but my honest judgment is that I have won already. I will be elected next Tuesday, regardless of all straw votes, regardless of all prognostications, regardless of all surface conditions. The vote is set and nothing an change it, in my opinion."

James S. Agar, manager of the Hoyne campaign, came out of the gloom for the first time yesterday.

He said that when they got going three weeks ago Hoyne was a poor third. He picked up a little here and there and kept coming until last week when the real information showed that both Thompson and Sweitzer were slowing up, with Thompson still in the lead. The opening of the present week still showed Hoyne coming fast, but a little behind. Yesterday he overtook and passed his rivals, according to Mr. Agar's forecast, which he said was based on canvasses taken by paid men who had no interest in the candidate.

Looks for Landslide.

"Indications tonight are," he said, "that Hoyne is going over by a landslide vote, just as Thompson did four years ago. The 'silent vote' began speaking today. The men and women of Chicago, after carefully studying the situation, have reached this conclusion.

"'With our support Maclay Hoyne can win; we will give him our votes.'"

Lessing Rosenthal, former head of the Municipal Voters' league, put his stamp of approval on Sweitzer—as the candidate who can defeat Thompson, which, to him, is the chief aim of life next Tuesday.

And from now until Tuesday, the Sweitzer general said, they will try to sit steady in the boat and see that the waves rolled up by the rival candidates do not seriously set up a rocking meantime.

Mayor Seeks Labor Aid.

The last hour drive by the Thompson forces will be directed through the labor districts in the hope of grabbing away from John Fitzpatrick some of his present following.

Beginning yesterday, the Thompson spellbinders who are holding the noonday meetings at industrial and manufacturing plants distributed copies of what purports to be resolutions indorsing Thompson's labor stand by the "Working People's United association." The pamphlet carries the big tittle:

"If labor will not stand by its friend, Mayor Thompson, who will?"

A paragraph in the indorsement reads:

"Since William Hale Thompson has been mayor all offices and departments in the city hall have been open to the representatives of labor."

TELLS HOW HE GOT RID OF HIS CORNS

Well-Known Man Relates Remarkable Experience.

"By George! I never say anything like the effect of that new treatment, Ice-Mint, for removing corns and bringing quick relief to tired, swollen, aching, burning feet. It acted like a miracle in my case," said a well-known man yesterday, in speaking of this discovery which has caused such a big stir among Foot Specialists. "I had carried a pet corn for years that simply took all the joy out of life. I tried plasters, salves, ether compounds and all of the other 'dope' that is supposed to do the trick, but the pestering thing simply would not leave me. I began to think there was nothing on earth that would kill my corn, when I finally read about the remarkable results obtained by foot sufferers from the use of Ice-Mint. I decided to try it for myself, and before I hardly realized it my corn came out—root and all—and without causing the least pain or soreness. Believe me, it seems mighty good not to be afraid some one is going to hit my pet corn—and the relief—well, that just seems like Paradise."

Ice-Mint is a pure, snow-white, creamy preparation made from a genuine Japanese product and is highly appreciated by women who wear high heel shoes and by men who stand on their feet all day. It draws the inflammation out of swollen, tired or burning feet and loosens hard or soft corns so they can easily be lifted out with the fingers—root and all: besides it imparts such a delightful, cooling, soothing sensation that you will just "rave" with relief over it. Selling like "Wild Fire" here and there. Just ask in any drug store for a little Ice-Mint and give your poor, suffering, tired, aching feet the treat of their lives.

There is nothing better, or nothing just as good.

SEEK KIDNAPERS AS GIRL VANISHES WITH SAVINGS

Fearing that Miss Margaret Eberth, 15 years old, who disappeared from her home, 2001 South Halsted street, while on her way to church last Sunday, has fallen into the hands of kidnapers, Assistant State's Attorney Robert Hogan assumed charge of the search yesterday.

MISS MARGARET EBERTH

According to Mr. Hogan the girl took with her several hundred dollars, the life savings of her aged father.

Mr. Hogan stated last night that progress has already been made in the search. A letter written by a west side woman whose arrest is expected in the next forty-eight hours invited the Eberth girl to go to South Haven, Mich., "where life would be made attractive for her."

"I have come into the possession of certain facts that I cannot give out at this time," said Mr. Hogan. "It would injure our chances of finding the girl and would give certain people a chance to get away. I do not think the girl has been taken out of the city as yet."

The South Haven police have been notified.

PROBATION FOR ROBBERS OF RICH FIRST TIME—PAM

Probation for first offenders, who do not commit violent crimes or cause suffering to the poor, was advocated by Judge Hugo Pam of the Superior court at the sixth annual mid-year meeting of the State Probation Officers' association of Illinois at the City club last night.

"I believe in probation for the banker who goes astray and does not injure widows or orphans by his peculations," declared Judge Pam. "The same applies to the embezzler or the clerk in a large store. His first mistake deserves probation and a suspended sentence, not conviction and then parole, which has occurred in hundreds of cases, with the result the man convicted bears the stigma for the rest of his life of having been in prison. The probation system, properly administered will decrease crime.

"I do not believe in probation in all cases. The man who tries to kill another or who commits murder in a holdup; the banker who embezzles money and deprives the poor—these do not deserve probation.

"It is unfair to take the word of a chief of police or a police captain or a policeman that crime is on the increase because of probation. The probation system properly administered is unbeatable. It will reduce crime."

JUDGE O'CONNOR WINS SUPPORT OF BOTH PARTIES

"Every voter who has an interest in the retention of competent judges should take pains to put a cross in front of the name of John M. O'Connor."

This appeal was made yesterday by Clarence N. Goodwin, former judge of the Superior court. Judge Charles M. Thomson of the Appellate court, speaking for the Republicans and Progressives insofar as a judge may do so, has called attention to the fact that a Superior court judge will be elected Tuesday and that the voters should not overlook it.

Former Judge Goodwin's appeal comes from the Democratic side and he urges that all good citizens, regardless of party affiliations, unite in support of Judge O'Connor for reelection.

"Independent voters naturally prefer to retain the services of a tried and able judge," said Mr. Goodwin. "There is a danger, however, that the public will be misled by the fact that there is a judicial ballot which contains only the names of the candidates for the Municipal bench, and may overlook the fact that the names of the candidates for judge of the Superior court appears at the bottom of the regular

CAPT. HEINTZ IN CHARGE OF CITY G. O. P. QUARTERS

Capt. Victor Heintz of Cincinnati, named by Chairman Will Hays of the Republican national committee to take charge of the "listening post" in Chicago, got on the job yesterday.

His assistant also registered. He is E. V. Chilson of Ann Arbor, Mich., identified with the publication of the Lansing State Republican.

Capt. Heintz was a congressman from the Second Ohio district when war broke out. He resigned and got into the army. He was offered a nomination last year, but refused it, as he was still fighting in France. For his gallantry in the Argonne forest fighting—twice wounded—Gen. Pershing conferred on him the D. S. C. decoration.

EXPLAINS WORLD TROUBLE BRAINS ARE 'BOWLEGGED'

"Bowlegged brains—that's what's the trouble with the world today, and the only way to get a better world is to work for better children. It's too late to do the grownups any good."

This was only one of many audacious remarks which made an audience of several hundred school teachers and child welfare workers applaud with all their might yesterday in Fullerton hall when Mrs. Marietta L. Johnson of Fairhope, Ala., told them her ideas of a painless system of education.

APPROPRIATIONS OF ASSEMBLY TO PASS 50 MILLION

Result of Chicago Election May Affect Action on Revenue Bills.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Springfield, Ill., March 27.—Appropriations of the present general assembly will pass $50,000,000, according to the itemized bills that were offered today in the house by Chairman Smejkal of the appropriations committee.

The bills carry more than $32,000,000 for general state purposes, including the maintenance of the charitable and penal institutions; nearly $2,000,000 more for the normal schools, and $4,000,000 for general school purposes. These figures are exclusive of the University of Illinois and the legislative appropriations covering the expenses of the session.

The result of the mayoralty election in Chicago will determine largely the legislative policy with respect to the revenue raising bills affecting Chicago.

The two houses adjourned today until next Wednesday, because of Tuesday's elections in Chicago and the large downstate cities.

Gov. Lowden signed the bill that gives to Cook county commissioners the privilege of making a supplementary budget, providing the commissioners can find a method of getting more money to spend. This forecasts the passage of a similar bill extending the same right to the city of Chicago.

The administration waterway bills were reported in senate and house and were advanced to second reading in the house.

Representative McCabe's free textbook bill was passed by the house by the vote of 96 to 6 and will go to the senate for consideration.

The house adopted a joint resolution designating the week beginning the second Sunday in May as health promotion week.

EMOTIONALISM BIGGEST ASSET OF WORLD FIXER

John Collins Hasn't It, So He Is Eclipsed by "Leading Lady."

BY EYE WITNESS.
EL. JOHN MURPHY COLLINS—AND ANOTHER.

"Cissie," as Mme. Kalisch, irked by the routine and detail of a rehearsal that was not going well, once said, "come, let us get to the emotions!" the gang that last word a loving, lingering slavic caress which it is impossible to transfer to paper. "The e-mo-tions!"—on the second syllable she placed a kind of coo, a caressing stroke, velvety and slow, like a mother fondling a child.

Thereupon Wilton Lackaye said in his tart chauvinistic way, "It may, perhaps, be as well that we tarry over the technique."

In some such way, this article has nothing to do with the technique of socialistic thought, but with socialism's emotions. It will try to picture socialism not as to its facts or its allegations but as to its copious drama. Thus we adroitly avoid a kind of contentiousness which often becomes so acute as a lead to brawlings—and thus in a troubled world we help to keep the peace.

Once in a play I heard an actress who was playing the part of a courtesan who had just seen Jesus pass by her palace, waft across the theater in a voice thin, vibrant, startled, yet unafraid, the words, "Those eyes! Those eyes! Their awful light illumines all the world." The body was held in rigid poise when she spoke, the lips parted, the eyes fraught with wonder and with awe.

Strange! how that thin, far cry should carry across two decades of remembrance and come back into the mind as it came that night so many years ago—like a white shaft of light—the sound of a voice that was so fine that nothing seemed to intervene twixt it and silence.

About "Johnny Collins."

So we get to the matter in hand and to "Johnny" Collins' Socialist rally in the Coliseum—Johnny, the patient, little, unasking, long enduring standard bearer of "the party" in these parts, who has been running for office these twenty years—for alderman in 1895, for mayor in 1901, for governor of Illinois in 1904, for mayor again in 1905, when Harlan and Dunne ran, for congressman in 1910, for city treasurer in 1911, and now for mayor again, and always polling just enough votes to make the other fellows—the big fellows—wish they had them. Twenty-five years ago, when Johnny first contracted the running habit, the big fellows did not wish very hard to get the votes that strayed Johnny's way, because, in 1895, for example, when he ran for alderman in the densely populated old Fourteenth ward, he got only thirty-six votes.

Nowadays, in the straw votes, he runs one-seventh of Thompson's vote and one-ninth of Sweitzer's, a fact, be assured, which Big Bill and Oom Robert could without a pang bear to have nonexistent.

But, neighbors, the fact grows and grows, and you might as well learn without rancor and without panic to take account of it.

However, for our purposes, little Johnny, with his wide mouth and his readiness in ungrammatical vituperation, which passed beyond all bounds of fact and reason, and his garish red and black checker scarf with the passionate red pin stuck in it, and in his general tendency to blather, did not appeal. I thought him cheap, excessive, and a bit of a shrimp.

But in saying that I wouldn't be taken as meaning that Johnny does not truly mean all he says. An Irish machinist who is good at his trade, as Johnny, by all accounts, is, could do much better for himself at eight and fifty years than running for mayor on the Socialist ticket at daily expense money and carfare, which is all Socialist candidates get from the party chest. Still, Johnny, the County Down Irishman who learned the machinist's trade in Ireland and in Liverpool, who came to this town in 1880, and whom Grover Cleveland's sending of troops to Chicago in '94 sent in to the Socialist party—though he had been an insensate Democrat—Johnny, not to put too fine a point on it, did not much interest me.

Perhaps that was because he, like some other male stars, was swamped by his leading lady. Such things often happen in theatrical purveying.

"Johnny's" Leading Lady.

Johnny's leading woman was like that actress who came forth in Paul Heyse's play about the Magdaline twenty years ago.

This woman, a Jewess from the Lithuanian border—Augustowo, in government Suwalki, forty years ago, she was born—tawney haired, very pale, with a pallor not waxlike nor deathly, but soft ivory—stood up before 8,000 at Johnny's meeting, and the 8,000 rose at her, cheering, waving handkerchiefs, clapping hands. It lasted many seconds. But she could wait, that woman. She let them wear themselves out.

Then she raised an imperial arm—not imperious—and, amid the silence that then settled around her, and under the hundreds of yards of banners depending from the arched roof, she released these words, in the same thin, far, vibrant, startled yet unafraid way that once had come to me from the lips of Minnie Fiske: "Comrades and fellow workers! I have come a long way to be with you, and I am so glad—I am so glad—that I came."

Gladness was in every lift and wave of the tone. And truly the woman might be glad to be hailed by adoring thousands, for this was Rose Pastor Stokes, who, by all the probabilities, will in a few weeks be beginning to serve a ten year prison sentence for sedition.

After her first long cry of greeting she paused and looked smilingly out over the throng. Then with a slow confident intake of the breath she called to them again: "Comrades, do you hear me out there?"

There are effects like that in certain plays of Maeterlinck—vast spaces, vast silences, then a mystical voice coming from far away and wailing forth a poignant question precisely equivalent to the one Mrs. Stokes asked: "Comrades, do you hear me out there?"

Emotions of Socialism.

The effect is enormous, but for how few is the stage so set that they can produce such effects! Only sovereigns and fanatics can attain such a mise-en-scene!

You don't want her speech in detail. You want the drama of her. To me some of the speech seemed highly overkeyed, some of it false, some of it, in view of certain aspects of contemporary affairs in this distracted, groping world, terribly true.

That she meant all of it I don't doubt. Dr. Johnson once said, apropos, I think, of the case of Dr. Dodd, that the knowledge he is going to be hanged in a fortnight "wonderfully concentrates a man's mind."

So it might be, it seems to me, when one is standing on the threshold of a federal prison in which one is to spend ten years. I should think one would not talk nonsense then, or lie, or play-act, or pretend.

The immense hall was so crowded when I reached it that the best I could get in the way of a seat was two square feet of floor with an overcoat to upholster it. There I sat for three back-hurting hours. But the place had its advantages. I was close to the platform whereon the woman stood, and by a feat of acrobatics that seemed impossible and surely was difficult, I could view every flicker of her eyelashes, every tremor of her parted lips, and every movement of her fine hands, and, at the same time, I could put down on paper some phrases of hers. So, you see, my view was intimate. And she did not seem to be play-acting, but speaking out of the soul of her. So while I was sniffling in my overcoated reservation and brushing hot tears from my eyes and feeling extremely soggy and self-emotionalized and yet knowing all the time that here was one of the greatest plays I ever had seen—while, I say, I was in this mood of deep self-loathing and prime enjoyment—there came from the lips of the tawney haired one above my head this sentence—and when you read it you must try slowly to space it out with little, shining silent islands of white—I don't mean white paper but white silence—between each word:

"Somebody said to me a few days ago, 'Comrade, you will be an old woman when you come out of prison!' 'Yes,' I said, 'I shall be an old woman then, an old woman then, but I shall find a young social democracy then.'"

Here's the Setting.

I suppose that to get the effect of that you, who now read it cold, must have the scene—the 8,000 looking with parted lips and shining eyes into the woman's eyes; the late afternoon sun yellowing through the wide western windows of the hall, and falling full against the ivory face and the lioness hair; and the voice, mystical, detached, weird; and the gentle, furtive chimes of Grace church next door chanting the quarter hours; and the inscrutable cops standing at each corner of the platform whereon the woman stood, and listening with a purpose very different to that with which the people of the shining eyes listened.

That last thought gave me pause—the cops, I mean. For sedition Mme. Rose had been condemned. Yet sedition she still was talking—that is, if railing against the powers is sedition. And so, all the time, I kept wondering how soon the cops would lift their batons and say, "That will do! Come with us."

But they didn't do it. They only listened inscrutably—and chewed gum. O, the equanimity of authority! It is that placid, methodical chewing of gum and those quiet, shrewd, good natured, long suffering eyes of the cops that save us from what Budapest now is going through. There is much salvation in your chewing gum Irish cop's kind tolerant eyes.

So slight a line is it that separates the sublime from the ridiculous; the martyr from the gum chewer!

So Rose pailed on. "I want no clemency," she said. "I am willing to wait until the class-conscious proletariat of America finds me my freedom. I believe you will free me before ten years. I believe that before ten years you will free all the political prisoners of America.

"But to do it you must get yourselves out of the prison of capitalist exploitation. [Cheers.] I am proud to suffer the vengeance of the dark powers. There is but one thing that will open the doors to prisoners like me, and that is the class conscious power of the proletariat of America.

About Organization.

"If there is one unorganized worker in this hall he is a crime against himself and against his class. Organize! Organize! Organize, to the last man, for, when you are organized, the meanest spirit in Wall street and the lowest senator in Washington will heed your voice. If you would keep our Gene from prison you must organize. Will you do it?" [A roar of "yes."]

And the policemen chewed on.

She resumed:

"The imperialistic war is dead. Long live the class conflict! We are learning"—and then a crude but colossal flure—"the young giant, Labor, is staring the world over!"

The grand crudity of that—is it not enormous? It's as strong as John McCutcheon at his best.

She wore a brown dress. A curious dress—a dress of no time and no fashion. In it she could have given you a reading from "The Trojan Women" of twenty-five centuries ago or played the part of one of the Silesian peasants in Hauptman's "The Weavers," and still you would not have felt her anomalous. She suited our times and all times. She was at once elemental and universal. And yet she was not crude.

The brown dress was cut so low at the throat that it showed white bosom. A broad collar of white linen set off the head and the tawny hair. A necklace of beads carved out of some brown material hung around her neck. From as high—almost—as the shoulders of her gown hung a kind of overpanel of brown cloth. Its value—to me—was that it gave a certain priestesslike aspect to her dress. Garbed as she was you thought of her dress, if you thought of it at all, not as a dress but as raiment—as, what a spirit would fittingly cover itself with.

And so she seemed—a spirit, something set apart, aloof, detached, and crying into great distances. Again and always that strain—"Comrades! Can you hear me out there?"

There is a word in our language that we get from the Latin—the word "ineffable"—and as I went away I hugged it to me—"ineffable"—things not capable of being spoken or set down. That, I think, is what it means.

And to me that is what this scene and this woman were—ineffable drama, ineffable beauty, ineffable sorrow.

Ah me! Ah me!

And then I went home and read in "Alton Locke."

NO YANKS TO WED RHINE FRAULEINS, MAJ. WARREN SAYS

NEW YORK, March 27.—[Special.]—Sweethearts of soldiers now in the army of occupation in Germany, here's good news:

"There will be no international marriages across the Rhine with American soldiers as bridegrooms."

That comes direct from Mrs. Maude Radford Warren of Chicago, the only American woman who was promoted from private to major in seven months. Mrs. Warren went to France as a "Y" worker. She was assigned to a quiet sector, but that wasn't her idea of what she went to France for, so she enlisted to go with the chuck wagons right into the fighting front. Result: Col. Ruby D. Garrett, in command of the One Hundred and Seventeenth field signal corps of the Forty-second division, lined up his men one day and announced:

"Men, your new major; obey her in all commands."

Which was very nice, but Maj. Warren says those boys already obeyed her from sheer love for her, which is much nicer.

Along with the message for the sweethearts of doughboys, Mrs. Warren sends word that the blunders of the Y. M. C. A., if there were any, were more than atoned for by the devotion and self-sacrifice of the field workers.

Electric Shops, 72 West Adams Street, has long recognized the vitally important position of electric lighting fixtures in the home, and has opened a separate fixture section especially devoted to the problem of home beautifying through the medium of proper lighting standards.

Through the institution of an especially devised payment plan, it is now possible for every one, no matter how limited the income, to own his own lighting fixtures, just as one owns his furniture. Payments are divided into 12 equal monthly installments, added to your electric light bills. When you pay your next bill for light, pay it at the Edison Building, and at the same time drop in at the new fixture rooms, where hundreds of newest lighting fixtures are on display.

DRIVE AGAINST 'LOT SALE' RUSE BY BLUE SKY MEN

Fake Promoters to Face Civil as Well as Criminal Prosecution.

Promoters selling "lots" in oil, sulphur, and other ventures in Illinois to evade the "blue sky" requirements regarding the sale of stocks, are to face criminal and civil prosecution. The ground work for such action was laid yesterday when Assistant Attorney General Raymond S. Pruitt rendered an opinion holding this to be illegal and started the court wheels turning.

2,800 "Units" in 70 Acres.

The opinion regarding the selling of "lots" was given in the case of the Producers' Development company of West Virginia, owning oil and gas leases covering seventy acres of ground, which it has divided into 2,800 "units," each constituting a tract of land 55x20 feet, which it expects to sell at $50 each.

In connecting with this project the American Bank and Trust company has been made trustee for "the mutual benefit" of holders of "units," the profits accruing from oil and gas produced on the entire leases to be apportioned 50 per cent to the "unit" owners, 40 per cent to the development company, and 10 per cent to the owner of any particular "unit" upon which a successful well is drilled. The only obligation on the development company is to drill not fewer than two wells as soon as the entire "units" are sold.

"This department takes the position that such methods of financing oil and mining propositions come within the spirit of the blue sky law," Mr. Pruitt said.

Need Blue Sky License.

"In so far as I am advised, the Producers' Development company is selling not merely tracts of land but also the right to participate in a proportionate part of the profits of any oil and gas produced, and the right of unit holders to such profits is not limited to his own, but extends to all of the units on the tract. It is my opinion that the sale of agreements, similar in form to the proposed contracts of the Producers' Development company, cannot be carried on in this state without first obtaining a blue sky law license."

Criminal prosecutions against several promoters were taken up yesterday, and warrants will probably be issued from the attorney general's office today. At the same time officials of a number of companies were summoned to appear Monday and show cause why their "blue sky" licenses should not be revoked. Mr. Pruitt announced that in prosecutions to be brought the courts will be asked to impose prison sentences.

With the federal grand jury grinding away hearing evidence of alleged fraud against the Pan Motors company and the Riley-Schubert-Grossman company—the "Riley," it being learned, being a bulldog—and the Consumers' Packing company case, which is under open court investigation by Federal Judge Landis, continued to next Monday, the attorney general's office held the center of the stage in the "get rich quick" stock promoter clean-up.

Some specific cases which came into the limelight during the day were:

PRE-INCORPORATION SHARES

A. B. Olston of Barrington, Ill., has ten heifers out there. They are the "remnants," along with a lease he says is worth $7,000, of the million dollar Land Development and Live Stock company, 110 South Dearborn street, which couldn't obtain a "blue sky" license, although it has peddled stock.

Because of this inability to "operate," Olston and his brother, Otto, started selling "pre-organization shares, fully paid and nonassessable," in a company "to be organized as soon as practicable" to manufacture machines for making wire wrapping machines, the patent on which machine has not yet been obtained. The purpose of the company, in the pre-organization agreements entered into, is to "as expeditiously as possible make machines" doing work "under contract with the United States government" not even a smell of which contract does the company have.

On the strength of this the Olstons and O. E. Edstrom of San Francisco, the inventor, have been selling the "pre-organization shares" to "suckers." F. Lovell Bennett, with G. W. Spunner, postmaster of Barrington, came in yesterday and exposed the proposition. Then A. B. Olston was sent for.

"Pay back all money you have taken in this way within forty-eight hours or take service on a criminal warrant," Mr. Pruitt told him.

MACEY-ROGERS COMPANY

Investigators who trailed the Macey-Rogers company and the United Merchandising company, a "common law trust" and its successor, all over the loop as a result of complaints, largely from widows and the poor, ran into an extraordinary state of affairs. It was discovered the Macey-Rogers assets—it was incorporated for only $1,500,000—had been sold for nonpayment of rent.

The Macey-Rogers embarked in the general merchandising business with Max W. Meyer, 5150 South Park avenue, at is president, and H. Y. Taylor, secretary. Then "busted" it went.

Undaunted, the United Merchandising company, a "common law company," came into existence as its successor, the "trust" holding 13,500 shares—par value $10. This was in August, 1918. The "trust agreement" entered into provides that the three trustees shall hold office until 1928 and that it cannot be dissolved until five years after the death of the last surviving trustee. The trustees can declare dividends "wholly at their discretion," and their rulings cannot be contradicted.

A bill to dissolve both companies will be filed—if the attorney general can find them.

GLOBE SECURITIES COMPANY

The Globe Securities Investment company, fiscal agents of the American Truck and Trailer company, is to lose its customers, Robert H. Grotefeld, a director, announced yesterday. Mr. Grotefeld came to THE TRIBUNE office and after looking over the prospectus issued by the "securities investment company" made this statement:

"The Globe Securities Investment company's connection with us is going to end right away. I want to say that not only myself but Robert M. Sweitzer, its treasurer, Thomas A. Legris, the banker of Kankakee, and Berthold Heyman, the secretary, are in this venture and are staking our fortunes and reputations that it will be successful. We have all invested our own money. I have $2,500 invested; Mr. Heyman has put in $5,000; Mr. Legris has put up $1,000; Mr. Sweitzer has put up $200 and others have put money in. We have exchanged about $10,000 worth of stock of the old American Truck and Airplane company for new shares. The stock that has been issued now amounts to about $22,000."

STOCK SELLING PUBLICITY STOPS OIL SHARE GIFTS

Publicity given stock selling schemes in the last two weeks resulted yesterday in the withdrawal of an offer of the R. Francis company, 316 South Wabash avenue, made through its salesmen, to give its customers forty shares of the Wyoming Apex company, an oil development conbern, with each contract for the purchase of $40 worth of merchandise.

The Francis company formerly operated suit clubs but was closed up by publicity given its methods about a year ago. About two weeks ago it again put salesmen to work, this time selling contracts for the purchase of $40 worth of merchandise. As explained to a TRIBUNE reporter at the offices of the company by a man who said he was the manager, each "customer" has the opportunity of becoming a salesman. The $40 is to be paid in weekly installments of $1 each, but if five new customers are obtained by any contract holder before ten payments have been made but $10 need be paid.

Contracts fresh from the printers carry a clause providing for the "gift" of forty shares of the oil stock when all payments have been completed.

"We did not want any undesirable publicity, so we stopped the offer," explained the manager, who said his name was Belleville. "Besides, with all the newspaper talk about fake stocks the offer made our proposition look bad."

Tear Down Plant to Make Room for Boulevard Link

Work of tearing down part of the plant of James S. Kirk & Co., through which Michigan avenue is to run, will start this morning.

POLICE RESCUE WOMAN MENACED BY VICIOUS DOG

Mrs. Catharine Glenn, 8505 Maryland avenue, notified the police yesterday that a mad dog had her barricaded in her home.

When Policemen Sheffner and Morien reached the Glenn home, Mrs. Glenn was on the rear porch of the second floor. On the ground below a bulldog bayed viciously. Mrs. Glenn's pet cat came out of the rear door of the apartment on the lower floor. The dog chased the cat into the house and killed it.

The policemen, pursuing, found the dog in a bedroom. As it leaped at them Sheffner shot and killed it. The dog is said to have bitten two children within the last few days.

CLERGY DEFENDS FELLOW ACCUSED OF BOLSHEVISM

Methodist Book Concern Publishing Agents' Action Resented.

BY THE REV. W. B. NORTON.

A charge of bolshevism made against the Rev. Harry F. Ward, professor in Union Theological seminary, New York, by the publishing agents of the Methodist Book concern and J. R. Joy, editor of the Christian Advocate, New York, has raised a protest among the Methodist ministers and laymen in Chicago and promises to reach national proportions.

Dr. Ward was formerly a pastor of Methodist churches in Chicago and is still a member of the Rock River conference, which includes Chicago within its bounds. He went from the pastorate to become professor in Boston university and then to Union seminary. He is secretary of the Social Service federation of the Methodist Episcopal church. He led the attack on the publishing agents of the Methodist Book concern at the last general conference of the denomination in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., in 1916 in an attempt to compel the book concern to practice collective bargaining in its business.

Quotes Bolshevist Writers.

A short time ago Prof. Ward published as secretary of the Federation of Social Service a pamphlet in which he quoted from the writings of bolshevists. He prefaced the quotations by saying the extravagances and destructiveness of bolshevism had been widely published and therefore his attention was directed to the other side of the question. He called his pamphlet a source book.

As a result two books which were being used in the graded Sunday schools of the Methodist and some other churches were withdrawn from the market and a scathing editorial was printed in the Christian Advocate charging Prof. Ward with being favorable to bolshevism. The publishing agents of the church are the Rev. H. C. Jennings, Chicago; the Rev. J. H. Race, Cincinnati; and E. R. Graham, New York.

Protest of Ministers.

The protest of the Chicago ministers and laymen which will be forwarded to the publishing agents and the book committee, which meets in Cincinnati April 13, is as follows:

"Dr. Ward has been generally recognized throughout the churches of this country as a leader in the work of commending the Christian gospel to the world of labor and establishing closer relationship between the workingmen and the church. Never was there greater need of protecting such relations than in this hour of social unrest and change. For the report to spread at such a time throughout the labor world that the church was suppressing the writings of a man recognized by them as a friend of their cause would tend to discredit our message to labor and alienate those we should reach.

Light Is Needed.

"It is of the greatest importance that the fullest possible light shall be cast upon the Russian situation. We are, therefore, in sympathy with Dr. Ward's avowed purpose to make available the most reliable information with reference to original sources and authorities on both sides.

"There is serious danger to democratic Christianity in a situation which would make it possible for a few men to suppress at will and upon their sole authority any books published by the church which they choose to condemn."

Whisky Men Decide to Attack Dry Law on Many Points

Both the constitutional amendment on prohibition and the act of congress making the country dry July 1 next will be fought in the courts on various grounds, according to the decision of seventy-five officials of the distilling interests of the country, who ended a two days' session yesterday in the office of their chief counsel, Levy Mayer.

The distillers expect that they will defeat, or, at least, hold up enforcement of the July 1 law. Proceedings will be started at once to test the constitutionality of that law. Mr. Mayer gave an opinion to the effect that this law is of doubtful legality. Questions of the enforcement, interpretation, and effect of the prohibition amendment and the July 1 law will be raised.

Billion in War Chest.

This decision of the distillers' committee is of nation-wide importance. The organization has a war fund of a billion.

The influence of the Chicago wet and dry vote next Tuesday was taken into consideration at the sessions.

It is admitted by prohibition leaders that Chicago will vote wet.

This vote will be taken advantage of by the wet interests throughout the country. It will be presented to congress as an example of what a referendum would bring forth from the people.

The distillers' committee consists of H. M. Naylon of Rochester, Julius Kessler of New York, George F. Dierle of Cincinnati, Samuel Woolner of Peoria, George Benz of St. Paul, and R. E. Wathen of Louisville. The committee adjourned to meet again in New York next week.

See Flaws in Amendment.

It was pointed out at the session that the prohibition amendment is imperfect and without clear guidance as to enforcement.

"Under this law," said one of the committee, "congress can interpret the question of intoxicating liquor at every session. It can make the law practically inoperative. It can make the country absolutely dry. Or it can leave the question to the states, which now have the power. The question of state sovereignty is raised."

"The trouble is that the dry leaders were overtrained—they overstepped themselves," said another committee member. "It is left to congress to make it a felony to break this law or to change it in any way it sees fit."

Mr. Mayer would not discuss the action except to say that court proceeding were being prepared.

Resolutions Adopted.

A resolution adopted by the committee says in part:

"Whereas, It is estimated that on June 30, 1919, from fifty to seventy-five million gallons of distilled spirits will be in bond and in the hands of wholesalers, and the carrying into effect of said law tends to destroy distilled spirits worth several hundred million dollars that had been manufactured by and with the consent and approval of the United States, which, through its internal revenue officials, has absolute custody of the larger part of said distilled spirits which are now in bond;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, That prompt steps be taken to contest the constitutionality of that law, and that further steps be taken with a view to securing from congress appropriate relief."

Wets and Drys Fight.

Controversy was started between the wet and dry leaders in Chicago through a statement issued by E. J. Davis, Chicago district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, in the American Issue, a dry publication. This stated:

"One need not be at all surprised if the returns as handed out by the machinery built up by the board of election commissioners and Judge Scully would show Chicago ten to one wet and maybe more."

The Rev. Philip Yarrow of the Chicago Dry federation said:

"We do not expect to win. We are not making a campaign."

Speaks for Wets.

Martin McGraw, president of the Trade Union Liberty league, said the drys dare not meet the people. He said:

"They fear the wrath of the people who have been deprived of their liberties on account of the activities of paid prohibition lobbyists."

A Breakfast Suggestion

Fried Sausage With Gravy. Lay slices of Jones Dairy Farm Sausage meat on a very hot iron frying-pan, and turn them as soon as they are well browned. As soon as the second side is browned they should be set into a hot oven to finish cooking.

Remove from the pan the instant they are done, and keep hot while making gravy. Add dry flour to the fat in the pan and let it brown as much as you dare to—then brown it a little more.

Remove from the fire while adding boiling water (one-half pint for each tablespoon of flour); stir till it is smooth and all the glaze in the bottom of the pan is dissolved, then return to the fire to boil for two minutes.

A Luncheon Dainty

Pork Loaf. 2 lbs. Jones Dairy Farm Sausage, 1 lb. steak chopped, 4 slices bread (soaked in milk), ¼ onion (chopped), 2 eggs, salt, pepper and mace, grated rind lemon, 1 tablespoon lemon juice. Mix ingredients thoroughly. Grease a pan with butter or lard, place loaf in it, dust over with bread crumbs and bake in medium oven. Baste with melted lard several times. When done, serve hot.

For the Home Dinner

Scalloped Sausage and Cabbage. 1½ cups cold fried Jones Dairy Farm Sausage, shredded, 1½ cups cooked chopped cabbage, 1½ cups white sauce, well seasoned. Arrange in layers in a baking dish. Cover with buttered crumbs; heat in oven until sausage bubbles through the crumbs.

E. E. BEACH SEES NEW REVOLUTION NEAR IN MEXICO

Chicagoan and Novelist Return from Trip in Sonora.

Attorney Elmer E. Beach of Chicago has just returned from a trip to Mexico with his brother, Rex Beach, the novelist, and here is a digest of his impressions:

Another revolution is inevitable, the causes being oppression of the masses and excessive taxation.

An El Dorado awaits American capital in the development of rich mineral lands and vast grazing and farming areas, now either lying waste or exploited for the Carranza government.

Armed intervention is only a matter of time. America should have Lower California.

Nogales to Guaymas.

Attorney Beach and his brother entered Mexico at Nogales. Their destination was Guaymas, in southwestern Sonora, on the Gulf of California. They traveled by the Sud-Pacifico del Mexico railroad. The journey consumed fourteen hours.

"Mile after mile we bowled along through weary wastes of sand and rock and grasses," he said, "with nothing to relieve the monotony of the landscape except the background of bleak and forbidding mountains. Not a living soul was to be seen; not a solitary hovel of any sort that might betoken the presence of human life. Finally we reached Torres, about midway between Nogales and our destination, where we picked up two armored cars, one for the front and one for the rear end of the train, manned by Mexican soldiers with a machine gun as a precaution against an attack by Yaqui Indians.

The Lunch Station.

"But to get back to the dining car service. Our train slowed down and as we looked anxiously from the window, forward, a dozen or more crude wooden tables met the eye. Greasy half-castes presiding behind the wooden structures solemnly rolled out the tortilla dough, greasing it plentifully with a lard substitute, and just as ceremoniously deposited it in the small ovens for baking.

"We reached Guaymas that night and put up at the one hotel to await the coming of the boat that was to take us into the California gulf to the island of the Tiburon Indians and the coasts of the lower peninsula.

"The next morning, seeing several autoloads of soldiers being driven madly about the streets, I was told that four or five of the terrible Yaquis had been rounded up the night before. 'No, senor, they have done nothing, but one never can tell. Besides, an example now and then is well.'

"'What will be done with them?' I asked.

"'I do not know. Probably they will be executed. Yes, the executions are public, senor. Who tells what is to be done with them? O, the general, senor. The soldiers will telephone the general and he will tell them either to execute them or let them go.'

"Thus is justice administered in Sonora.

"I talked later in the day with an official representative of another government and asked why it was so apparently impossible to remedy the chaotic conditions in Mexico and why a stop was not put to the murderous attacks by Yaqui Indians upon trains and small hamlets when their number probably did not exceed 500. His answer was brief: 'Graft!'

"The situation is simply this: If the Yaqui Indians are rendered harmless, the general of the Sonora district will have no excuse for maintaining an armed force of men of a size to make grafting profitable.

"This instance is but one phase in the intricate system of grafting extant in the country. Staggering along under a heavy burden of taxes that it is becoming daily more and more impossible to meet, the time is not far off when we must look for another revolution in Mexico.

"Just as an example of the deterioration of business, take Guaymas, for instance. A few years ago it boasted a population of 15,000. Today there are about 5,000 people in the town.

"It is merely a matter of time, I believe, until intervention on the part of some outside power will be necessary."

KELLY-SPRINGFIELD CATERPILLAR TIRES

THE tire that delivers the engine's full power to the road. Its side air-pockets give it a leach-like traction grip, break up the tire-wrecking traction wave and enable the resilient rubber segments to expand as the rear edge of each is released from road contact, propelling the truck forward instead of holding it back.

That this means increased mileage, decreased gasoline consumption and general economy of operation is the testimony of some of the biggest fleet-owners in America.

SEIZE FAMILY AND $6,000 LOOT; SEEK RELATIVES

Nine Taken in Another Raid with $1,500 Cash and Bonds.

Prosperity was rife in the ambitious Carbary family until yesterday, when Ma and Pa Carbary and the young Carbarys departed from the home at 318 South Washtenaw avenue to become guests at the Fillmore street station, with the police seeking to round up cousins, aunts, and a few other relatives.

A successful visit to the home of J. R. Dykhuis, 3728 Douglas boulevard, had been recorded by the two sons—Leslie, 19, and Leonard, 18—when they encountered Policeman Robert E. Sullivan Tuesday night. They carried several boxes. Sullivan conveyed them to the station. The boxes yielded $1,000 in jewelry and silverware.

While they were being questioned Mrs. Clifton Carbary, the mother, entered and asked why they had been arrested. The boys had already made partial admissions, and the police held Mrs. Carbary. She was questioned and admitted that she, the father, the two boys, and other relatives were implicated, Capt. James F. Gleason said. The boys told of a dozen house robberies, he said.

$5,000 Goods Recovered.

And now enters a sister of the two boys, Mrs. Ethel Underwood, 3636 West Taylor street. She learned of their arrest Tuesday night and telephoned the mother, the latter said, and they at once procured two automobiles and removed $5,000 worth of stolen property from the home at 318 South Washtenaw avenue to the home of William Elsman, 1915 West Superior street. Mrs. Elsman is Mrs. Carbary's sister.

A patrol wagon visited the Elsman home and the property was taken to the Fillmore station. It consists of clothing, rugs, jewelry, and silverware.

A raid on a flat at 20 North Curtis street netted eight men, one woman, and $15,000 in cash, Liberty bonds and war savings stamps, besides many revolvers and much ammunition. Lieut. John Norton of the detective bureau conducted the raid. The place is the home of David Thompson, arrested two days ago on a charge of safeblowing. Mrs. Thompson was arrested at the flat, as were John Sullivan, Frank Tobin, and eight others.

Day's Crime Calendar.

Yesterday's crime calendar:

A. W. Matson, driver for the Case & Martin Pie company, robebd of $100 by four men at Bunker and South Des plaines streets.

Vinegar factory of A. P. Callahan & Co., 2407 South La Salle street, robbed of $200 in Liberty bonds by three men.

A four hundred pound safe, containing $100 in Liberty bonds and $50 in cash, was carted away from the butcher shop of Michael Przydzilk, 1503 Milwaukee avenue.

Four men in an auto visited the grocery of William S. Schach, at 3057 Sheffield avenue, locked Schach in the basement, and took $150.

Their next stop was the grocery of George C. Ackerman, 2601 Cortland street, where they locked up Ackerman's daughter Irene, and drove away with $60.

A pedestrian took the number of the automobile. The police say it belongs to G. W. Hood of 7330 Merrill avenue and that it was stolen yesterday afternoon.

Eighteen robberies on the west side were admitted yesterday by Joseph Knight, 310 South Western avenue, who were arrested on suspicion.

Rob Till of $62.

Two men entered the saloon of Joseph Stankovich in Cicero yesterday, robbed the till of $62, and drove away.

JUDGE SEES POLITICS IN POLICE 'HOUNDING' OF BURGLAR SUSPECT

IN holding George McMahon of 432 West Sixty-third street and three other men to the grand jury yesterday on charges of burglary Judge Daniel P. Trude of the Boys' court issued the following statement:

"I have been told by a person whose name I will not divulge that the police are 'hounding' McMahon. Assistant State's Attorney Lawrence was approached this morning, he told me, and asked to exert his influence to have McMahon placed on probation.

"What are all of these persons doing in court? What peculiar interest have they in these cases? There has been entirely too much outside interference. It savors to me of political interference. And no interference in a court is more despicable than political interference. It will not be tolerated here."

Says City Traction Fund Should Get $383,215

City Controller Pike declared yesterday that the city traction fund ought to receive $383,215 as its 55 per cent share of the net receipts of the Chicago Surface lines for the fiscal year ending Jan. 31. In former years the city's share has been upward of $2,000,000. The surface lines recently issued a report showing that with increased operating expenses and material costs there is little prospect of more than a very few thousand dollars in the citys net receipts.

PURCHASE OF OLD HERALD BUILDING BY CITY URGED

Finance Committee May Get It for Loop Police Headquarters.

The city may purchase the old Chicago Herald building, 163 West Washington street, for a downtown police station, police courts, and detective bureau.

A recommendation was made yesterday by the city council finance committee that the building and ground lease be bought for $200,000. The lease has sixty years to run. The council will pass on the recommendation this morning.

The board of education has been dickering for the building for school board offices. A hotel company also has been seeking it. Levy Mayer, attorney for the owners of the structure, made the finance committee a flat proposition yesterday, which resulted in its recommendation of the purchase.

Price Cut $50,000.

"Give us $200,000 for the building and lease," said Mr. Mayer. "We will take city bonds, a court judgment, or the city's note. We want to dispose of the building right away."

Mr. Mayer a few months ago offered the building to the city for $250,000. He offered to lease it to the municipality for $27,500 a year for the first ten years and $32,500 a year for the next ten. This would carry no option to purchase.

If the council approves the purchase, which will be paid out of the bond issue for new police stations, about $100,000 will be spent in remodeling the structure. The city will cancel the leases it has for the present detective bureau, central police station, and traffic bureau of the police department.

Budget Limit Extended.

Ald. John A. Richert, chairman of the committee, notified the other members of the passing by the legislature of a law giving the city until July 1 to pass the annual budget. This will give the city time to have the legislature act on the tax rate boost before it passes the budget. In the meantime the city will borrow the money it needs for current expenses.

The committee recommended that six organizations be allowed to hold tag days next month. They are the Junior league, Chicago Home association, Irish societies, St. Albert's court No. 1, Daughters of Jacob, and Chicago Benevolent association.

REGULARS SPANK GLEASON'S KIDS IN FIRST FAMILY FIGHT

ez and Danforth Hold Yearlings; Hap Felsch Cracks Three Blows.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Mineral Wells, Tex., March 27.—[Special.]—Bright skies and a blazing sun warmed things up so fast today that Manager Gleason gave the White Sox their first taste of battle, sending them through a five inning scrap in the afternoon following a prolonged drill practice in the morning. The players were split into two teams just as they will play on Saturday in their first tilts with the Texas leaguers, and the regular outfit beat the Goofs by a score of 4 to 0.

The Opening Lineups.

Henry took the place of Gandil, the official procrastinator at first base for the regulars, who lined up as follows:

Schalk, rf.; Weaver, 3b.; E. Collins, ss.; Jackson, lf.; Felsch, cf.; Henry, 1b.; Risberg, ss.; Schalk and Lynn, c.; Benz and Danforth, p.

The Goofs began with this deal:

Conroy, ss.; Hargrove, 2b.; McClellan, 3b.; J. Collins, lf.; Mostil, rf.; Williams, cf.; Runge, 1b.; Stumpf, c.; Williams, p.

Before the battle was over Conroy was given a chance at second and Hansen spelled Williams on the slab. The Regulars registered three of their runs off Williams in the three innings he pitched, making two singles and a double in the first and three singles in the third. Hansen held them to two hits and one run in two innings. The run grew out of a double, an out, and a long fly. Felsch hit Williams for two singles and Hansen for a double.

Benz and Danforth Supreme.

The Goofs made three hits off Benz, who was nabbed for four innings, but could not get a run across. Danforth finished the job and not a runner on John Williams' side reached first in the last two innings.

As the sun had baked the ground, Manager Gleason gave his men orders to take no chances by sliding, but Haas and Jackson hurt their ankles slightly trying to stop without skidding. Neither injury is expected to cause trouble.

Stumpf caught a peppery game for the Goofs, keeping them full of noise and leading in the vocal demonstration. He also handled Williams and Hansen well. The latter had a lot of speed and fairly good control of it for a youngster, giving only one base on balls. Hargrove, Haas, and Runge made all the hits for the second team.

Risberg Almost a Casualty.

Risberg was threatened with tonsilitis last night, but Doc Stevenson went on the job and played nurse and doctor, too, with such results that the shortstop was all right today.

There was no chance to form any opinion of the fielding ability of the rookies, as the ground was too rough. Both infield and outfield, but Runge demonstrated his ability to catch anything within reach, high, low, or wide. He is Henry's equal in fielding.

Seven Inning Game Today.

One more day's work will be allowed before the Sox leave on Saturday to start their opening games in the Brazos league. Gleason intends to let them have at least seven innings tomorrow. Today's score by innings:

Goofs.....0 0 0 0 0—0 3 2
Regulars.....2 0 1 0 1—4 9 1

Batteries—Williams, Hansen, and Stumf; Benz, Danforth, and Schalk and Lynn. Umpire—Fisher.

BARNEY STILLS DICKERSON WAIL

E. W. Dickerson, former president of the Western league, let loose a wail in New York last night proclaiming to the baseball world that he still is president of that organization and insisting he would collect in full on his contract. The contract expires June 15, 1920, he said.

Dickerson went to Europe with the forty-second division as a war welfare worker. He left after the Western circuit disbanded last season. He claims the club owners gave him a vacation covering whatever time he might be away. His protest arose when it learned Al Tearney had been chosen to head the Western this season.

Tearney stilled Dickerson's complaint when informed of it by THE TRIBUNE. "If the club owners will reinstate Dickerson I am perfectly willing to step out of the job immediately," Tearney declared.

"I understood he was in active service. Not for a minute would I try to keep a fighter out of the job he left to go to war. Even if Dickerson went overseas as a noncombatant he showed more patriotism than I did. I stayed home. So if the club owners will put Dickerson back as president I'll be the first man to congratulate him."

Besides being president of the Western Tearney recently was chosen to head the reorganized Three Eyes league. He accepted the Western position only after the club owners had been unable to agree on any one else.

IT'S "LADIES' DAY" FOR DISCUSSION OF PARK GOLF FEES

WHY BAR WOMEN?

CHICAGO, March 26.—[Golf Editor Tribune.]—May I say a word in defense of the rights of "women" who play upon the golf courses in Jackson park Saturday afternoons and Sundays? That is, the woman who works from 8 to 5:30 every day in the week and therefore needs the outdoor exercise as much as her stronger brother, husband, or father, and who usually has less money with which to pay a fee of 50 cents per round.

The diversion is just as greatly needed by her and in many instances is more difficult for her to obtain since custom has entailed upon her many duties which, in consequence of her necessary employment, frequently have to be performed in part on Saturday afternoon and Sunday, and yet she hastens through them looking forward to that bit of exercise which shall refresh her mentally and physically and fit her for the duties of the coming week.

There are, of course, many women who play upon both courses on that day (as there are men) who can either play upon other days of the week or can afford to belong to some private club. In some manner these are the ones who should be weeded out and a fee of not more than 25 cents per round assessed for the others.

Certainly children under 18 should be barred on Saturday afternoon and Sunday, as it seems possible for them to avail themselves of this kind of exercise on other days of the week.

As to the suggestion that the space now occupied by the Field museum be used for extending the nine hole course to an eighteen hole, would it not result in the greatest good to the greatest number to develop instead a second and separate nine hole course in this location.

Miss O. E. O.

LISTEN, YOU EXPERTS.

Chicago, March 26.—[Golf Editor Tribune.]—I am a Jackson park "golf bug" and have read with much interest the letters for and against the proposed tax upon golf players, and have looked in vain for an expression from women players.

In the opinion of the writer, the links are as much for the use and benefit of a player who takes 150 strokes as for one who plays in the 80s, although one writer desires to bar from the course all players who cannot make the course in 110 or less.

I would suggest that those who advocate a 50 cent to $1 fee for each game join a private club, as the majority of players at the public parks could not afford to pay any such fee.

I think if an annual charge of $1 for registration and $2 for use of locker was made that the receipts would be ample to keep the course in excellent condition.

Mrs. S. A. B.

WILLING TO PAY.

Chicago, March 26. — [Golf Editor Tribune.]—As a frequent player at Jackson park course I would be perfectly willing to pay a reasonable fee for the privilege of enjoying the great health giving game.

I fully agree with C. A. Johnson's idea of a canvas covering over the water holes and would like to see this suggestion adopted.

I am employed through the week, playing golf only Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Miss H. L. L.

[While the public course golfers of both sexes are ventilating their ideas on the proposition to charge a fee, Supt. J. F. Foster of the south park board is gathering information from other cities regarding charges made on their public courses. He will submit his report to the board at its next meeting in April.]

CATALINA ISLAND TO BE BIG RESORT; POSSIBLE CUB CAMP

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Pasadena, Cal., March 27.—[Special.]—William Wrigley Jr., today made known for the first time his plans concerning Catalina island, which he purchased recently. The reported price was $3,000,000. Wrigley took the baseball writers here with the Cubs across to the island, and informed them he intends to make a big resort of the place. As he is chief stockholder in the Cubs the island may become the permanent Cub training camp.

It required a voyage of nearly two hours on a rough sea to get there, but was worth while.

Since Wrigley bought his island, the boats have been jammed with anxious ones desirous of investing in lots. Business has been so brisk that a squad of salesmen and a complete office force has been installed to take care of things.

Golf Course Laid Out.

Almost every one seems willing to help Wrigley in his plans for a resort. Even now a golf course has been laid out in the foothills and ravines. There isn't even a lawn mower there to cut the grass on the fairways, but there's a flock of some 10,000 sheep and goats. When the grass needs clipping the sheep and goats are turned loose on the course for a couple of hours to bite it off.

Baseball practice was left in charge of Manager Mitchell while Wrigley and the scribes voyaged to the island. The outstanding feature of the drill was the work of Shuffling Phil Douglas, who was of little use to the Cubs last season until late in June. He seems to be leader of them all this spring in getting ready to start the National league pennant fight.

Phil has shown such speed in the first five days of work that he is slated to pitch Saturday in the first exhibition game against Los Angeles. Young Harry Weaver is likely to handle part of the hurling.

Showing Surprises Mitchell.

The showing of tall Mr. Phil has been something of a surprise to Manager Mitchell, who intended to let Phil take his time in getting ready, along with the other older fellows. Phil, however, has distanced all the slabmen so far and actually seems fit to go into a regular championship game.

Douglas would be willing to give 'em his hook curve and his spitter, along with his high swifts, but the boss has cautioned him to exercise care. With Jim Vaughn getting a late start because of illness, and with Grover Alexander still overseas, Mr. Phil may be called upon to open the season.

Seward Girls Win, 44-23; They Sure Throw Pill

Seward park girls defeated Stanton park, 44 to 23, at Lake Shore playground in an indoor baseball game of seven innings. Welles park had a victory of 39 to 0 over Lake Shore at Hamlin. The promoters explained the high score by saying: "You know how girls throw baseballs." The eliminated teams drop out.

Harrison High Natators Capture Pair of Meets

Harrison High won double honors yesterday by defeating Lake View in a junior and senior swimming meet in the Harrison tank. The score was 29 to 15 for the juniors and 27 to 18 for the seniors. Fishman and Nemeroff of Harrison were individual stars, carrying 15 and 13 points, respectively. Harrison juniors have held the championship for two years.

In the Wake of the News

By RING W. LARDNER

ME FOR MAYOR.

CHARGES that Lardner, dependent candidate for mayor, was offering money for votes at next Tuesday's election brought forth the following statement from the people's favorite last night:

"Reports such as this merely go to show how desperate the situation is in the camps of my rivals. They are like a camel, grasping at a straw. Here is the mountain from which the molehill grew. The other evening I happened to meet Mr. Howard Carr, alias Kid Howard. 'Kid,' I said, 'don't think I've forgotten that five I owe you.' 'Oh, no,' he replied, 'I'm not worrying.' 'Kid,' I said, 'how are you going to vote next Tuesday?' 'Well,' he faltered, 'I haven't made up my mind.' 'Well, Kid,' said I,' 'I expect to have that five about Wednesday.' That is the whole sum and substance of our conversation. No promise was made on either side. When my rivals seek to construe that as an attempt at bribery, they are making a camel out of the eye of a needle."

There was great rejoicing in the Thompson headquarters yesterday when announcement was made that returning Chicago soldiers would be allowed to vote without registering. "We should worry," said Manager Farrell of the Lardner campaign. "We'll more than offset that if we obtain a decision which we expect from Gov. Lowden." "What decision?" he was asked. "One permitting all the Cub stockholders in California to wire their votes," was the laughing reply.

That Lardner is running strong in his home ward, the Twenty-fifth, was indicated in a straw vote taken in a lemonade glass at Broadway and Buena last evening. The result was: Lardner, 2 straws; other candidates, no straws.

The people's favorite was walking along Madison street yesterday forenoon when a Thompson band passed playing "On Wisconsin!" "Well," said our candidate, "he may be on Wisconsin, but Illinois is off him." Persons who overheard the remark burst out laughing.

MAROONS START BASEBALL YEAR WITH 7-2 VICTORY

BY MAROON.

With three fast ball players of 1918 reappearing, the University of Chicago nine defeated Wilson & Co.'s team from the yards, 7 to 2, at Stagg field in the first regulation game of the local baseball season.

Coach Pat Page used two Maroons on the slab. Terhune went five innings, and Howard, a promising freshman flinger of 1918, allowed two hits in four frames.

First Baseman Ted Curtiss, one of the most valuable pastimers on former Maroon teams; P. S. Vollmer, the best catcher in recent years, and Bobby Coyle, second sacker, formerly at Oak Park High, were the men who rejoined the team. Curtiss was released from the navy, Cole came from a Texas officers' camp, and Vollmer from a Georgia camp.

Cole busted one of Dave Black's slants on the nose for a home run to the fence in the fourth, another Maroon riding home ahead of him. Score:

SPORT BENEFIT SHOWS PLANNED

Yearly sport fund shows, carried out on the same lines as the yearly actors' fund, may be held if a plan advocated by Jack Curley, New York promoter, meets with the approval of those interested in boxing, wrestling, baseball, racing, and other lines of athletic endeavor. The idea was sprung at Mount Clemens where Curley and Wladek Zbyszko, the Polish wrestler, are stopping. They are on their way here to appear for the Actors' fund of America this afternoon.

The plan is to hold sport fund shows in all the big cities of the country, all the money taken in to be applied for sick and down-and-out sport characters, funeral bills, immediate wants of widows and children, and the possible erection of buildings to house the old or incapacitated.

SMALL BASS.

OUR discussion on why certain lakes produce, or seem to produce, only bass around the pound weight has brought out some rather interesting theories.

Leading all others is the theory that these lakes have big bass, but we don't know how to catch 'em, and for proof several anglers mention lakes in which no one could get big bass until some one came along with something new in the bait line.

One brother of the angle said the new bait in his was a clam used as a pork chunk. That is, on the surface on a weedless hook; another mentions a piece of crazy quilt as the killer, and still another offers as evidence a good string of bass weighing better than two and a half pounds apiece, all caught, he says, on a big wriggling mass of angleworms as big as your fist behind a medium sized gold spinner.

Next in number of explanations come the inbreeding theory, although none of our contributors offers any explanation as to how fish can inbreed.

Then several say that the reason why we never get any big fish is that the natives catch all the good ones while they are on the spawning beds, before the season opens. Netting in connection with spawning bed fishing is offered in a number of instances.

Finally we have the theory of adverse spawning conditions, whereby several seasons pass without a good hatch, the big fish being caught in the meantime.

DE ORO GOES TO FRONT IN TITLE CUE MATCH WITH COPULOS, 50-34

Detroit, Mich., March 27.—[Special.]—Champion Alfredo De Oro outplayed Gus Copulos of Detroit, 50 to 34 in sixty-six innings, in the first block of their 150 point match for the world's three cushion title at Recreation theater tonight. His high runs were 6 and 5, Copulos getting a 4.

The veteran Cuban, in addition to outgeneralling the young Greek player, who is making his first try for the championship, displayed brilliant execution.

Copulos Leads for Time.

Copulos, who holds the Detroit championship, led, 8 to 7, at the end of the tenth inning. De Oro then counted 14 points in his next ten innings and led, 21 to 14. Copulos was unable to make any headway against the strong defense of the champion, and a lone single was his only contribution in his next ten innings.

De Oro kept going, and at the half way mark led, 29 to 15. Then he slumped and the home player, by the aid of two runs of 4, cut his opponent's lead to 7 at the end of the fiftieth inning.

De Oro Speeds Up.

It was anybody's game at this stage, but the champion counted a sextet of fine caroms, and after a miss ran five more, eventually reaching the wire with a commanding lead of sixteen points. Score:

Exhaust Echoes

By SHEPPARD BUTLER

FEARING "a frantic search for ways of producing new revenue" on the part of legislative bodies as a result of the coming of prohibition, motor truck owners' organizations throughout the country have launched a concerted campaign to head off such lawmakers as may have a weather eye on the taxation possibilities presented by the motor vehicle.

That their fears are not altogether groundless is evidenced in Massachusetts, which already has proposed to quadruple its motor truck fees; in New York, where a sharp increase is being considered, and in several other states.

"The danger is very great and very near," says a bulletin issued by the Chicago Motor Truck Owners' association. "Illinois will not be exempt. Arrangements should be made at once to meet it in the only way we know it can be met—by comprehensive, organized effort on the part of owners of motor trucks."

A "circuit" of international automotive exhibits came into being the other day at the first meeting of an International Automobile Manufacturers congress, held during the Lyons fair, in France. Paris is the first on the list with an exhibit at the Grand Palais, to open Oct. 15. London schedules a show for November, and Brussels will have its display in December. The New York and Chicago shows, to be held in January and February, 1920, complete the program as it stands thus far.

Further word from France has it that a newcomer is to appear on the American speedways this year in the person of Jules Bablot, regarded as the most spectacular of the Gallic racing drivers, but as yet an unknown quantity on American tracks. Bablot is a veteran of the Gordon Bennett races on the continent and has had experience on the Brooklands track in England. He is expected to make his American debut at Indianapolis May 31.

AT 44 HE'LL RUN 20 MILES FOR FUN

While the physical examining committee was discarding eight entries for the Olympic Sports club's twenty-mile handicap run from Kosciuszko park to Niles, Mich., tomorrow afternoon, Edward L. Dreyer, 44 years old, who has been seen in local distance races for twenty seasons, was passed, and may be dark horse for the race.

Eight athletes were accepted, among them such well known steppers as George Hankel, Logan Square A. C.; Jole Kowalski, Logan Square, and Henry Dobler, Commonwealth Edison A. A. Twelve other entrants still are under consideration for their fitness for the grind.

Since Dreyer's first distance run, twenty years ago, he has been a great rival to Sidney Hatch.

FEATURE BATTLE OF BASKET MEET TO MARK WHITES

Defeat West Side Angels in First Round of the A. A. U. Tourney.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Victory of Mark White Squares over the West Side Angels, 36 to 30, featured the first round of six games in the Central A. A. U. 135 pound basketball championship being conducted at the Second regiment armory by the Illinois A. C.

In the first half close guarding and inability of either team to work its combination play successfully resulted in a tie score of 15 each. In the second period, until within five minutes of the end, the teams alternated in the lead.

Capt. Driggett of Mark White then elected to take long shots at the basket, and caged two perfect throws from the center of the court. These shots apparently took the heart out of the Angels.

Shamrock A. C. put out Janesville, Wis., Y. M. C. A., the only visiting team, in the opening game, 28 to 24. Lineups:

SHOOTS SELF AT FAILURE TO WIN BACK LOST LOVE

Fires in Phone Booth After Plea to Stop Wife's Divorce Suit.

Joseph Ferguson, 3106 Fullerton avenue, a commission house salesman, whose wife, Gretchen, is suing him for divorce on the grounds of cruelty, made a final plea to his wife last night through her best friend and while the latter was still at the telephone he fired a shot through his heart. The shooting took place in the saloon of John Cella, 3936 North Cicero avenue.

Mrs. August Scholz 2627 Sunnyside avenue, friend of Mrs. Ferguson, was at the other end of the wire. When she heard the shot she collapsed.

Ferguson, employed as a salesman by the Gridley Maxon company, 25 South Water street, entered the telephone booth at the saloon and telephoned to Mrs. Ferguson.

Fails to Reach Wife.

Mrs. Scholz answered and told him that his wife, who is living at 1667 North Francisco avenue, had not been at work yesterday at the Dearborn Truck company, 2015 South Michigan boulevard, where Mrs. Scholz is also employed. At this announcement Ferguson drew a revolver and, dropping the telephone receiver, called out to Mrs. Scholz to listen. He then fired a shot, the bullet, according to physicians at St. Ann's hospital, passing through his heart. He fell backward out of the booth and startled customers in the saloon. Mrs. Scholz became hysterical, but recovered sufficiently to make a statement.

Cella called the police and they removed Ferguson to the hospital, where physicians said he had no chance to recover.

Letters Reveal Plan.

When Ferguson's clothing was searched the police found three letters, one addressed to his wife, a second to his mother, and the third to his sister. These are said to explain his act, which was prompted by his failure to effect a reconciliation.

Mrs. Ferguson, the wife, was informed of the shooting and arrived at the hospital in a hysterical condition.

The DAWN OF DRESS

IT IS A FAR CRY from the garment of grass and the cloak of animal skin—the raiment of primitive man and woman—to the masterpieces in dress of today.

Foliage, feathers and furs furnished the earliest clothing; then man found means to change the wool of sheep into cloth, the web of a worm into silk, the boll of a plant into cotton, and the hide of a beast into leather.

The first made-up garment likely was a simple bag, with holes for arms and neck. Centuries passed before this became the tunic—destined to be the foundation of modern dress.

The first appeal of apparel was as a means for comfort; later, the call was for adornment. Little by little, dress evolved into the opulence of Egypt's "purple and fine linen"; passed through the period of simplicity in Greece and Rome, with their tunic and toga; burst into the splendor of the Renaissance, with petticoat and bodice, doublet and hose; then, down to the modern and more somber days of trouser and gown.

Dress, with its dawn in the dim distance of the past, finds its noontide glow in the great retail store of today. Let imagination travel over all the continents, in all climes, tracing all time from the early days of savagery to the latest period of civilization; gathering all art, all science, all industry; boiling, compressing, and condensing them into a compact mass—and the sum of all is revealed in this Store!

Our coming Spring Exposition of Style puts before the public what the centuries have wrought.

SAVE MONEY! SAVE SHOES!

In a long chase for a criminal J. E. Jones, a secret service man of Chicago, wore one pair of shoes with Neolin Soles for nineteen months. This chase, covering both American continents and Australia, ended in April, 1917. The shoes were then given a mechanic at Clearing, Ill., and were worn by him another seven months.

"Until I discovered shoes with Neolin Soles, I bought new shoes about every two months," said Mr. Jones.

Twenty-six months of wear under conditions such as these is indeed extraordinary even for Neolin Soles. But Neolin Soles are made by Science to be especially durable. They are comfortable and water-proof, too. You can get them on new shoes for men, women and children, or for re-soling. Manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

SAVE MONEY!
SAVE SHOES!
In a long chase for a criminal,
J. E. Jones, a secret service man of Chicago, wore one pair of shoes with Neolin Soles for nineteen months. This chase, covering both American continents and Australia, ended in April, 1917.
The shoes were then given a mechanic at Clearing, Ill., and were worn by him another seven months.
"Until I discovered shoes with Neolin Soles, I bought new shoes about every two months," said
Mr. Jones.
Twenty-six months of wear under conditions such as these is indeed extraordinary even for Neolin Soles. But Neolin Soles are made by Science to be especially durable. They are comfortable and water-proof, too. You can get them on new shoes for men, women and children, or for resoling. Manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Ak-

foot Heels, guaranteed to outwear
4 other heels.

FARM JOBS GO BEGGING AS CITY LURES FIGHTERS

Private Agencies Unable to Supply Demand in Rural Districts.

EMPLOYERS

Employers who have jobs open which discharged soldiers or sailors can fill are requested to notify the Fighting Man's Job bureau at 120 West Adams street. This is a patriotic duty, which no employer should neglect. Do it today!
EDITORS OF THE TRIBUNE.

A canvass of loop employment agencies yesterday by a returned soldier and an ex-sailor tended to show that there are jobs for all returning service men. That is, if the former "gob" or "doughboy" is willing to take up unskilled labor or farm work.

"How you goin' to keep 'em down on the farm?" has become a real question as well as a popular ditty. There are jobs galore outside of Chicago, paying from $30 to $45 a month for farm work. Board and room are added. But the heroes in khaki and blue seem reluctant to accept this work, according to the information gathered in a variety of places. Instead they seek a "stool and ledger" in the loop at $90, or, failing in this, will go to work as day laborers in the city where there are street car gongs to take the place of reveille and no cows to milk before morning "chow."

Few Able to Qualify.

Clerks and bookkeepers are needed, at salaries ranging from $60 to $125 a month. There are many discharged soldiers and sailors seeking them, but lack of training is frequently a bar.

The sailor, just released from service, yesterday went out to look for a job. At the George Johanson agency, 127 North Dearborn street, he explained that he wanted to get acquainted with good old terra firma after weeks on the restless briny.

"Glad to see a young fellow who is ready to work," was the comment. "Now, here's a job near Glencoe that pays $100 a month. You'd have to pay your own board and room, though.

"How much will you charge if I can get that job?" asked the ex-bos'un's mate.

"Only $4. I. you don't like that one, we've got one at Lake Geneva that's a swell place, or at L... Forest. They are $40 or $50 a month, with board and room."

Pick Your Farm Job.

The next stop was the Scandinavian agency. Being a red headed Irishman didn't bar the applicant.

"We specialize in farm jobs," he was told. "There are some country jobs at $50 with board and room that might appeal to you. If you want to go to work on a farm you can just about pick the state and county you want."

The ex-gob had an idea that he would like to stay around Madison street for a while. Ever since his training days at Great Lakes he had liked Chicago. He expressed his idea.

"Never had much clerical experience? Well, you haven't much of a chance. Better get next to yourself and make hay while the sun shines this summer."

At the next agency, the ex-sailor discovered that he had mechanical ability. He wanted to be a chauffeur. That was at the Reliable agency, 25 North Dearborn street.

There was nothing doing for chauffeurs. So many men had become proficient in handling trucks and light cars while in the service that the agent "allowed as how the army and navy must have gone to war in flivvers."

Will Try to Place Him.

"But leave your application on file with us; we'll find you a real job somewhere. If you want to get out of the city maybe we can place you driving for some rich geezer at his summer home, if you can keep the autos running."

The Swedish National Employment agency at 143 South Dearborn street could use chauffeurs in north shore families. But they wanted farm hands badly.

The job hunting gob didn't have his discharge papers with him, so he didn't get very far at the Y. M. C. A. bureau at 19 South La Salle street. There he was offered a three months' membership in the "Y" and his application for work would be taken immediately. Practically every trade or profession can be placed, he was assured.

But he didn't have his "papers." The pea coat over "civies" was no pass.

Many "Blister Shy."

The Knights of Columbus, Chicago chapter, at 165 West Madison street, offered to place 150 day laborers in city jobs without charge. "But the returning soldier or sailor seems "blister shy," said an attaché. Secretary Ed McMahon and Field Secretary Joe Coffey are in charge here.

On Canal street are several employment agencies that handle farm and day labor. Wondering how the chances were for a job the returned soldier wandered over to talk it over with the men who knew. Turning in at 30 South Canal, he sought out the man in charge of the Empire Labor agency and asked what the chances were to go to work right away.

"Farm work? Know how to milk cows and drive horses and that sort of thing that has to be done on a farm?" he asked. The soldier said he knew. Then the agency man said that he had several good jobs on farms close to the city and could give a person any kind he wished.

Service Free to Ex-Fighters.

When questioned as to the fee he would charge if the job was taken, he said that it would cost $2. He also said the service was free to returned soldiers and sailors, and that fact was advertised by a large sign displayed in a conspicuous place in the office.

Calling on the La Salle Employment agency at 166 North La Salle street, an application was made for a mechanical job.

"I'm something of a mechanic, but nothing expert," said the soldier. "I might make good as an assistant or helper."

Then, the manager, Mr. Busch, said that a florist on the south side wanted a man who knew something about pipes and boilers and furnaces. He said the mechanical part might not take all the time and the man who took the job would have to help some with the flowers and plants. The job paid $20 a week.

"It Beats Loafing."

That didn't seem like a great deal of money for a man to live on, but according to Mr. Busch, "it beats loafing."

Something was said about farming, and the soldier was offered the chance of going out toward Elgin, Ill., on a farm that belonged to an official of the Standard Oil company. He would be paid $45 a month and room and board would be furnished him.

Stopping in at the Morrell Employment agency at 160 West Randolph street, the soldier asked Mr. Craycroft if he had some sort of a clerical job. Mr. Craycroft had.

Grocery Job Found.

At the Washington Employment agency, located at 175 West Washington street, a job as a grocery clerk who could also drive a car was secured and offered the soldier over the telephone in a couple of hours.

At the Consolidated Agency at 110 South Dearborn street it was said there was not much demand for bookkeepers. Work in the technical line, such as driving a truck or tractor, was reported available.

Wherever the soldier went it was much the same. Where the agency handled farm labor at all they had something to offer him.

Many Charge Soldiers.

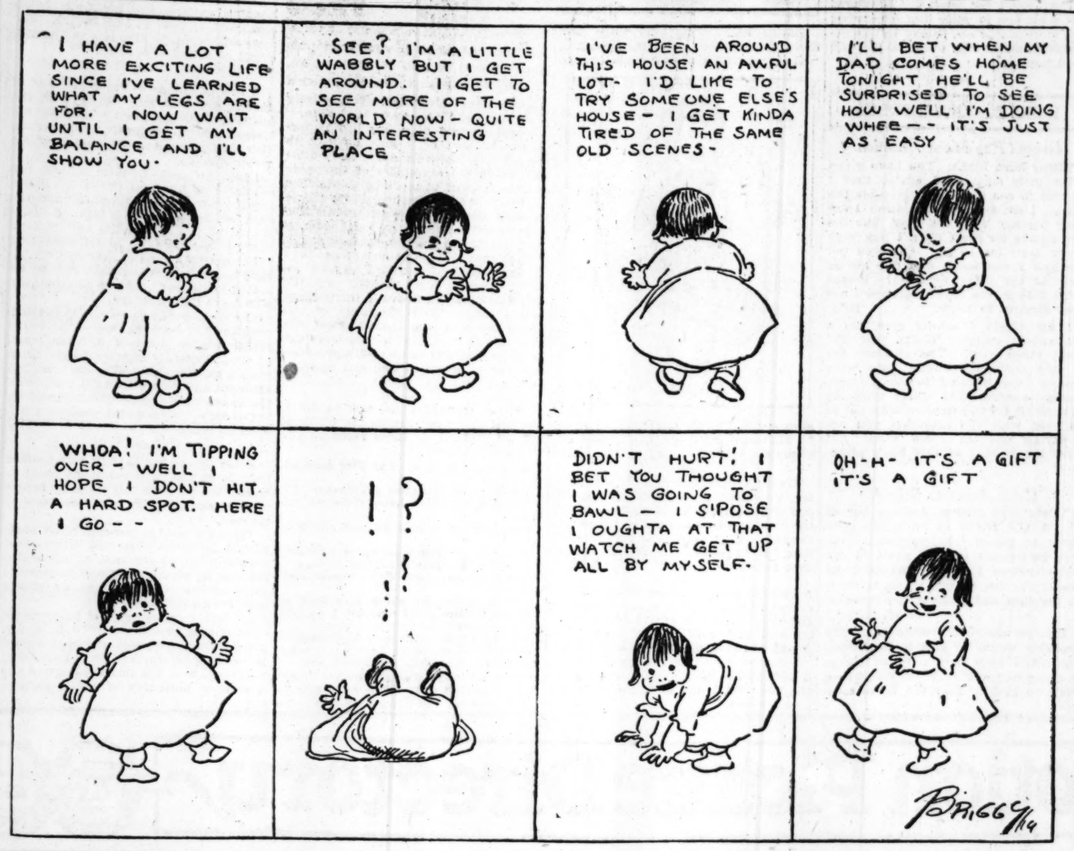
With the exception of some of the Canal street agencies, where out of town jobs on farms and in shops are waiting, loop offices are charging the returning fighting men the same rates as other civilians.

H. H. Harrison, secretary of the Illinois Association of Technical, Educational and Commercial Employment Agencies, defended this.

He said:

"When the soldier or sailor comes back he wants a job and a suit of civilian clothes. He goes to a clothing store and pays cash for the clothes. Then he looks for a job. If he comes to us we charge him for it. Why not? We fit him to a job as well as the clothier fits him to a suit of clothes. If the clothes fit he pays for them. He pays for the job, but not until he finds it 'fits,' too."

WONDER WHAT A YEAR-OLD BABY THINKS ABOUT



HE COULDN'T GIVE SERVICE TO NATION GIVES HERO A JOB

PRIVATE CORAL RITCHIE came back from Flanders fields wearing three wound stripes. Two fingers on his left hand were missing.

Louis F. Oswald, nearly 18, held a good job with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad in the general Chicago offices. Looking for a job, Private Ritchie happened to talk to the office manager.

"All filled up here," he was told. "Sorry, old man, but until some one quits, dies, or gets fired there's no chance. I'll place you at the top of the waiting list, however, and you can call again."

Young Oswald heard. He had been too young to go. He remembered Ritchie's three wound stripes. That was last week. Saturday night he quit his job.

Yesterday he enlisted in the United States navy. The recruiting officer sent him to Mary Belle Spencer, public guardian, to have him registered, since he was under age. Mrs. Spencer became Oswald's guardian.

And yesterday Private Ritchie, three wound stripes, went to work in Oswald's job.

"I've no dependents," explained Oswald. "Ritchie said he was having trouble getting a job, so I gave him mine. I wanted to join the navy when the war started, but I was too young.

"I think I'll like the navy."

$1,000,000 THEATER TO BE BUILT; "BIGGEST LOOP LEASE" MADE

A $3,000,000 BUILDING lease—said to be the largest ever made in Chicago—was closed yesterday when the Orpheum Theater company, owned and operated by Jones, Linick & Schaefer, took over the Frederick Ayer building, on the southwest corner of State and Monroe streets, for a fifteen year period, beginning May 1, 1922. Rental, taxes, and insurance will aggregate that sum for the period, it is said.

Construction on the site of a $1,000,000 office and theater building, with an auditorium with a seating capacity of 3,500, is planned by the lessees. The Orpheum theater occupies part of the present building—a five story and basement structure, with a frontage of 120 feet on State and on Monroe street.

The adjoining lot is owned by the theatrical firm, giving a total frontage of 142 feet on State street, on what is regarded as one of the choicest sites in the loop.

The Ledyard estate, which owns the Ayer building, was represented by John Dorr Bradley of Aldis & Co. and Allen G. Mills. The lessees were represented by E. F. Keebler & Co. and Andrew J. Ryan of Ryan, Condon & Livingston.

Jones, Linick & Schaefer also own and operate the Rialto, McVicker's, Randolph, and Bijou theaters.

Burglars Steal $800 Worth of Liberty Bonds from Girl

While Miss J. E. Black, 1303 East Sixtieth street, was away from home yesterday burglars stole eight Liberty bonds worth $800 from her bedroom.

ALTERNATING WIFE CITED IN HUSBAND'S TALE

Mrs. Bay Schaufer had a penchant for changing husbands, according to her first husband, Henry Schaufer, 3529 Lake Park avenue, who was haled into the Court of Domestic Relations yesterday on a charge of nonsupport of his two children.

The matrimonial career of Mrs. Schaufer was a series of lightning changes, according to Schaufer. First she married Schaufer in Kenosha, Wis., six years ago, he said. They had two children. A year ago Mrs. Schaufer secured a divorce. She married Charles Kettle. Thirty days later, she left Kettle, secured a divorce and remarried her first husband.

A few day after the second wedding to Schaufer, he says, he came home and found her missing. The case was continued.

GEN. WOOD HEADS "JUSTICE BUREAU" FOR EX-FIGHTERS

Clearing House for Job Seekers to Open Today.

Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood assumed active command of Chicago's newly organized "bureau of justice" for returning soldiers, sailors, and marines yesterday when he was elected chairman of its headquarters committee.

Mrs. Edwin P. Johnson, president of the Woman's club, represents Chicago women; George J. Thompson, labor; H. H. Merrick, president of the Association of Commerce, Chicago employers, and Prof. Graham Taylor all social agencies, in the new job council.

Organization of the central clearing house, 120 West Adams street, where former fighters will find jobs, advice, and any other aid they may require, was completed.

Job Bureau Included.

The service approved by the committee includes that of Chicago job bureau, which has been operating at 58 West Washington street. Medical attention will be given by army surgeons and physicians, detailed to the headquarters. Army officers will aid all discharged soldiers in securing their $60 bonus and in straightening up tangles in war risk insurance. A civilian clothing section will serve discharged men who need it.

"I believe this headquarters will solve the problem of properly returning discharged men to civilian life," said Gen. Wood.

"Our fighting men will find themselves cared for in a dignified and effective manner when they apply, and they should come here to meet and greet their friends if for no other reason. Everything needed will be supplied here."

Bureau Open Today.

The "bureau of justice" will open all departments today.

The second floor will be given over to the job bureau. In adjacent offices representatives of various welfare agencies will be ready to serve the men.

The K. of C., Jewish Welfare bureau, and the Fort Sheridan association will move into the building. A lounging room for jobseekers has been fitted up by the Woman's club. "Emergency" lunches will be served, and beds will be maintained for men who go "broke" in the city.

POLICE TO HONOR CAPT. GORMAN AT FUNERAL TODAY

Practically every commanding officer of the police department, headed by Chief Garrity, will attend the funeral this morning of Capt. Henry E. Gorman, late commander of the Shakespeare avenue district, who died Tuesday, after a brief attack of pneumonia. The Shakespeare avenue Municipal court branch, presided over by Judge Samuel H. Trude, will be closed and all cases assigned there will be heard in the Racine avenue court after the funeral hours.

The funeral cortege, headed by eight mounted policemen and attended by seventy-two patrolmen as the guard of honor, will leave the Gorman residence, 2731 West Thirty-sixth street, at 9:30 a. m. for St. Agnes' Roman Catholic church, Thirty-ninth street and Washtenaw avenue, where solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated by the Rev. Father Brady.

ARREST OF BRIDE MARS HONEYMOON BEGUN IN FLORIDA

A honeymoon that began in Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 18, ended in Chicago last night, when detectives conducted Mrs. George Frederick Bainbridge to the Hudson avenue detention home. She and her husband were occupying an apartment at Fremont street and Fullerton avenue.

Four thousand dollars in bonds of the Louisville and Nashville railroad and a set of silver toilet articles valued at $500 are involved. They were the property of a Mrs. C. S. Simmops, guest at a hotel in Birmingham, Ala.

Here is the police version:

"Mrs. Simmons vacated her room and the Bainbirdges occupied it. Mrs. Simmons left in the room a trunk, containing the bonds and the toilet articles. The trunk was opened and the contents taken."

LOVE IN MISSION CAUSES ARREST OF HOLY ROLLER

Followed the Woman, Not the Light, Is the Charge.

While his voice was raised in song last night at a "Holy Roller" mission meeting in Congress street, between State street and Wabash avenue, George Ischida was tapped on the shoulder by a policeman and told to step outside. He remained to finish the hymn and then, picking up his hat off a chair, he walked to the door.

The policeman, William Murphy of the South Clark street station, had a warrant for Ischida's arrest on a charge of disorderly conduct. It is alleged he annoyed Mrs. C. E. Britton of 1518 South Wabash avenue who, Ischida told the police, jilted him three months ago to marry Britton. Mr. and Mrs. Britton were at the mission meeting and pointed out Ischida to the policeman.

Woman Mission Worker.

Mrs. Britton is a well known mission worker. She formerly was Miss Elizabeth Reed of 2700 Florence avenue. She made the acquaintance of Ischida at the Pacific Garden mission last September. She sayas she took the same interest in him that she would in any other person that she might meet under similar circumstances.

It is the second time Ischida has been arrested on the same charge. The first time he was discharged.

Can't Explain Arrest.

"I don't know why they keep swearing out warrants for me," Ischida told Lieut. Madden. "I was at the mission tonight when the policeman came in and pinched me.

"I have not annoyed Mrs. Britton in any way whatever. When I first met her—it was Sept. 9 of last year—I was sitting in a rear seat at the Pacific Garden mission. Mrs. Britton, who was then Miss Reed, came up to me and laid her hand on my shoulder. She asked me if I was seeking salvation. I told her I was, and she said 'God be praised.'

"She sat down alongside me and we got real chummy.

"I was foolish enough to think she was going to marry me."

EVANSTON OFFERED BUILDING PANACEA 4,000 YEARS OLD

THERE has been spirited controversy in Evanston of late concerning revision of the building regulations. However, a solution was found yesterday by Dr. Frederick Carl Eiselen, head of the department of Old Testament interpretation of the Garrett Biblican institute.

Dr. Eiselen's architectural panacea is nothing more or less than an excerpt from the law code of the somewhat late King Hammurabi of Babylon. Hammurabi reigned in 2,000 B. C., before kings went out of style, the code therefore being 4,000 years old.

It reads:

"No. 228—If a builder build a house for a man and complete it (that man) shall give him two shekels of silver per SAR of house as his wage.

"No. 229—If a builder build a house for a man and do not make its construction firm, and the house which he has built collapse and cause the death of the owner of the house, that builder shall be put to death.

"No. 230—If it cause the death of a son of the owner of the house, they shall put to death a son of that builder.

"No. 231—If it cause the death of a slave of the owner of the house, he shall give to the owner of the house a slave of equal value:

"No. 232—If it destroy property, he shall restore whatever it destroyed, and because he did not make the house which he built firm and it collapsed, he shall rebuild the house which collapsed from his own property—i. e., at his own expense.

"No. 233—If a builder build a house for a man and do not make its construction meet the requirements and a wall fall in, that builder shall strengthen that wall at his own expense."

IDENTIFY WOMEN SLAIN IN AUTO OF PRESTON ARTHUR

Husbands Had Gone Away in Search of Work.

San Francisco, Cal., March 27.—[Special.]—Mrs. Paul V. Smith and Mrs. J. E. Stockton, young wives of chemists, who left Tuesday to work in Utah, were drowned early this morning when the automobile in which they were riding with Joseph Preston Arthur, a wealthy business man of Waukegan, Ill., plunged over an embankment into the Oakland estuary.

The women were identified late this afternoon by Mrs. S. A. Abrams, manager of an apartment house in Hayward, near Oakland. She said the young women came to her house a year ago.

Arthur, president and general manager of the Cyclone Fence company of North Chicago, lies at an emergency hospital in Oakland with a fractured skull. It is said he has a wife and adopted son in Waukegan.

"I did not know the women," he said, during an interval of consciousness. "They waved to me as I was passing a café in Twelfth street at 10:30 o'clock last night and I picked them up. We drove to a café in Emeryville and had a few drinks."

Rescued by Firemen.

Policemen said the automobile was traveling at the rate of fifty miles an hour when it plunged over the embankment. It turned a loop and landed upside down in five feet of water, pinning the two women and Arthur beneath it.

Fire trucks righted the machine and firemen took from the water the lifeless bodies of the two young women.

Arthur arrived in Oakland a few days ago, bringing with him his automobile. With a business associate he returned last night after an automobile trip to San José.

Mrs. Stockton was 30 years old. Mrs. Smith was four years younger.

Waukegan's Business Leader.

Waukegan, Ill., March 27.—[Special.]—J. Preston Arthur of Waukegan, injured in the automobile accident in Oakland, Cal., in which two women were drowned, is president and general manager of the Cyclone Fence company of North Chicago and resides at 327 Cory avenue, Waukegan. Forty-three years old, he is rated as a millionaire and is counted as Waukegan's leading business man.

LORIMER LIKELY TO BE 'WORTH A MILLION' AGAIN

Court Order Seen as Aid in Ex-Senator's Promise to 'Come Back.'

William Lorimer, former congressman and United States senator, is again "worth a million," if bonds restored to him by court order yesterday prove to be of real value and unless legal obstacles block the way. This situation results from a decision handed down by Federal Judge George W. English in the United States District court at Danville yesterday in the case involving the claim of the firm of Lorimer & Gallagher, contractors, against the Southern Traction company, now in receivers' hands.

By the same decree—which friends of Lorimer regard as a big stride in his promise to "come back financially"—the La Salle Street bank receiver loses more than $1,200,000 he had carried as "book assets."

By the court's decree yesterday, Lorimer & Gallagher are not only put in the position of holding a claim of nearly $900,000 against the Southern Traction company but are held to be creditors of the La Salle Street bank, which must surrender to them the $1,041,000 of traction bonds it holds, as well as $159,000 of notes.

Case Brought Five Years Ago.

The judgment was entered in the case originally brought about five years ago by Jared Y. Sanders against the traction company on a note for $100,000 which had been turned over to him by C. B. Munday, vice president of the La Salle Trust and Savings bank, who was sentenced to five years' imprisonment for wrecking the Lorimer-Munday chain of banks and is now at liberty pending hearing of his appeal.

Afterwards the Lorimer & Gallagher company, contractors and constructors of the traction property, filed an intervening petition, the Union Trust and Savings bank, trustee of the trust deed given to secure the bond issue, filing a cross bill to establish title and seeking to sell the property at foreclosure.

In the Judge's Decision.

In the decision handed down yesterday Judge English held:

That under the railroad lien act Lorimer & Gallagher have a prior lien on the traction line's property over the trust deed given to secure the bond issue.

That the lien they hold against all the property of the traction company is $796,926, with interest at 5 per cent, or a total of $848,394.

That not only is Lorimer & Gallagher not indebted to the receiver of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank "in any amount of moneys drawn from said bank and used in the construction of the Southern Traction company," but that the bank is indebted to them in an accounting on Southern Traction company affairs in the amount of $981.

It is the order of the court that "the receiver of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank forthwith surrender and deliver to the Lorimer & Gallagher company certain notes for $159,000," and "all of said 1,041 bonds (par value $1,041,000) which he has claimed to hold as collateral security for debts claimed to be due."

Merely for Safekeeping.

By his decision Judge English held that the $1,041,000 traction bonds had been merely placed in the bank for safekeeping, holding that the "book entries" made in the bank's records showing them to have been used as collateral for money taken from the vaults by Munday, were "unauthorized." He held that Lorimer and Gallagher did not owe the institution nearly $1,000,000, which had been charged against it. The $159,000 of notes ordered returned are what is known as the "Pat Walsh" notes, and have been a matter of controversy ever since William C. Niblack, receiver for the bank, seized them.

The $1,041,000 of bonds ordered returned are part of an issue of $1,500,000 which Lorimer and Gallagher took at the time they constructed the road. They were to have been placed in England, a dicker having been made whereby they were to be taken by the Ethelburga syndicate, but upon Lorimer's arrival there to close the deal, that concern refused to proceed. He made strenuous efforts to dispose of them afterward in this country, but without success, and afterward placed them in the La Salle bank, of which he was head.

"Likely to Get Road."

Francis M. Lowes and Nathaniel Hawkins appeared for Lorimer and Gallagher in the federal court hearing.

While the "book assets" of the receiver of the La Salle Trust and Savings bank are materially reduced by the court's decision, the assets upon which creditors may expect to realize, it is said, are not materially affected. Inasmuch as the traction company is in the hands of receivers and its bond issue in default, the securities are held to be of small present value.

Edward Goldbeck Sued for Physician's Bill

A suit was begun in the small claims division of the Municipal court yesterday by Attorney Leon A. Berezniak against Edward Goldbeck, writer and lecturer and husband of Lina Abarbanell, Viennese light opera star, asking $50 for "professional services rendered" the Goldbeck family by Dr. A. H. Waterman, house physician at the Hotel Sherman.

THE CAST:

Richard Bentham .....Robert Frazier

By Mae Tinée.

It's a downright shame to waste Florence Reed and Alec B. Francis and a lot of good props on a mess of twaddle like "Her Code of Honor"! It's pictures like this that make the casual film observer shrug and remark that the movies are no better than they were six years ago. It makes the professional observer incline to agree with them.

I should go mad did I feel it necessary to describe the plot in detail to you, for I would have to start way over in Paris in 1895, where the beautiful artist dies for the love of the man she first thinks is her husband and then thinks is not, dies a long and lingering death with her, etc. I shan't do it. Most of the story has to do with the daughter of the artist, anyway—a part also taken by Miss Reed.

She is adopted and brought over by a male artist who had loved the mother in vain, and who conveniently falls heir to a fortune so that the child of his adored may never know the necessity of crying "Only one grain of corn, only one grain of corn." The girl believes this man is her father and loves him accordingly.

She becomes engaged to a handsome chap—which is where things begin to get awfully goo-ed up. The wheels are sticking badly and it looks as though the little old machine is going to explode with a murder and suicide—for doesn't everything point toward the conclusion that the lover is—a brother?

However, a chance word rights everything. Laughing insanely in his relief that he is not a member of the immediate family—already yet—the lover slings his little pistol aside, summons the father who is not a father and chirrups:

"We shall be married tomorrow."

Miss Reed, who seems sometimes blonde and sometimes brunette, is lovely to look upon. She goes about her duties in this picture in a cogitative and puzzled fashion for which no one could blame her. She seems to be eternally asking herself "What is it?"

Mr. Francis, too, appears a bit at a loss. You can quite fancy him industriously inquiring between acts of the assembled cast if they cannot remember how he got there and when. William Desmond, built after the order of the regular picture heroes, I suspect does as well with his weird role as could anybody.

And how the thing does drag. HOW it does drag!

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

L. M. A.: HOT WATER DOES NOT cause wrinkles. It should be used with a good pure white soap, one free from strong alkali and perfume, to remove dirt from the face. The pimply condition of your shoulders may be caused from a faulty diet. Eat less pastries and drink more water. The daily bath in which a couple of handfuls of salt have been sprinkled and an hour's exercise in the open air will greatly help to purify the blood. After the bath rub vigorously with a Turkish towel. Guard against constipation.

ALINE: THERE IS NO SPECIAL weight for a girl of 13. She is still at the growing age, and her weight and height will vary with her growth. You might try lemon juice instead of the formula containing glycerin, as some skins cannot stand this ingredient.

REAL LOVE STORIES

A Woman Hater.

An army officer, good looking, loved by his men, and a woman hater, was stationed in the Philippine islands. He was habitually left out of the little parties for swimming, riding, and dancing, which enliven the post whenever an American girl was there, because he was known to prefer books and a horse and a dog. He maintained that there was only one marriage in 10,000 where there was honest love on both sides, and that the danger of entangling alliances where less than the best was given and taken was too great to make "society" worth his while.

One evening he was called upon in an emergency to take the place of a brother officer in a moonlight riding party, up among the hills. He found himself paired off with a young woman who rode beautifully, and who knew how to keep silence. Before an hour had passed he knew that, for him, the one chance in 10,000 had come. Within two hours he pledged her his love. She laughed at him.

"You are like all the rest out here! You haven't seen a white girl for months. Come back to the states and tell me all that when there's no moon." With that she touched up her horse and joined the rest of the party. Nor could he get a word alone with her during the rest of the ride.

She sailed the next morning for Manila, and thence back to America. He brought down the ridicule of the post upon himself when he made public his desire to learn her address, but he kept at it until he found out, and then wrote to her. His letters were returned by the postoffice. She remained an unsubstantial dream.

In the fall of 1917 this officer was ordered from his station—then in America—to France. The first night out of port on the transport he was leaning over the rail looking at the moon and the sea when he heard a voice behind him which set every nerve thrilling. He turned and saw two girls passing by. One said good night and went below. The other paused some distance away and looked at the moon. He joined her.

"Do you remember," he said, "what I told you four years ago, by moonlight, when we were riding together over the hills?"

They won't tell what she answered and what else he said. But, of course, this story would not belong in this department unless they were married and lived happily ever after. F. F.

Do you know a real love story—one that is stranger than fiction? It is the idea that is wanted. No attention will be paid to literary style. "The Tribune" will pay $5 for every story published. No manuscripts returned. Address Doris Blake, "The Tribune," Chicago.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

Doesn't Pay Much Attention.

"Dear Miss Blake: You have given other girls such good advice that I wanted to see if you can give me the same. I am a girl of 16 years. I am very popular with the boys, but the one I care for most doesn't pay very much attention to me. Can you tell me how I can make him like me as well as the other boys do? Please print this in the paper, because I am very anxious to know. B."

I am afraid I cannot give you a guaranteed recipe. You're just like most other girls. The chances are if this particular young man were among your devoted followers there would be some other whose attention you would try to attract. Why not be satisfied with the attention you are receiving and let some other girl have the benefit of this boy's attention?

Gone Away to School.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am a boy of 18. A girl friend of mine has gone away to school. I intended to tell her, before she left, to write to me, but somehow I didn't. Would it be proper for me, do you think, to write to her first and without her consent? "W. E. S."

Yes, go ahead and write her. She probably would be glad to hear from you. You may have a lot of things in common, and if she's away at school, she'd be glad to hear the home town news.

Bright Sayings of the Children

"The Tribune" will pay $1 in thrift stamps for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Please write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Boo, "Tribune," Chicago.

Bobbie was crying loud when suddenly he stopped. His mother said: "Now, isn't that a nice little boy to stop crying?" He answered at once, "I ain't stopped; I got tired," and immediately started to cry again. B.

My little niece, who lives in the country, was visiting us the other day. On one of her former visits we took her to the library, so upon passing there this time we asked her if she remembered that building, and she replied: "Yes; that is the bookcase." L. B.

Carolyn was delighted when she received an invitation to spend a week in the country with a friend of the family and expressed herself to a little friend she was playing with like this: "Yes, they have pigs and chickens and a cow and a little calf. I can't milk the cow, but I can milk the calf—it's just my size." B. C.

The Successful Home Garden

BY J. F. H. HEIDE.

No. 16.

FIRST USE OF HOT BED.

It is high time now to start the seedling plants that are to be transplanted to the open garden when the condition of the soil and weather permit. It is assumed that the gardener has purchased his seeds (a list of varieties and quantities having been published March 25 and 26, articles No. 12 and 13) and has either a hot bed or a window box (described respectively March 16 and 17) all ready for action.

The possessor of a hot bed is fortunate as part of it may be used to mature vegetables for extra early table use, while the remainder of the same sash is devoted to seedling plants. The southern or lower portion of the frame is used for the seedlings, while the upper portion, with more head room, is used for those left for maturing.

The prepared seed bed is now warmed through by the fermented manure below. Press it down lightly with the flat side of a board about thirty-three inches long. With the edge of the board the rows are then marked, the first two and one-half inches from the lower or southern end board, and eleven more at intervals of two and one-half inches.

On the marked lines, sow in drills, one-half inch deep, across the width of the hot bed, about three seeds to the inch, as follows:

Rows 1 and 2, 1 oz. May King head lettuce.
Row 3, ¼ oz. Snowball cauliflower.
Row 4, ¼ oz. Early Jersey Wakefield cabbage.
Row 5, ¼ oz. Danish Ballhead midseason cabbage.
Row 6, ¼ oz. Iron Head Savoy cabbage.
Row 7, ¼ oz., Dark Erfurt red cabbage.
Row 8, ¼ oz. Early White Vienna kohlrabi.
Row 9, 1 package either June Pink or Earliana tomatoes, half row, and 1 package Stone Improved tomatoes, half row.
Row 10, 1-3 oz. Chinese Giant peppers.
Row 11, 1-3 oz. Black Beauty eggplant.
Row 12, 1-3 oz. Improved Dwarf okra.

This provides plants for 100 lineal feet of garden row. If more of any or all is desired, the rows may safely be made only two inches apart, to gain space, or the entire frame may be used to propagate seedlings.

The remaining space, if not needed for seedling plants to be transplanted should be sown to three rows each of French Horn early carrots, Scarlet Turnip, White Tip Radishes, and May King head lettuce. As these are not transplanted, the lettuce, though of a heading variety, will not form heads and must be used as leaf lettuce. The rows will be made four inches apart to admit of full development.

A row of onions to reach 100 feet of garden row also may be sown in the hot bed, for subsequent transplanting, instead of the expensive onion sets. This will produce large onions of superior quality.

Long, pointed, wooden tablets are available at the seed stores for marking the name of each variety and the date of its planting. One of these should be inserted at the end of each row for identification at transplanting time; or empty seed packages, with variety name and illustration, can be inserted in the split tops of small sticks, which are then inserted.

The seeds gently pressed into the drill with the flat marking board, the soil is replaced over them or additional soil of similar quality is spread over them with a garden sieve. The sash is then replaced and kept closed till the young plants are visible above ground in seven to ten days. Subsequent treatment will then be taken up.

From five to ten days in germination may be gained by soaking the seeds in warm water over night, just before sowing, each variety in a receptacle of its own.

Twenty-five to 50 per cent more seeds should be sown than the number of plants required for use, to allow for failures in germination and to provide some excess that only sturdy plants may be transplanted.

All left-over seed should be properly labeled and carefully stored in a dry place for possible later use, or it should be devoted to starting some promising neighbor, who has not yet learned the absorbing pleasures of home gardening.

Tribune Cook Book

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Need of Public Markets.

I would like to harp on our need of public markets for every day in the year. I have seen successful public markets in at least forty cities of the world. I believe in them heart and soul.

Public market attempts in Chicago have been failures. Why? I have watched the opening of two, and from the start saw every element of failure present. The food put up for sale was the poorest stuff, as a collection, I have ever seen in the poorest stores in the world, and the managers showed that they knew nothing about food, and little or nothing about business. They would have failed at anything, for, besides having neither of these two important things—knowledge of food and a knowledge of business—they had no gumption.

Of course, a man may be a good man and know nothing of food nor business, and yet go into the food business and not make a complete failure because he has what used to be roughly characterized as "get up and get."

So positive is my belief in public markets and our great need of them that I would start one myself if I had the money and could get competent people to coöperate in the work—aye, there's the rub. The poor and the people with automobiles would be my patrons, and good ones, too. Not everybody could patronize such a place, but the most intelligent buyers would.

I stand at all sorts of places and watch people buy food. I know their psychology, from having given the matter years of study. I know how pretty, how social, how pleasant is every way public markets can be. But I also know that when we attempt anything hereabouts a class of dealers with the ugliest of social qualities, who hold food for a price while it wilts or deteriorates or spoils, are the first on the spot. I know considerable about their chicaneries.

We have got soon or late to speak plainly about these things. Why not now? The honest merchant is handicapped immeasurably by such conditions and we, the consumers, pay the price.

NOTES OF SCREENDOM

Marguerite Clark was at Pass Christian, Miss., the other day filming "Come Out of the Kitchen" with one of the fine old colonial homes of the vicinity for a background. According to a correspondent, "the people of the town were in a state of rapt ecstacy. You'd have thought that the sky had opened and the Holy Ghost himself descended upon them. But that's all over and this week the place has lapsed into its normal state of coma."

A Friend in Need

Sally Joy Brown

I want to be the medium through which the friend in deed and the friend in need may be brought together. It may be you have some discarded article which has not outgrown its usefulness that will make some less fortunate one happy, and you would gladly give it if you knew how to go about it. Write to me and I shall be only too happy to be of service to you. Please write on one side of the paper.

When information is wanted by mail a stamped, addressed envelope should accompany the request. Please do not send parcels to "The Tribune," but write for the address of the applicant and send direct.

For Some Invalid.

"I have some pictures to make a large scrap book which I would like to give to some one shut in—I would take them to her if it is not too far away. "S. E. P."

Mrs. P., lives in Austin; any shut-in wishing to take advantage of her kind offer, may have her address.

Easter in 1856.

Society Abandons Dull Chicago for the Gay Resorts

Chicago, which is practically deserted by smart society these Lenten days, is dull, with only now and then a bit of amusement such as Mrs. Arthur Ryerson's party tonight; but the various resorts to which the travelers have gone are the scenes of much gayety.

White Sulphur Springs is particularly attractive at this season of the year and there are numerous people from Chicago there. Mrs. Leander J. McCormick, formerly Alice Cudahy, is one of the most popular members of the young set there, and has taken part in all the sports since she went there with her husband several weeks ago. Capt. McCormick returned from overseas recently.

Mrs. Henry Dibblee, who has been in Palm Beach since November with her daughters, Mrs. John C. King and Mrs. Albert A. Sprague II., is also one of the Chicago colony at the springs. Among other Chicagoans there are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stiger and Miss Marion Stiger of Oak Park, Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Chapin and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Rawson, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Magnus.

Mr. and Mrs. Url B. Grannis of Lake Forest will give a dinner-dance tomorrow night at Onwentsia for Mrs. Grannis' brother, Capt. William B. Given Jr., and his wife, who are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Grannis. Capt. Given, whose home is in New York City, recently returned from seventeen months' service overseas.

Mrs. George Halleck Taylor, Mrs. Augustus K. Maxwell, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Miss Alice Voight, Mrs. William P. Martin, and Mrs. Richard S. Austin will be in charge of a picture auction to be held tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock at the Rummage shop, 27 East Ohio street, the proceeds to go to the Children's Memorial hospital. Pictures ranging in price from the exceedingly modest sum of 5 cents to $150 will be auctioned. Among them are a large oil painting by Triebel, a wash drawing by Frederic Remington, an oil painting, "The Mojave Desert," by Walter Ufer, three etchings by Wallace de Wolf, a painting by E. A. Aldrich, an etching by Stephen Parrish, and various other paintings, water colors, and dry point etchings.

Tonight both the members of the debutante set and those of the young married crowd will have a final dancing fling before Easter, for most of the young girls and men will be present at the Cinderella "hop" in the Surf hotel, and others will dine and dance at the costume dinner-dance that Mrs. Arthur Ryerson is giving at her residence, 2700 Lake View avenue, for her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Washington Patterson Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gerrish Beale of 40 East Burton place, who are in White Sulphur Springs en route from Florida, will return home about May 15.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick Blair have returned from Santa Barbara and are with Mrs. Blair's mother, Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen of 1430 Astor street.

Mrs. Ogden T. McClurg of 999 Lake Shore drive is in California for a spring visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris Brewer will move from 1345 Astor street to 1111 Ritchie place May 1. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Thomasson Jr. of 4921 North Sawyer avenue, have bought the house on Astor street which formerly belonged to Mrs. Thomasson's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Gardiner, who now live at 1222 North State parkway.

Dr. Philip Schuyler Doane, who has been in government service in Philadelphia, has returned to Chicago and is at the Virginia hotel. He will be there until June 1, when his wife and family will join him and they will take possession of their home at 1427 North State parkway.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Morris Jr. are spending several weeks at Coronado Beach.

Mrs. William P. Moffet spent last week-end at Camp Grant with her son, Ernest, who has just returned from France. He expects to be mustered out of the service next week. Mrs. Moffet and family are living in Highland Park until school closes. They will then join Col. Moffet, who is with the Seventh cavalry at El Paso, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. William James and children of Cambridge, who have been visiting Mrs. James' father, John Sumner Runnells of 1525 North State parkway, have gone to California for a six weeks' visit. Mrs. Robert Jenks, another daughter of Mr. James, who also has been visiting him, has returned to her home in New York City. Mrs. Albert A. Jackson of Philadelphia, a third daughter, is still with her father.

Mlle. Lucie Pierrard of the French Red Cross will speak on "The Children of France" at the free French lecture to be given tomorrow at 12:15 o'clock in Fullerton hall under the auspices of the Alliance Francaise. At 1:30 o'clock the members of the executive committee of the alliance will give a luncheon for Mlle. Pierrard at the Woman's Athletic club.

The Yale Club of Chicago will give its fifty-third annual dinner tonight in the crystal ballroom of the Blackstone hotel. The predominating feature of the affair will be a memorial to the Yale men of Chicago who have been killed in the war. Dean Thomas Swan of the Yale Law school has come on from New Haven for the dinner and will speak on "The Recent Changes in the University." Capt. Ray C. Bridgman, a Yale ace, will tell of his experiences. A play and a motion picture in which the members are the actors will complete the evening. John V. Farwell will preside.

Daniel Connell will leave Wednesday for a summer in Europe. After Sept. 1 he will be at his home in London, returning to Chicago in January.

Mlle. Pierrard will speak at a meeting and reception of Le Cercle Francais next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Fortnightly rooms, Fine Arts building. Preceding the program there will be a members' meeting at 1:30 o'clock, at which Mme. Allaud De Jouey will read French fables and Mme. Edward Sumerfield will read a paper on "Government Control of Public Utilities."

PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS AT BLACKSTONE SALE

Three of Many Who Yesterday Visited the Booth Where a Sale of Household Utilities Was Conducted, Under the Auspices of the School of Domestic Arts and Sciences.

The Blackstone hotel was the mecca yesterday for women of Chicago, the event being a sale of household utilities under the auspices of the School of Domestic Arts and Sciences, with Mrs. John L. Shortall in charge of the affair.

The tables were loaded with all sorts of household necessities ranging from doilies and aprons to crazy quilts and recipes for cooking.

In charge of the tables were:

Mrs. Fred W. Eing.	Miss Alice Voight.
Mrs. George H. Davidson.	Miss Katherine Tilt, Mrs. Alan C. Dixon.
Miss Sophie Morris.	Mrs. Henry T. Williams.
Mrs. Bertram J. Cahn.
Mrs. Herbert F. Perkins.	Mrs. Frank Andrews, Mrs. William Senn.
Mrs. John Gould.	Mrs. G. P. Braun.
Mrs. Alfred H. Granger.	Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Mrs. C. B. Borland.
Mrs. Stanley Midgely.	Mrs. Hugh J. McBirney.
Mrs. Frank D. Montgomery.	Mrs. U. B. Grannis.

A SPARKLING "POP"

The perfect Pop program, I think, was Mr. Stock's of last night, when the eighth of the series was played, in the season's busiest week, with no less brilliancy and style than the Chicago Symphony might be expected to put into a gala. Tuneful things from the Friday-Saturday répertoire of receding years were revived—the overture to "William Tell," for one, and Johann Strauss' "Wine, Women, and Song," which is the best of his waltzes as you listen to it, just as, in like circumstances, "The Blue Danube" is the best, or "From the Vienna Woods," or any of the uncounted others. Rossini's overture outlives not only the opera for which it was made, but also the xylophone-hounds of the two-a-day; and Strauss' waltz is just as virile and real.

Tschaikowsky's fourth symphony, the Pop clientèle's first choice for last year's requested program, was played last night—and played with even better effect than in its recent Friday-Saturday revival. The beloved scherzo in pizzicato took the expected rise from the audience, which, in turn, took a rise from the players: Mr. Stock made them stand for the demonstration. Mr. Esser, head of the violas, and Mr. Napolilli, the English horn, played themselves into an encore with the special writing in "In the Village," from Ippolitow-Ivanov's colorful Caucasian Sketches. Other items of the good bill were the lovely overture to Weber's "Euryanthe" and the smashing wedding-march from Rubinstein's "Feramors." All this music was played gloriously with Mr. Stock, himself, in better form, perhaps, than in any concert since his return to the dais.

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

A small bottle of "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy and wavy.

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—it costs but a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and luster, and try as you will you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

Knowlton Danderine,
Wheeling, W. Va.

Ben Stern, Veteran of Show Managers, Expires

Cable from Wilson Brings Forth Cheers from Suffragists

BY FANNY BUTCHER.

St. Louis, Mo., March 27.—[Special.]—President Wilson was given a rousing cheer today at the fiftieth jubilee convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association after his message to the convention was read by the president of the association, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt.

The president's message was:

"Best wishes for convention. I earnestly hope suffrage amendment will soon be adopted.

WOODROW WILSON."

A cable of appreciation was sent by the convention to the president, expressing an appreciation of his services in their behalf.

The message of the president followed the christening of the new league of woman voters. The christening ceremony was not altogether a festive occasion. But finally the choice of a name was left to the press representatives present. They chose "League of Women Voters" for the new section of the suffrage association which pledges itself to work for the betterment of men and women through legislation.

The league will be composed of all delegates of the National Suffrage association who come from fully enfranchised states. The status of the delegates from the partially enfranchised states, like Illinois and Indiana, has not definitely been decided upon, but they will undoubtedly become members of the league at the beginning of the session tomorrow morning.

The chairmanship of the new body is still undecided. It is thought unfair for New York to claim the honor. The far west is out of the question, because the organizations there have been inactive since they obtained suffrage. Illinois, Indiana, and eleven others are partially enfranchised states. The choice then will probably fall upon some woman from Michigan or Kansas, although the difficulty may be solved by offering the chairmanship to Mrs. Catt as a matter of courtesy.

The league will stand back of legislation to protect women and children in industry, to unify and improve the laws of the states regarding women.

Today Mrs. Raymond Robins outlined a plan for industrial legislation; Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, a plan for civil improvement, and Dr. Valeria H. Parker of Connecticut, for social hygiene.

Honolulu, T. H., March 27.—The house of the Territorial legislature defeated today the woman's suffrage bill. It is expected it will pass a similar measure for submission to a plebiscite.

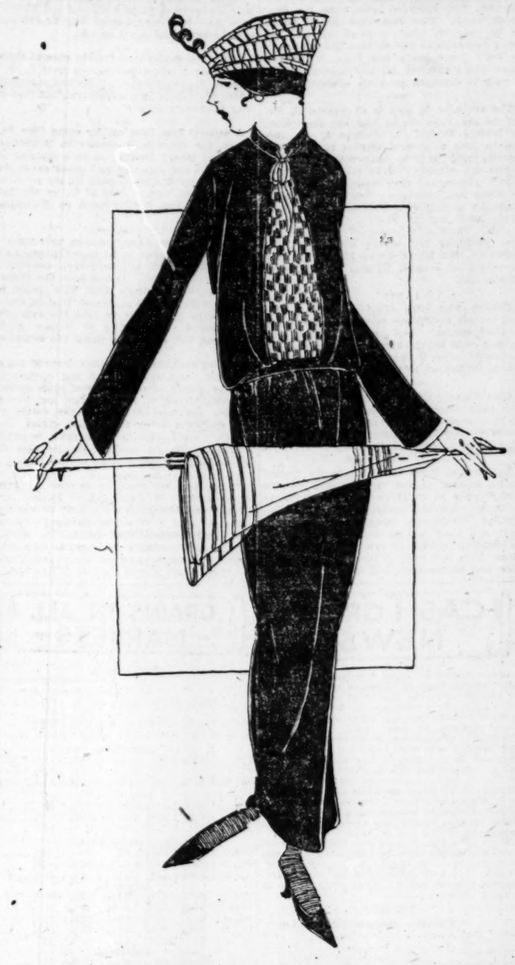
FASHION'S BLUE BOOK
Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.



BY CORINNE LOWE.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Call it a waistcoat or call it a gilet, have it of woolen or have it of filet, it doesn't even count if you name it a "tilly"—it's come up this spring like the daffodowndilly. Our special provocation for breaking into verse is the above street dress of dark blue tricotine. Not content with having a waistcoat of white satin, it must go and embroider this in the new green that of the Italian flag. But this frock, which, by the way, illustrates the new bloused waistline so many people are trying just now, is only one of the spring manifestations of the waistcoat. And this accessory comes up in every type of frock from the suit to the most summery of models.

FINAL BREAK AFTER BULGES LOWERS PRICES

Corn and Oats Both Close with Fair Losses.

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Traders had several innings on both sides of the grain markets with several bulges early and a final break which ended with prices at the lowest of the day showing losses of ⅝c to 2c on corn the latter on March and September, while May lost ⅝c and July 1¾c. Oats were off 1⅜c to 2⅛c and led the break in Chicago.

Corn in the southwestern markets closed 1⅜c higher for March at Kansas City and 1¼@1⅜c off on other months, while St. Louis was 1⅞@2¼c lower. Oats were 1¾@2c lower in the southwest, 1⅝@1⅞c off in Minneapolis, and 2¼@2⅜c lower in Winnipeg. Rye futures in Minneapolis lost 3⅞c and barley 4¼c.

Corn Market Overbought.

Overconfidence on the part of local and outside bulls led to their undoing, and while corn futures were 1⅛@2½c higher early the market became overbought, and when reports of the purchases of two cargoes of Argentine grain were received prices started downward. Buying support was limited until May struck $1.48, or 3c under the early top, and the close was at that figure to ⅛c above. July reacted 3½c and closed at $1.37, while September was $1.31. March finished at $1.59, with a small trade.

Many of the local traders went long on the bulge and were forced to sell out on the break, the close on May being lower for the first time in ten days. The decline in other grains was a factor, as was the continued weakness in sterling exchange, the latter being off to within 1c of the lowest price on record.

Commission house trade was not nearly as large as on the previous day, and sentiment was much more mixed. Corn is moving in fair quantities in the interior, and Omaha had 104 cars, mainly from Iowa and South Dakota, or 7 cars more than Chicago, while Peoria had around 75 cars. Sample values were unchanged to 2c lower, with shipping sales 5,000 bu. Deliveries on March contracts were 7,000 bu.

Weather over the belt promises to be favorable for several days. Feeder demand was again in evidence in parts of Illinois and Iowa. Buenos Aires was off 3⅛@6c, with April there quoted at 49c.

Oats Break Rapidly.

Oat futures developed considerable weakness after being higher early. The bulge was in sympathy with corn, but there was free selling by strong commission houses, and with a sharp break at Winnipeg general selling developed later, and the close was within ⅛@¼c of the bottom, with greater losses than shown in corn. May finished at 64⅛c, July at 63c, and September at 59⅞c.

Local traders were inclined to the buying side early, but were active sellers toward the last. Sellers of bids were forced to protect themselves. Local receipts, 61 cars, with sample values 1c lower and shipping sales 50,000 bu. Deliveries, 30,000 bu. Seeding is progressing where not interrupted by recent rains.

No Export Call for Rye.

Exporters withdrew from the rye market, and with scattered selling futures dropped 4½c. Spot sales were 1@4c lower, with No. 2 at $1.66@1.68½. A round lot was sold for shipment at the opening of navigation at $1.72, c. i. f. Buffalo. Receipts, 9 cars. Milwaukee was 2c lower and Minneapolis 3⅞c lower. The northwest had 96 cars.

Barley demand was less active and prices unchanged to 2c lower, the finish being easy. Spot sales were at $1.08@1.18. Receipts, 70 cars. Milwaukee advanced 1@2c, while Minneapolis was 1c lower. The northwest had 109 cars.

Flax seed at Duluth closed 15@19½c lower; May, $3.61; July, $3.46; October, $3.27. Winnipeg, 13@16c lower; May, $3.37; July, $3.27. The three leading markets had 46 cars.

Clover seed strong, with prices at a new high record. Fancy at Chicago was quoted at $50.00 per 100 lbs at the last, with country lots $30.00@45.00. Toledo, 25c higher; March, $30.00 per bu of 60 lbs. Timothy seed unchanged. Country lots sold at $8.00@9.50 per 100 lbs.

British Selling Provisions.

Liverpool cables say the British government expects to have all its stock of provisions sold by March 31. After that business will be in the hands of private interests and be on a pre-war level as to handling. This has been under way for some time and created no stir among the trade here. Packers have been doing business direct for some time. The latter report a fair foreign and southern trade. Shipments of cured meats were 4,197,000 lbs and lard 1,197,000 lbs, against 2,235,000 lbs meats and 482,000 lbs lard last year. Cash lard in the open market was $27.75 and closed at $27.75 and leaf at $27.25. Hogs were higher and corn prices unsettled. Trading in product was limited. Lard had the best support, but the entire provision list weakened, with the bulk of business at the start, and again at the close, the latter finding prices at the lowest of the day with losses of 12½@15c on pork, 10@12½c on lard, and 7½@10c on short ribs. WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

Action of the corn market yesterday was a surprise to the trade, as most operators looked for a break at the start. Instead higher prices prevailed. Both sides had several innings, with the bears getting the best of it at the last. Early action disappointed the bears and induced some of the bulls to reinstate part of their lines sold out Wednesday but they unloaded later when the final break came. The fact that prices closed at the bottom after a good advance led many operators to believe that the market is to work lower for a few days, or until a large short interest is accumulated, when a rally is expected by close observers.

The situation in corn is so unnatural, owing to the light stocks and the disposition of traders to sell the futures at big discounts, that a nervous market is to be expected until such a time when sufficient stocks are accumulated to act as a balance wheel. December corn went out at $1.64, or 21⅝c over January. The latter finished at $1.27, or 2¼c over February, while February went out at $1.31½, or even with March. There was buying of March at one time yesterday and selling of May at 12c difference, but March broke 1½c at the last on selling of a small lot and was 11c over at the last.

Traders who have Argentine corn bought and futures in Chicago sold, think they have a good spread. One exporter having Argentine corn bought says he is unable to get vessels to move it except at exorbitant rates which he refuses to pay.

Otto Kuesch, the New York exporter, who has been bullish on corn for nearly two months says those who are selling the market down may find a different condition when they begin to buy it back.

Commercial stock of wheat in the United States outside of the farms March 1 were 197,277,000 bu as given by the department of agriculture and cover 12,000 points, including warehouses, mills, and commercial dealers, and are 308 per cent over yast year's. Commercial stocks of rye were four times larger than last year. There were also more oats and barley held, but only 62 per cent of last year's corn supplies were held. The details were not given in Washington reports yesterday.

It is experted that trading in October wheat in Winnipeg will start Aug. 1.

Wheat prices in Buenos Aires yesterday were 5c lower at $1.39 for April and $1.40½ for June. May corn was off 8½c to 58c and oats 1c lower for April at 40c.

"It is our belief that for the present there is no mose prospect for cheaper meat foods," says W. G. Press & Co. "We can see spots where vegetation becomes general, but that is only temporary relief."

A quarrel has been on for some time between the large land owners in Argentina and their tenant farmers as to a division of the profits and expenses on raising grain. As one man put it after looking at the price of 49c for April corn, a drop of 6c for the day in Buenos Aires, "They must be discussing expenses."

Two cargoes of Argentine corn were reported bought yesterday at 5c over Chicago July c. i. f. New York and Galveston, one cargo going to each point. It has been the understanding of the trade that this grain is bought with a strike clause, so that in event of it being impossible to load the sale can be canceled. The strike at Buenos Aires continues, but Rosario is doing the business.

Sterling exchange on London dropped again yesterday, and at one time was quoted at 459, or within 1c of the lowest price during the war, if not on record. Rye and barley exports are expected to feel the result of this decline quicker than other grains, unless they are bought by government, or other interests, who can establish credits that do not require the negotiation of exchange.

"Oats here are weak on account of large stocks at Fort William, and all eastern terminals, and absolutely no export or eastern demand," said a Winnipeg message. "Oats that were shipped west during the winter for feed are now being reshipped to Fort William." Winnipeg recovered 5c yesterday and the break there started the late selling here.

CASH GRAIN NEWS

Little change in prices for cash wheat was noticeable at Chicago, northern springs selling at 18@19c over the basic, but red winter at St. Louis was unchanged to 2c lower, and a slow demand for all kinds was reported. Local receipts, 15 cars.

Offerings of cash corn here were not large, but demand was slow, and prices were unchanged to 2c lower. The southwest had small receipts, but offerings sold slowly, with St. Louis 2@5c lower and Kansas City unchanged to 2c lower on white and unchanged to 1c higher on yellow. Omaha arrivals were 104 cars, against 43 cars last year, and prices 3@5c lower. Peoria was unchanged to 1½c lower and Milwaukee 2c higher.

Elevator interests were the best buyers of oats, and prices were 1c lower, closing weak with futures. St. Louis was ½@1c lower, Peoria 1c lower, Milwaukee ½c lower, and Kansas City unchanged. Cash grain prices in leading markets follow:

RESERVE BANK BUILDS DISCOUNT MARKET IN CITY

Bills Accepted by Brokers May Be Sold to Depositary.

BY GLENN GRISWOLD.

The federal reserve bank of Chicago has taken an epochal step in the creation and development of a discount market in Chicago. An arrangement has been made whereby bills accepted by banks in this reserve district may be sold to the bank, by brokers under an agreement that they will be repurchased within fifteen days.

The reserve bank makes no charge for the service, simply charging the discount rate of interest for the number of days the acceptances are held. This, in effect, amounts to the bank furnishing the capital needed by brokers to carry a stock of acceptances.

Gives Backing to Dealers.

This gives strong backing and assures success to the feeble attempts that private dealers have been making to establish a bill market in Chicago, long after Cleveland, St. Louis, and other cities have broad markets in operation. Chicago had been so backward in this respect that bankers in other centers were beginning to find amusement in the situation.

With the market in full operation, enormous sums of money which Chicago banks have maintained as balances in New York banks will be withdrawn and brought home, for the Chicago banker might as well buy the acceptance of his New York bank at 4⅜ per cent as to leave his money on deposit in the east at 2 per cent. The change means that a large amount of money which Chicago bankers have loaned on the stock exchange on call as a secondary reserve will be returned here to finance commercial enterprise, rather than stock speculation, and encourages the belief that a real call money may be created in Chicago, one built on acceptance loans, rather than stock market loans.

Offers Bank Opportunity.

The arrangement offers banks an opportunity to make some profit aside from the regular discount. If they buy ninety day acceptances, hold them until the maturity date is within thirty days, and then rediscount at the federal reserve bank they may obtain a rate of 4 per cent on paper bearing 4¼ or 4⅜.

The reserve bank makes it clear that the benefits of the arrangements are intended for the Seventh district only. The repurchase arrangement applies only to acceptances by banks in the district, and then only those of larger banks whose indorsement gives real security to the document accepted.

There was some improvement in Liberty bonds and foreign issues were steadier, Japanese issues being particularly strong. Wilson & Co. 6s were leaders among the industrials.

COFFEE PRICES.

NEW YORK, March 27.—The market for coffee futures was comparatively quiet, but showed a steadier tone today, and the close showed a net gain of 10 to 13 points.

Closing bids: May, 15.00c; July, 14.33c; September, 14.08c; October, 14.00c; December, 13.83c; January, 13.83c; March, 13.88c.

Spot coffee was quiet: Rio 7s, 16¼c; Santos 4s, 21⅛c. The official cable showed a decline of 75 reis in the Rio market. Santos futures were 75 to 125 reis higher. Brazilian port receipts, 23,000 bags; Jundiahy receipts, 10,000 bags. Santos cleared 33,000 bags for New York.

REGRET CHICAGO FIRE DIDN'T DO GREATER DAMAGE

Real Estate Men Sorry Madison St. Was Spared.

In discussing conditions on Madison street, west of the river, at the luncheon of the Chicago real estate board yesterday, Ernest Woltersdorf expressed the opinion that that part of the street was most unfortunate in escaping the Chicago fire, the result of which is found in th miserable character of much of the improvements along the street, to which he attributed much of the present depressed conditions there.

To an almost utter lack of any planning he attributed much of the trouble and expressed the opinion that under a zoning system different conditions would prevail. He declared that Chicago had never got over the village idea and the feeling that everything must go to State street. He was optimistic regarding the future of the street, however, expressing the opinion it would ultimately become the center of a great manufacturing district, which, with the river as a thoroughfare, supplemented by the railroads, was destined to have a great future.

Explains Bad Spots.

Callistus S. Ennis, who talked about the street east of the river, said that, with a few possible exceptions, there was nothing the matter with the street, which, he said, was the greatest of all the east and west thoroughfares. He said the failure of owners to get together, as in the South State street district, and bring about more attractive improvements was largely responsible for the bad spots in the street.

Preceding the discussion President Ackley said that advices from Springfield indicated the passage of the $2.35 tax rate. In this event, he declared, undoubtedly there would be a further advance in rents next year. There will be a special meeting of the board today at 2 o'clock to discuss matters pending at Springfield.

$325,00 Loan on Building.

S. W. Straus & Co. have underwritten a bond issue loan of $325,000 in connection with the construction by the Krasberg Engineering and Manufacturing corporation of its proposed new building at 451-469 East Ohio street, adjoining the Lake Shore and Ohio building at Ohio street, overlooking Lake Michigan, three floors of which are now occupied by the Krasberg corporation. The proposed new building will be seven stories and basement, of heavy mill construction, with a load capacity of 200 pounds to the square foot. It will be similar in appearance to the Lake Shore and Ohio building, will front 200 feet on Ohio street, with a depth of 130 feet, and will have approximately 130,000 square feet of rentable space. Its cost is placed at about $435,000, and the work of construction is to begin at once. The company manufactures special machinery, tools, jigs, machine fixtures, gauges, phonograph motors, etc.

The Hool Realty company reports nine leases in the State-Lake building on the fourth, sixth, eighth, and twelfth floors of the building for an aggregate term rental of $81,900.

Loop Store Leased.

The Jack Shannon company, retailers of sporting goods, formerly located in East Monroe street near Wabash avenue, have leased from Jay C. McCord and Downer McCord the store at 111 South Dearborn street, in the Adams Express building, for a term rental of about $50,000. Warren A. Cahn was the broker.

CANADA RAILWAYS TO CHANGE TIME.

Montreal, March 27.—Notwithstanding the reported decision of the government not to reintroduce daylight saving this year, all Canadian railways will operate under the scheme. They were ordered to do so March 30 by the Canadian railway war board today.

FINANCIAL NOTES

French exchange fell to 6 francs to the dollar yesterday, a discount of 14 per cent on French credit and within 9½ centimes of the lowest mark on record. This is a measure of the price France must pay for her determination to let natural laws determine the value of her exchange. For five days in the autumn of 1915 and eight days in April, 1916, francs sold below the 6 francs to the dollar rate, and in the last named period went as low as 6.09½. Three weeks ago when the government ceased artificial control of the market francs were 5.46½, a discount of but 5 per cent. Sterling was weaker and came within a negligible fraction of the low point for the war.

Mark L. Requa, federal oil administrator, announced yesterday that the need for the government regulation of the oil industry is at an end and that within two weeks the last of the regulations of the oil administration will be suspended. The authority of the administration will continue nominally until peace has been proclaimed officially.

Brewing company securities are strong and show recent gains. Company managers are confident that they will be permitted to manufacture a 2½ per cent beer after July 1. Many of the companies are strong in cash and are believed to possess liquidating values in excess of market prices of the stock. A number of companies have arranged to go into the production of various sorts of food products.

Inspiration Copper directors reduced the dividend from $2 to $1.50 for the quarter. Magma Copper directors yesterday passed the dividend. The Inspiration cut has been expected for six months and is the first since the days of 26 cent copper. The coppers as a whole advanced sharply despite dividend reports. The Inspiration action has been fully discounted and the street was happy that the cut was no greater. The metal market was strong, with the principal dealers holding to a 15¼ rate and doing considerable business at that figure.

Halsey, Stuart & Co. offered yesterday $11,000,000 Laclede Gas Light company of St. Louis, Mo., first mortgage collateral and refunding ten year 7 per cent bonds, series A, dated Jan. 1, 1919, due Jan. 1, 1929, at 100 and interest. The entire issue was sold and par was bid on the curb at the close.

Directors of Wilson & Co. will hold a meeting on April 9 and interests close to the company's affairs expect the stock to be placed on a dividend basis at that time. The initial rate probably will not be over 6 per cent annually.

Large contracts for fuel oil are again being entered into by the Mexican Petroleum company, and it is expected that within a few months the company's tankers will be operating at full capacity. Contracts being signed are the first in a program of expansion which the management has been working on.

The railroad administration announced today that as great lakes navigation would be resumed about April 1 it had been decided to establish differential rates by way of the lake and rail routes. Compared with the pre-war adjustments, the differentials will be lower and the territories of origin and destination modified. A plan for establishing uniform west bound rates by the Atlantic seaboard to interior destinations is being considered by officials of the eastern operating region.

Willys-Overland Company Shows Gain in Earnings

The annual report of the Willys-Overland company for the year ended Dec. 31, 1918, shows a slight gain in net after all ordinary charges. The directors, however, charged off $1,000,000 for possible and actual losses in the Curtis Aeroplane investment and nearly doubled the charge for depreciation and renewals. This left surplus amounting to 10.7 per cent on the $39,428,087 common outstanding, as compared to 12.6 per cent on the $39,385,462 stock outstanding the previous year.

The balance sheet shows that current assets decreased from $59,921,000 to $55,315,716, and current liabilities increased from $29,907,000 to $32,895,216. This leaves working capital of $22,420,500, as compared to $30,014,033 a year ago.

President John N. Willys in his report shows that the company had $75,000,000 of war contracts and was working 80 per cent on capacity on them when the war ceased. The income account compares:

Production of Coal Only 50 Per Cent of Full Time

New York, March 27.—[Special.]—Production of both anthracite and bituminous coal stands at a total of about 50 per cent of full time output, and most of this shortage is caused by lack of orders according to reports furnished by the geological survey to the fuel administration. This condition has existed approximately since Christmas, and, in fact, production has been low ever since the signing of the armistice. The demand for coal has been gradually falling off all during the mild winter, with a corresponding decline in production.

THE ELEMENTS OF CREDIT

CHARACTER is the foundation of credit. Frequent personal contact between banker and business man promotes a true appraisal of this factor.

ABILITY of the men at the head of a business has weight in determining the credit to which the business is entitled.

PRESTIGE of a firm or its product is a substantial item in maintaining credit.

EARNINGS are an important consideration in fixing the borrowing power of a business.

ASSETS and their relation to liabilities is a vital equation in the statistical data upon which borrowing capacity is estimated.

NET WORTH. The increase in net worth, from year to year, to proportionate to the growth of a business has a definite bearing on credit.

HABITS OF PAY. A cash discounting record in paying bills is another of the statistical facts upon which loans are based.

BANK BALANCE. The daily bank balance of the borrower is always a factor in obtaining credit.

AUDITED STATEMENTS afford an excellent basis for discussing credit between the business man and his bank.

THE MEASURE OF CREDIT is a carefully-balanced operation which considers specific facts and less tangible values also. There are no hard and fast rules in applying these measurements to a given case; each must be dealt with individually.

IN EXTENDING CREDIT our officers desire a close business acquaintance with customers in order that they may have a thorough understanding of each client's business. Underlying values are often more important than surface facts or statistics.

We will gladly discuss this whole subject of credit, in detail, with business men.

EUROPEAN BANKS RELY ON U. S. TO HELP THEM

Position of Country as a Borrowing Nation Is Reversed.

There is growing evidence that banks and banking houses in the United States will be asked by European banking concerns to furnish capital with which to help in the revival of business in foreign countries. While the United States may not become the world's banker, its position as a borrower has been reversed and not only foreign governments but foreign industrial corporations expect to find here credit of the kind which they formerly extended.

Arthur Reynolds, vice president of the Continental and Commercial National bank, returned yesterday from the east. He was impressed, as he has been for some time, with the expectation of general demands on this country.

Eastern Banks Buying.

He said, among other things:

"I found the large New York banks have already bought freely of foreign securities, handled or guaranteed by foreign banking houses. One eastern bank has loaned $50,000,000 on Belgium securities. These securities are both government and corporation and are handled through banking houses. Other bank officials with whom I happened to talk have loaned smaller amounts, but, in a general way, I believe it is true that all the large institutions are expecting to handle foreign securities for the purpose indicated. We shall have much to do in this way with putting industries of the war countries again on their feet, and we shall contribute to a resumption of European prosperity.

"What is true of the large New York banks is going to be true of western institutions prepared to enter the foreign field, and the Continental and Commercial National expects to avail itself liberally of opportunities along this line. We have already made a beginning.

In Cheerful Mood.

"I found eastern bankers in the most cheerful frame of mind I have noted in many months. They accord special importance, so far as our domestic trade situation is concerned, to the recent fixing of steel prices. Also they strongly believe, and with some assurance from Washington, that the government will presently fix lower prices for other large commodities, and thus open the way for trade activity. E. H. Gary's announcement that the steel prices agreed upon would be adhered to for at least the remainder of 1919 is expected to remove from the minds of prospective purchasers any notion that waiting will bring lower quotations. With other large commodities adjusted to steel prices and the lower prices voluntarily made by copper producers, there is left little room to doubt a large resumption in business activity.

Expect Early Peace.

"The prospect of early peace is another big factor in the minds of eastern bankers. They believe they can foresee that peace treaties will be followed by the world in general turning its mind toward productive industry. This should follow in substantially all European countries, and I believe there is no doubt about what will happen at home.

"The banks, so far as I could learn, believe the next Liberty loan will be taken, but at this time they think it will require more work to make it a go. There is, however, no apprehension over the outcome.

MARKET MOVES FORWARD AGAIN ON WORLD NEWS

Prices Are Affected by Many Favorable Developments.

The New York Times

New York, March 27.—[Special.]—Speculative sentiment in the stock market was freed today from the influences within and without the street which had caused hesitation the day before, and prices moved forward practically from the start of business.

Dealings seemed to be chiefly in the hands of traders who stay close to the ticker and the covering of short sales made earlier in the week was apparently a factor in the advance. The market had several favorable developments to consider, and it was again noticeable that the foreign situation held a position in the trading mind secondary to occurrences of domestic import.

Thus the steel stocks received a fresh forward impetus from the observations of the head of the Steel corporation, whose surveys of potential consumption of steel products have not lessened his optimism in recent weeks. It might be said that Mr. Gary's statement that improvement had occurred in steel buying since prices were reduced worked to remove doubts from the minds of a great many observers of market occurrences. The actual extent of new orders could be shown only in figures from the order books, and these will become available the next fortnight.

Hines' Statement Helps.

The probability of increased buying of steel by the railroads came to the attention of the market again through Director General Hines' assertion that the recent announcement of curtailment should not be taken too literally. The railroad stocks were helped by this and the shares of equipment companies also, although due notice was accorded Mr. Hines' remarks that the individual railroad companies would have the last word about the extent of their particular outlays.

The security markets displayed a neutral attitude in regard to news from the peace conference and from the disturbed regions of the Balkans. If anything, some comfort was acquired from the belief that the rapid and unexpected developments in Hungary and some of the smaller states would hasten work on the peace treaty.

The fact that French exchange fell rather sharply to a new low record for about two years, coincident with the announcement that $100,000,000 had been advanced to France by the United States treasury, was accepted in financial circles as merely another step in putting the exchange markets on a free basis. Sterling maintained a steady tone.

Figures More Significant.

The impression prevails that those exchanges and probably some of the exchanges of other countries will ultimately move to lower levels, and if the movement becomes much more pronounced the country's foreign trade figures will carry increased significance.

An Experience in Profit Sharing

IN our opinion, there is no subject which at this time should receive greater attention from employers than profit sharing.

About three years ago this bank originated an employes' savings and profit-sharing plan. It does not restrict the employe's right to act individually and contemplates actual financial independence for each participant.

Under the plan the employes invest from 2 to 5 per cent of their salaries, while the bank contributes 5 per cent of its net profits semi-annually before paying dividends. The employes now have to their credit over four times the amount they have put in.

Other concerns have adopted the plan, with modifications when necessary, and in each case it has turned out to be just as successful as it has been with us. The benefit of our experience is at the disposal of any interested employer.

Speculators opened the hog market unevenly higher with some sales as much as 25c above low time Wednesday. Shippers and small packers were compelled to follow the early advance while most of the big packing concerns purchased indifferently, leaving 10,000 in the pens at the close a good share of them held by speculators. Armour houses bought only 500 at a cost of $19.00.

High point for the day was $19.65 for 280@300 lb butchers on speculative account. Shippers paid as high as $19.60, while few sold to packers above $19.50. Day's average price at $19.38 was 16c higher than Wednesday, 19c lower than a week ago, and $2.38 above corresponding Thursday a year ago, when the average dropped 45c to $17.00.

Estimated receipts of hogs at 24,000 were nearly 10,000 below what many traders expected and encouraged speculators to go after the "crop." Combined arrivals at the eleven markets totaled 81,000, against 108,000 a week ago and 125,000 a year ago. General quality here was fairly good, with underweights comparatively scarce.

A strong undertone featured the cattle market, general selling being strong to 25c higher; better grades of butcher stock and medium grades of steers were the strongest sellers. Calves were steady to weak, bulk selling around $15.00@15.25, with best at $15.75 and common light grades down to $14.50, the range widening.

Very light cattle receipts since the opening day of the week enabled prices to react. Bulk of sales show 50@75c gain over Monday and, in some instances, as much as $1.00 advance is quoted from the lowest time at the start of the week.

Sheep house trade was a very dull affair, with general selling about steady with the low time of the previous day. Like Wednesday, packers and sellers were deadlocked, and it was late in the day before bulk changed hands.

A bunch of experimentally fed lambs from the Iowa State college sold at $20.40, but the sale was out of line, as best Colorado offerings had to sell at $20.00, being $1.00 lower than a week ago. Some more prime Wisconsin fed wethers sold at $17.15, equaling Tuesday's sale.

Receipts for today are estimated at 4,000 cattle, 25,000 hogs, and 7,000 sheep, against 7,136 cattle, 36,825 hogs, and 5,324 sheep corresponding Friday a year ago.

GOVERNMENT BUYS FLOUR

Government purchases of flour this week have been 400,000 brls, in jute, Baltimore. These were the smallest takings in the last seven weeks of business. The total for that period is 4,148,000 brls. Prices paid this week were 25c higher for the top, soft wheats being $10.10 to $10.85, and hards $10.30 to $10.85. Chicago mills secured none of the business this week.

Domestic trade has picked up a little and the larger consumers are disposed to anticipate requirements for the next sixty days. With wheat prices higher flour values are firm. Special Minneapolis brands are $12.25 to $12.40 to the retail trade and $11.70 to $11.75 for bakers' patents in car lots. Straights are $11.50. First clears are $9.15 to $9.50, and are moving better. Rye flour is selling better, with white patent $9.20, straight rye $8.90, dark rye $6.00 to $6.50, barley flour slow sale at $7.25 per brl.

COTTON TRADE NEWS

NEW YORK, March 27.—A more optimistic view of the situation in Europe and unfavorable weather for farm work advanced cotton prices today approximately $5 a bale with the general list closing at gains of 90@115 points.

Liverpool was a good buyer here, while there was active covering by recent sellers and also some southern buying of new crop months. A local firm was reported to have received a cable from a Hamburg firm, asking for information concerning futures, and in some quarters this was taken as foreshadowing an effort to resume business as soon as peace is declared.

A local authority in a report issued after the close estimated a reduction of 15.9 per cent in acreage, with a prospective crop of 11,320,000 bales.

United States port stocks, 1,304,940 bales. Exports, 3,434 bales; exports so far this season, 3,354,997. Futures:

LAY PLANS FOR CORPORATION.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—April 10 has been fixed as the date for a conference here of cotton planters, bankers, and representatives of southern business interests with state and federal officials to consider the formation of a cotton exporting corporation along lines recently suggested by Gov. W. P. G. Harding of the federal reserve board.

As suggested by Mr. Harding, the proposed corporation would be capitalized at $50,000,000 to arrange foreign credits and maintain agencies in European capitals and trade centers to promote the interests of the cotton industry.

PRODUCE TRADE

Butter prices here dropped 3½c, with an unsettled feeling had a fair trade. It was claimed by some that low grades sold comparatively better than the high. LOCAL 'CHANGE HAS LIVELIEST DAY SINCE 1898

Swift and Libby-McNeill the Principal Stocks Dealt In.

The Chicago stock exchange enjoyed yesterday the largest day's trading in twenty years, the number of shares of stock dealt in being 35,600. This tops even the palmy days when the Moore specialties created the previous boom on the exchange.

The big business of the day was in Swift International stock, which was traded in to the extent of 19,900 shares. Libby-McNeill ranked next with 9,500 shares. The rest of the buying was scattered throughout the list.

The two stocks mentioned are so-called subsidiaries of Swift & Co.—at least, they were at one time, but have been sold to stockholders of the company. The big trading in Swift International, the plants of which are all in South America, has just enough mystery about it to excite speculative interest. All the street knows is that the International is free of income taxes, such as are levied in the United States, and that the company's earnings are relatively a number of times larger than those of the parent company, Swift & Co.

Charles Swift on Mission.

It has not been previously announced that Charles H. Swift, vice president of Swift & Co., and who largely has charge of the foreign business, has sailed for Buenos Aires in connection with the affairs of the International company. It is easy to guess that Vice President Swift's mission is an important one and that something will be done when he reaches the headquarters of the company. Since much of the buying of International stock comes from packing house interests, it is a reasonable inference that the present price, 60 at one time yesterday on the New York curb and 59⅝ here, would not have been reached without possibilities of an unusual character behind the stock. The par value of the shares is $15 and the price of $60 is 400 per cent of par. Libby-McNeil, which, however, is a domestic corporation, at 28¼ is selling at 285 per cent of par.

Some Interesting Features.

There are some interesting features that may be noted in connection with the market price of the stocks. Libby-McNeil pays on its par value 10 per cent, or $1 a year per share. At the present market price, 28¼, the return to the investor is 3½ per cent. Swift & Co., the old stock, pays 8 per cent and sells at 130, making a net return of 6.15 per cent. International pays no dividends. If it paid a dividend sufficient to net to the investor the same amount as Libby-McNeil does, 3½, it would have to pay a 30 per cent dividend on its par value, $15. If it paid a dividend sufficient to equal the net return to Swift & Co. stockholders, 6.15 per cent, its dividend rate at the present price would have to be 37 per cent on the par value.

CHICAGO STOCK TRANSACTIONS

In the local stock market, aside from the trading in the various Swift issues, mentioned elsewhere, the active business was in Union Carbide and Carbon. The price appears to have settled between 64 and 65. The buying, however, is of a good character.

Connecting Railways preferred advanced ⅝ on one transaction to 7½. The fact of interest lies in the suggestion that some one believes the mayoralty election will improve the position of street railroad securities. A price feature was an advance of 5 points in the American Shipbuilding common to 110. The buyings were not large, but the offerings were light.

Positive announcement came from New York that the directors of Wilson & Co. will meet on April 9 to take dividend action. The eastern prediction, like the local one, is that dividends will begin at the rate of 6 per cent. Buying for a higher price rested when the expectation became general that only 6 per cent would be paid. In New York the final quotation was 81½. Locally the price closed at 82.

Peoples Gas was off ¼ point in Chicago, but ⅝ higher in New York. Booth Fisheries, Stewart Warner, Sears-Roebuck common, and Commonwealth Edison were steady.

INSURANCE NEWS IN ALL BRANCHES EAST AND WEST

Report on Income Tax on the Industrial Risk Policies.

BY THOMAS R. WEDDELL.

C. A. Atkinson of the Federal Life, J. B. Boyer of the National Life of the U. S. of A., and Edward St. Clair of the North American Accident were appointed a committee by the health and accident underwriters' conference to advise the companies in reference to the application to their industrial business of the new war revenue act. The tax is imposed upon the first weekly or monthly premium, being 40 per cent of the first weekly premium or 20 per cent of the first monthly premium. As the practice has been to give the first premium to the agent for writing the business, the companies were not getting it and yet were paying a heavy tax on it. In consequence it was decided to increase the policy fee.

After reviewing the provisions of the law, which becomes effective April 1, the report announces that the attorney general has just ruled that in calculating the tax the policy fee should be excluded and only the regular weekly or monthly premium included. The committee recommends that in the policy form there should be a complete severance of the policy fee and the premium and the policy fee should not cover any period of insurance. One company has issued a form which reads as follows: "The fee for issuing this policy is —— dollars, and the monthly premium is —— dollars."

INSURANCE INSTITUTE.

A large number of insurance company officers attended the luncheon given by the Insurance Institute of America in New York yesterday to further the educational work of that organization. Frederick Richardson of Philadelphia, president of the institute, reviewed its achievements during its nine years of existence and outlined its plans for the future. He recommended that it be made a chartered institution, authorized to grant degrees, and that the companies give preference in making appointments to those who have completed its courses. From the lectures delivered during recent years the material for a number of valuable insurance textbooks has been accumulated, but the publication of these involves large expenditures, and to this end the coöperation of the companies is desired.

TO DISCUSS NORTH DAKOTA.

The national board of fire underwriters has sent to its members a review of the legislation enacted by the recent session of the North Dakota legislature, which is under control of the Nonpartisan league. Several of the laws seriously affect fire insurance, and the national board suggests that the companies should hold a conference as to the situation. This will probably be held in Philadelphia at the time of the meeting of the Western Union.

INSURANCE NOTES.

Progress was made at the conference in New York this week between the national workmen's compensation service bureau and the national automobile bureau, representing the nonconference companies, on the proposition for a plan of co-operation. Another conference will be held within a few weeks.

The Smith-Lawson-Coambs company is now granting a credit on automobile collision premiums for the use of bumpers. If the machine is equipped with a front bumper the reduction is from $5 to $10 per car, and if with both front and rear bumpers the reduction is from $8 to $20 per car.

Sumner Ballard, president of the International Insurance company and formerly insurance editor of the Journal of Commerce, is one of a syndicate which has bought the International bank in New York City from the International Banking corporation.

W. C. Scheide & Co. have resigned as general agents of the Eagle Fire of New Jersey, taking effect March 31. After that date the Eagle, which does a reinsurance business, will handle its direct.

The automobile rate war, which has been on in Missouri since December, has been ended, and the stock companies and interinsurers have instructed their agents to get regular rates after April 1.

Georgia Railway and Power.

A. E. L.: The Georgia Railway and Power company has outstanding $12,971,000 of refunding bonds, which are junior to about $1,800,000 of underlying liens. The company has under lease the Georgia Railway and Electric and one or two smaller companies and pays interest on their bonds and dividends on their stocks. It also has outstanding $2,500,000 of debentures secured by deposit of refunding bonds. The total fixed charge is heavy, and in 1917 was covered only one and one-fourth times. No report for 1918 is available. Company is engaged in litigation over its demands for an increased fare. On the basis of these facts the refunding bonds are in a somewhat speculative position.

McCrory Stores.

H. J. T.: The McCrory Stores corporation operates a chain of 5 and 10 cent stores. The business was started years ago, but the present corporation has been in existence only since 1915. In 1918 it showed a good increase in earnings, gross profits being $2,990,026, and net, after taxes, etc., $347,114. The preferred dividend took $84,746 and the sinking fund for preferred stock $38,396. There is now $1,185,300 of preferred outstanding and $5,000,000 of common. Common represents little except good will. The preferred stock is not yet well seasoned. It has made a good record thus far.

Brief Answers.

G. S.: All the tobacco companies have profited in the last two or three years through increase in value of tobacco. American Sumatra earned $29.75 a share on its common stock in the year ended July 31 last, compared with $18.97 the year before. Such earnings cannot be expected to continue indefinitely.

H. S. C.: The Lee Rubber and Tire corporation earned $200,348 in 1918. This equals $2 a share, compared with a few cents a share in 1917. There is no bonded debt. Net working capital is now $1,630,383, compared with $1,167,451 a year ago.

MENTAL DEPRECIATION.

Depreciation on machinery is always figured as a loss against the business. Mental depreciation—yours personally—if caused by the lack of constructive work, dissatisfaction in business, politics, and a thousand and one other items which enter into the every day business life. This cannot be figured in dollars and cents, but over a period of years it materially affects the earning capacity of the particular individual.

Your mind must work constructively all of the time in order to get the maximum benefits from it. It must continually assimilate knowledge. It must be able to absorb conditions and facts and increase its own efficiency by so doing.

If your position today does not offer you these opportunities you are depreciating mentally, and it will in time materially affect your earning capacity.

Our business is to size up and advise you relative to your own ability, and thousands upon thousands of men have been benefited by our expert knowledge along this line.

Orders are coming faster every day. What we need is men. We can place you advantageously NOW.
